

Civil Rights Test Review Guide
Alejandra Rodriguez

Using the internet for this. This assignment is due by the end of class tomorrow, Wednesday, November 6. You must post this to Yachay and the definition and explanation must be in your own words.

For each person, write a short definition, and an explanation of the role they played in the Civil Rights movement with two or more examples in a paragraph. For the people below, you should 'google' the person's name and 'civil rights' or 'impact on civil rights'.

1. Dwight D. Eisenhower - President Eisenhower was President of the United States from 1951-1961. He was only a limited supporter of civil rights. He urged advocates of desegregation to go slowly. In 1957 President Eisenhower used Federal troops to force Central High School in Little Rock, Arkansas to desegregate and allow the "Little Rock 9" to attend the school.

2. Stokely Carmichael - Stokely Carmichael was born in Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, on June 29, 1941. He rose to prominence as a member and later the chairman of the SNCC, working with Martin Luther King Jr. and other Southern leaders to stage protests. Carmichael later lost faith in the tactic of nonviolence, promoting "Black Power" and allying himself with the militant Black Panther Party. Renaming himself Kwame Ture, he spent most of his later years in Guinea, where he died in 1998.

3. T. Eugene Connor - Born on July 11, 1897, in Selma, Alabama, Eugene "Bull" Connor was a radio sportscaster before entering state politics, and became Birmingham's public safety commissioner in 1937. With the growing Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 1960s, Connor maintained racist policies that came to a fruition with the jailing and televised water-hosing of peaceful protesters. He died in Birmingham on March 10, 1973.

4. Medgar Evers - Civil rights activist Medgar Evers was born on July 2, 1925, in Decatur, Mississippi. In 1954, he became the first state field secretary of the NAACP in Mississippi. As such, he organized voter-registration efforts and economic boycotts, and investigated crimes perpetrated against blacks. Evers was assassinated outside of his Mississippi home in 1963, and after years of on-again, off-again legal proceedings, his killer was sent to prison in 1994. In 2017, President Barack Obama designated Evers's home a national historic landmark.

5. Malcolm X - Malcolm X was an African American civil rights leader prominent in the Nation of Islam. Until his 1965 assassination, he vigorously supported Black Nationalism. Malcolm X was a minister, human rights activist and prominent Black Nationalist leader who served as a spokesman for the Nation of Islam during the 1950s and 1960s. Due largely to his efforts, the Nation of Islam grew from a mere 400 members at the time he was released from prison in 1952 to 40,000 members by 1960.

6. George Wallace - George C. Wallace was a four-time governor of Alabama and three-time presidential hopeful. He is best remembered for his 1960s segregationist politics. George C. Wallace was born in Clio, Alabama, on August 25, 1919. After law school and military service,
