The Baptist Magazine ,1816      Annual Session of the Baptist Congress for the Discussion of Current Questions, Held at ... ,1911      The Standard ,1900      The Secularization of Baptism Mark G. McKim,2025-01-31 Does God actually do anything in baptism Is it more than just a symbol Most early Baptists would have answered yes Most Baptists today would answer no How and why did this change happen and does it matter Providing thorough documentation of the changing understandings of baptism among American Canadian and English Baptists from the 1600s to the present day The Secularization of Baptism demonstrates that four factors led to the symbolic only position becoming dominant These were suspicion in reaction to Roman Catholicism of the idea of God revealing himself through the physical the influence of the Enlightenment and embarrassment with claims that God could be acting in the world today reaction against the Oxford Movement and reaction against the understanding of baptism advocated by the Disciples of Christ Campbellites The now dominant symbolic only position so focuses attention on what the believer is doing in baptism that God is seen as largely absent from and doing nothing through the rite in effect believers baptism has been secularized A carefully reasoned biblical and theological argument is made for a return to the Regular Particular Baptist view that God is both profoundly spiritually present and active in baptism while at the same time rejecting the sacramentalist position advocated by a small number of mid twentieth and twenty first century Baptists such as H Wheeler Robinson George Beasley Murray Stanley K Fowler and Anthony R Cross      "I Could Not Speak My Heart" University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2004 This anthology of 19 articles documents the pain misunderstanding that lesbian gay bisexual transgendered people have experienced in the very recent past and demonstrates the real progress both in theory in practice that has been made in the struggle for equity social justice The articles include autobiography testament fiction poetry and traditional personal analytic essays from authors with different intellectual perspectives human rights social reform human justice feminist liberationist and queer theory      The Christian Melodist ,1857      ThirdWay ,1985-01 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture      Annual Baptist Autumnal Conference for the Discussion of Current Questions, Held ... ,1909      *Memoir of Ann H. Evans,2002-10-21 Robert Wuthnow and John H Evans bring together a stellar collection of essays that paints a contemporary portrait of American Protestantism a denomination that has remained quietly but firmly influential in the public sphere Mainline Protestants may have steered clear of the controversial attention grabbing tactics of the Religious

Right but they remain culturally influential and continue to impact American society through political action and the provision of social services The contributors to this volume address religion s larger role in society and cover such topics as welfare ecology family civil rights and homosexuality Pioneering timely and meticulously researched The Quiet Hand of God will be an essential reference to the dynamics of American religion well into the twenty first century Women and Twentieth-century Protestantism Margaret Lamberts Bendroth, Virginia Lieson Brereton, 2002 Contributors consider the emergence of Latina Pentecostal clergy in the United States and the success of the Women s Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention in remaining independent of male dominated denominational structures Among other topics the authors discuss Chinese immigrant women who embraced the relative freedom offered by Protestant religion African American women who assumed religious authority through their historical writing and the struggles of women faith healers in defining their role amid medical and evangelical professionalism

The Development of Russian Evangelical Spirituality Gregory L. Nichols, 2011-11-09 Today many evangelicals in the Russian speaking world emphasize sanctification as a distinctive mark of their Christian faith This is a unique characteristic particularly in the European context Their historic tapestry has been woven from a number of threads that originated in the second half of the nineteenth century Missionary efforts of the German Baptists a revival sparked by a British evangelist and a pietistic awakening among the Mennonites in the South converged to form a tapestry that displays Protestant Baptist and Anabaptist heritage Ivan Kargel uniquely participated in the formation and ministry of each of these threads His life spans from Tsarist Russia to the Soviet Union Kargel refused to adhere to a systematic view of theology Instead he urged believers to go to Scripture and draw from the riches of a life united with Christ Kargel s influence today is keenly felt across the Russian speaking evangelical world as they seek to identify the roots of their spiritual identity This book examines the influences on Ivan Kargel and offers insights into how his life and work are expressed in the tapestry of Russian evangelical spirituality
