

The background of the cover is a painting. At the top, a vibrant red umbrella is partially visible, its fabric showing some texture and folds. Below it, a dark-colored stroller with large, spoked wheels is depicted. The stroller has a canopy and various straps and handles. The painting style is somewhat abstract and expressive, with visible brushstrokes and a muted color palette for the stroller and background, contrasting with the bright red of the umbrella.

Mothers Mothering And Sex Work:

Mothers, Mothering and Sex Work Jaremko Rebecca Bromwich, 2015-07-01 Exploring the shared intersections of mothering motherhood and sex work Mothers Mothering and Sex Work weaves together a range of voices from academic and sex worker communities around the world It features interdisciplinary contributions scholarly essays academic research artwork poetry photography and experiential narratives Notable among these are two modern masterpieces from literary legends Voices a short story by Alice Munro and excerpts from Maya Angelou's autobiography Gather Together in my Name In the spirit of the adage nothing about us without us Mothers Mothering and Sex Work brings together unique and controversial viewpoints defying conventional wisdom to provide fresh insights into sex workers and their rights Beginning with the political legal and social context of sexuality and gender in Canada the book's focus widens to explore issues affecting sex workers worldwide

Mothers, Mothering and Sex Work Rebecca Bromwich, Monique Marie DeJong, 2015 In a transnational intersectional framework this book discusses lived experiences of legal and governmental frameworks affecting and theorizations of mothers and sex work This is the first collaboration of its kind that is specifically focused on Canada and explores not only what is done to or about sex workers who are mothers under governmental regimes or exploitative traffickers in the context of political and social systems that continue to disempower women in general and mothers in particular but also the agencies of mothers who are sex workers and the mothers of those engaged in sex work This book seeks to open a space for the study of connections between sex work and mother work The text provides a venue for telling stories by sex workers who are or were mothers As such this collection goes beyond a study of how mothering in the context of sex work is regulated by law and society to look at the agencies and lived experiences of sex workers who are mothers It also looks at discourses of sex work and motherhood as complementarily regulating the sexuality of women in a way that reinscribes and maintains a patriarchal social order

Mothers of the Nations: Indigenous Mothering as Global Resistance, Reclaiming and Recovery Lavell Memee. Harvard, 2014-10-01 The voices of Indigenous women world wide have long been silenced by colonial oppression and institutions of patriarchal dominance Recent generations of powerful Indigenous women have begun speaking out so that their positions of respect within their families and communities might be reclaimed The book explores issues surrounding and impacting Indigenous mothering family and community in a variety of contexts internationally The book addresses diverse subjects including child welfare Indigenous mothering in curriculum mothers and traditional foods intergenerational mothering in the wake of residential schooling mothering and HIV urban Indigenous mothering mothers working the sex trade adoptive and other mothers Indigenous midwifery and more In addressing these diverse subjects and peoples living in North America Central America Sub Saharan Africa the Philippines and Oceania the authors provide a forum to understand the shared interests of Indigenous women across the globe

New Maternalisms: Tales of Motherwork (dislodging the Unthinkable) Roksana Badruddoja, 2016-04-01 New Maternalisms Tales of Motherwork Dislodging the Unthinkable explores the perceptions of those who engage in and or research motherwork or the labour of caregiving and how mothers view themselves in comparison to broader normative understandings of motherwork Here the anthology serves to deconstruct motherwork by highlighting and dislodging it from maternal ideology the socially constructed good mom read as sacrificial mom and feminized hegemonic discourse The objective of the edited volume then is to critically explore how we experience motherwork what motherwork might mean and how motherwork impacts and is impacted by the communities in which we live Such an examination involves contesting dominant ways of thinking about motherwork

Justice in the Age of Agnosis James Gacek, Richard Jochelson, 2024-05-18 This book seeks to further the understanding of the human experience of coerced and forced ignorance on social human rights and criminal justice related topics drawing together scholars from multiple disciplinary fronts It argues that people in our social world are forced or coerced through either implicatory or interpretive denial that is normalized through specific cultural and social mechanisms by which we refer to this as non knowledge or agnosis There has also been a lack of scholarship which examines how human victimization and power intersects by and through the systematic orchestration of forced ignorance and doubt upon daily human life This book s focus is an examination of the ways in which people find themselves in social spaces without empirical clarity and understand that absence as satisfaction stability or perhaps even pleasure It discusses a range of topics including for example people s sense of relative safety despite empirical realities suggesting otherwise This book seeks to make visible the role of ignorance in governing society highlighting how the late modern human experience in a post World War II human rights era subsumes subverts and sublimates the complex relationship between knowledge and denial the empirical gulf between knowledge and resistance may indeed breed complicit bliss Maternal Geographies Jennufer L.

Johnson,2019-05-01 This collection broaches the intersections of critical motherhood studies and feminist geography Contributors demonstrate that an important dimension of the social construction of motherhood is how mothering happens in space and place leading to the articulation of diverse maternal geographies Through 16 concise chapters divided into three thematic sections the contributors provide an account of motherhood and mothering as spatial practices that are embedded in relations of power across time and place While some contributors explore how dominant discourses of motherhood seek to keep mothers in their place others take up the notion of maternal geographies as productive in their own right and follow their subjects as they create a new sense of place Collectively the authors demonstrate that mothers are produced and regulated as subjects in relation to space and place and also that practices of mothering produce spatial relationships

Twenty-first Century Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2010-09-23 A pioneer of modern motherhood studies Andrea O'Reilly explores motherhood s current representation and practice considering developments that were unimaginable decades ago the Internet interracial surrogacy raising transchildren male mothering intensive mothering queer parenting the applications of new biotechnologies and mothering in the post 9 11 era Her work pulls together a range of disciplines and themes in motherhood studies She confronts the effects of globalization HIV AIDS welfare reform politicians as mothers third wave feminism and the evolving motherhood movement and she incorporates Chicana African American Canadian Muslim queer low income trans and lesbian perspectives Motherhood and Choice Amrita Nandy,2017-10-02 How can women live fully If autonomy is critical for humans why do women have little or no choice vis vis motherhood Do women know they have a choice if they do How free are these choices in a context where the self is socially mired and deeply enmeshed into the familial What are implications of motherhood on how human relatedness and belonging are defined These questions underlie Amrita Nandy s remarkable research on motherhood as an institution one that conflates woman with mother and personal with political As the bedrock of human survival and an unchallenged norm of normal female lives motherhood expects and even compels women to be mothers symbolic and corporeal Even though the ideology of pronatalism and motherhood reinforce reproductive technology and vice versa the care work of mothering suffers political neglect and economic devaluation However motherhood and non motherhood is not just physiological As the pivot to a web of heteronormative institutions such as marriage and the family motherhood bears an overwhelming and decisive influence on women s lives Against the weight of traditional and contemporary histories socio political discourse and policies this study explores how women as embodiments of multiple identities could live stigma free authentic lives without having to abandon reproductive self determination Published by Zubaan Teaching Mothers Mothering Herbert Yahraes,1977 Thai Migrant Sexworkers K. Aoyama,2009-01-30 Exploring sexwork and trafficking in a globalized culture and economy this book offers a critique of increasingly stringent policing worldwide following the UN protocol against trafficking in persons It highlights the grey area between sex work and trafficking and draws on the themes of gender migration and deviance The Sociology of Knowledge Approach to Discourse Reiner Keller,Anna-Katharina Hornidge,Wolf Schünemann,2018-08-06 The Sociology of Knowledge Approach to Discourse SKAD has reoriented research into social forms structuration and processes of meaning construction and reality formation doing so by linking social constructivist and pragmatist approaches with post structuralist thinking in order to study discourses and create epistemological space for analysing processes of world making in culturally diverse environments SKAD is anchored in interpretive traditions of inquiry and allows for broadening and possibly overcoming of the epistemological biases and restrictions still common in theories and approaches of Western and Northern centric social sciences An innovative volume this book is exactly attentive to these empirically based globally diverse further developments of approach with a clear focus on the methodology and its implementation Thus The Sociology of Knowledge Approach to Discourse presents itself as a research program and locates the approach within the context of interpretive social sciences followed by eleven chapters on different cases from around the world that highlight certain theoretical questions and methodological challenges Presenting outstanding applications of the Sociology of Knowledge Approach to Discourse across a wide variety of substantive projects and regional contexts this text will appeal to postgraduate students and researchers interested in fields such as Discourse Studies Sociology Cultural Studies and Qualitative Methodology and Methods This book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license ,
