Stewart Macaulay: Selected Works David Campbell, 2020-10-30 This book represents a unique resource about Stewart Macaulay one of the common law world's leading scholars of the law of contract and of the law in action approach to the study of law Since 1959 he has published over 50 articles in leading journals a number of working papers with colleagues at the University of Wisconsin Law School a pathbreaking casebook for the teaching of the law of contract and with other colleagues equally pathbreaking collections of materials for the teaching of the law in action or law in context approach to the study of law In this work Macaulay has established himself as one of the postwar world's leading scholars of the law of contract and of the sociology of law His work is an absolute reference point in both disciplines and it has attracted great attention elsewhere most notably in economic sociology where his concept of non contractual economic relationships is regarded as an important theoretical innovation Macaulay s work has become an object of commentary in its own right and the proposed book is intended to assist further such commentary by making hitherto difficult to obtain works readily accessible Most of Macaulay s work is now when the leading journals are generally available in electronic form readily accessible to students and researchers in universities There are however a number of interesting and in most cases important works published in less accessible journals or works which were not published in an electronic form which are difficult to obtain This book will make them readily available and in so doing will make it possible in future for scholars to have Macaulay s complete oeuvre readily to hand Although Macaulay s work has provoked very considerable discussion there previously have been no overall accounts of that work as opposed to critical engagements with aspects of it In this book two additional essays by leading commentators give accounts of Macaulay s work and provide an introduction to exegesis of and general evaluation of Macaulay s work as a whole which is not to be found in the existing literature

Forensic Science William J. Tilstone,2006-03-24 The only A Z reference work on forensic science one of the most intriguing and exciting fields in criminological studies From dandruff to DNA from ammunition to infrared spectrophotometry forensic scientists employ the commonplace and the esoteric to get their man or woman Forensic Science is the only comprehensive reference work accessible to nonexperts on this fast changing and ever fascinating field of criminological study Readers will learn how the latest scientific breakthroughs and the well honed instincts of forensics experts come together to provide the clues and amass the evidence to bring America s most notorious criminals to justice From famous firsts in forensics to possible future developments in the science the expert team of contributors put together by William Tilstone executive director of the National Forensic Science Technology Center examines techniques and technologies key cases critical controversies and ethical and legal issues Intrigue of the Past Catherine M. Cameron,1997 Who is the Historian? Nigel A. Raab,2016-01-01 Who Is the Historian highlights the skill set imparted to those pursuing a historical education and clearly demonstrates the value of the historian in the contemporary world Intrigue of the Past ,1993

Presenting the Past Larry J. Zimmerman,2003-03-19 Using the right media archeologists can and must educate and excite the people who need their information Larry Zimmerman s earnestly engaging guide to reporting archaeological findings argues that communication is one of archaeology s primary tasks He offers advice on working with colleagues identifying audiences and creating dynamic jargon free prose He offers easy pointers for developing and writing effective CRM reports conference papers and articles in general interest magazines Students will benefit from Zimmerman s frank advice about citations and style as well as his discussion of diverse audiences Practicing archeologists will learn much from the discussion of electronic media and new ways to reach non academic audiences Archaeological Variability and Interpretation in Global Perspective Alan P. Sullivan,Deborah Irene Olszewski,2016-12-01 In Archaeological Variability and

Interpretation in Global Perspective contributors illustrate the virtues of various ecological experimental statistical typological technological and cognitive social approaches for understanding the origins formation histories and inferential potential of a wide range of archaeological phenomena As archaeologists worldwide create theoretically inspired and methodologically robust narratives of the cultural past their research pivots on the principle that determining the origins and histories of archaeological phenomena is essential in understanding their relevance for a variety of anthropological problems The chapters explore how the analysis of artifact assemblage and site distributions at different spatial and temporal scales provides new insights into how mobility strategies affect lithic assemblage composition what causes unstable interaction patterns in complex societies and which factors promote a sense of place in landscapes of abandoned structures In addition several chapters illustrate how new theoretical approaches and innovative methods promote reinterpretations of the regional significance of historically important archaeological sites such as Myrtos Pyrgos Crete Greece Aztalan Wisconsin USA Tabun Cave Israel and Casas Grandes Chihuahua Mexico The studies presented in Archaeological Variability and Interpretation in Global Perspective challenge orthodoxy raise research worthy controversies and develop strong inferences about the diverse evolutionary pathways of humankind using theoretical perspectives that consider both new information and preexisting archaeological data Contributors C Michael Barton Brian F Byrd Gerald Cadogan Philip G Chase Harold L Dibble Matthew J Douglass Patricia C Fanning Lynne Goldstein Simon J Holdaway Kathryn A Kamp Sam Lin Emilia Oddo Zeljko Rezek Julien Riel Salvatore Gary O Rollefson Jeffrey Rosenthal Barbara J Roth Sissel Schroeder Justin I Shiner John C Whittaker David R Wilcox
