102 Mark 1992      The Origins of Pauline Pneumatology Finny Philip, 2005 Finny Philip inquires into Paul's initial thoughts on the Holy Spirit Paul's conviction that he was called to be an apostle to the Gentiles and that God bestowed the Spirit upon the Gentiles apart from Torah obedience is the basis for any inquiry on this subject Central to Philip's argument is Paul's conviction that God graciously endowed his Gentile converts with the gift of the Spirit an understanding that is rooted primarily in his conversion experience and secondarily in his experience with and as a missionary of the Hellenistic community in Antioch In examining the range of expectations of the Spirit that were present in both Hebrew scripture and in the wider Jewish literature the author comes to the conclusion that such a concept is rare and that it is usually the covenant community to which the promise of the Spirit is given Furthermore Paul's own pre-Christian convictions about the Spirit a result of his own self-perception as a Pharisee and persecutor of the church display continuity between his thought patterns and those of Second Temple Judaism Paul's Damascus experience was an experience of the Spirit His experience of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ 2 Cor 3 1 4 6 provided him with the belief that there was now a new relationship with God which was possible through the sphere of the Spirit In addition Paul was influenced by the Hellenists whose theological beliefs included the perception of the church as the eschatological temple in which the Spirit of God is the manifest presence of God It is in these notions that one may trace the origins of Paul's thoughts on the Holy Spirit      A History of Biblical
