

Civics EOC Study Guide-KEY

This study guide is intended to help you review major concepts and vocabulary from throughout the year. You should also be studying your notes, textbooks, writing prompts, and homework assignments to review and fill any missing pieces. Additionally, writing the practice tests that is part of this packet is important to help with the question formatting.

Directions: Complete each section of the study guide using your understanding of the concepts from throughout the year.

Discussion

Legal Requirements included	Students reflect personally by using the top 10, best in each category.
Foreign Policy	Students reflect personally from their country to another country.
Level of Effort	If your country was 10% citizens, what did it do? citizens...
Level of Trust	If you are from you to 10% and you are personally it citizens...
Maximum Number of Years	How long does it take to get to the point of the 10% and what is the point of the 10%?
Performance of Citizenship (100% citizenship)	Students reflect personally by using the top 10, best in each category.

Why is it important to fulfill our obligations of citizenship?	When citizens meet their obligations to the government, they are making the United States a better and better place to live. By following the law and not committing crimes, citizens are less dangerous places. By paying taxes, citizens are making sure that the government can afford to provide services that benefit the general public. By defending the nation if called to do so, citizens are making sure that there will be no threat to the United States and government from enemies who try to harm us. By serving on jury, citizens are making sure that the right is a trial by jury is protected.
Why is it important for citizens to be active participants in their community?	Continuously commit to the community good. If someone is not active in the community, it is not a good idea to be in the community and not making sure to find the solution.
