Orientalism And Race Cambridge Imperial And Post Colonial Studies:

Orientalism and Race T. Ballantyne, 2016-01-03 This study traces the emergence and dissemination of Aryanism within the British Empire The idea of an Aryan race became an important feature of imperial culture in the nineteenth century feeding into debates in Britain Ireland India and the Pacific The global reach of the Aryan idea reflected the complex networks that enabled the global reach of British Imperialism Tony Ballantyne charts the shifting meanings of Aryanism within these webs of Empire Orientalism and Race Tony Ballantyne, 2002 Orientalism and Race Tony Ballantyne, 2002 The idea of an Aryan race became an important feature of imperial culture in the 19th century feeding into debates in Britain Ireland India and the Pacific This study traces the emergence and dissemination of Aryanism within the British Empire

Orientalism and Race T. Ballantyne, 2001-12-18 This study traces the emergence and dissemination of Aryanism within the British Empire The idea of an Aryan race became an important feature of imperial culture in the nineteenth century feeding into debates in Britain Ireland India and the Pacific The global reach of the Aryan idea reflected the complex networks that enabled the global reach of British Imperialism Tony Ballantyne charts the shifting meanings of Aryanism within these webs of Empire Economic Relations Between Britain and Australia from the 1940s-196 J. Singleton, Paul Robertson, 2001-12-14 In the early postwar era Britain enjoyed a very close economic relationship with Australia and New Zealand through their common membership of the Sterling Area and the Commonwealth Preference Area This book examines the breakdown of this relationship in the 1950 and 1960s Britain and Australasia were driven apart by disputes over industrial protection agriculture capital supplies and relations with other countries Special emphasis is given to the implications for Australia and New Zealand of Britain's growing interest in European integration Entanglements of Empire Tony Ballantyne, 2015-03-16 Entanglements of Empire explores the political cultural and economic entanglements and irrevocable social transformations that resulted from Maori engagements with Protestant missionaries at the most distant edge of the British empire The first Protestant mission to New Zealand established in 1814 saw the beginning of complex political cultural and economic entanglements with Maori Entanglements of Empire is a deft reconstruction of the cross cultural translations of this early period Misunderstanding was rife the physical body itself became the most contentious site of cultural engagement as Maori and missionaries struggled over issues of hygiene tattooing clothing and sexual morality In this fascinating study Tony Ballantyne explores the varying understandings of such concepts as civilization work time and space and gender and the practical consequences of the struggles over these ideas The encounters in the classroom chapel kitchen and farmyard worked mutually to affect both the Maori and the English worldviews Ultimately the interest in missionary Christianity among influential Maori chiefs had far reaching consequences for both groups Concluding in 1840 with the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi and the new age it ushered in Ballantyne's book offers important insights into this crucial period of New Zealand history Australianama Samia Khatun, 2018-12-15 Charts the history of South

Asian diaspora weaving together stories of various peoples colonized by the British Empire Insanity, Race and Colonialism L. Smith, 2014-10-14 Despite emancipation from the evils of enslavement in 1838 most people of African origin in the British West Indian colonies continued to suffer serious material deprivation and racial oppression This book examines the management and treatment of those who became insane in the period until the Great War World Histories from Below Antoinette Burton, Tony Ballantyne, 2022-02-10 History has traditionally privileged elites and their accomplishments World Histories from Below provides an antidote placing ordinary people and subordinated subjects at the heart of the themes it explores Arguing that disruption and dissent are overlooked agents of historical change it takes a global view of topics including political revolution religious conversion labour struggles and body politics This 2nd edition includes two additional chapters on indigenous peoples migration and environmental histories from below With an updated preface this enhanced text also includes additional images and case studies to grapple with themes that have more recently come to the fore such as populism and the environment Offering a study of these themes from 1750 to the present day World Histories from Below refocuses our entire approach to teaching world history Connected Worlds Ann Curthoys, Marilyn Lake, 2006-03-01 This volume brings together historians of imperialism and race travel and modernity Islam and India the Pacific and the Atlantic to show how a transnational approach to history offers fresh insights into the past Transnational history is a form of scholarship that has been revolutionising our understanding of history in the last decade With a focus on interconnectedness across national borders of ideas events technologies and individual lives it moves beyond the national frames of analysis that so often blinker and restrict our understanding of the past Many of the essays also show how expertise in Australian history can contribute to and benefit from new transnational approaches to history Through an examination of such diverse subjects as film modernity immigration politics and romance Connected Worlds weaves an historical matrix which transports the reader beyond the local into a realm which re defines the meaning of humanity in all its complexity Contributors include Tony Ballantyne Desley Deacon John Fitzgerald Patrick Wolfe and Angela Woollacott

Indian Diaspora Amarjit Singh, 2014-02-07 This book celebrates both the past and present existence of the Indian diasporic grandparents who live their daily lives in different countries the United Kingdom the United States Canada South Africa Fiji Mauritius Australia Suriname and Malaysia and in different economic social cultural religious contexts and specific household and family situations The achievements of the few rich and the famous Indians living in diaspora have been given the celebratory treatment similar status is not often given to the achievements of the diasporic Indian grandparents However the vanquished and the victors the subalterns and the sahibs have equal claims on our attention clearly there are areas where Indian communities have been settled for long periods of time without having a significant effect on the countries of their residence but they too are integral parts of the diaspora Brij Lal Peter Reeves Rajesh Rai 2006 p 15 This book is about voices of contemporary Indian grandparents and their grand parenting practices The diasporic Indian grandparents are engaged in keeping diverse Indian families and communities as strong as possible in the current era of globalization process and social policy initiatives that are dominated by the ideology of neo liberalism This book claims that the diasporic Indian grandparents have significant effects on the countries of their residence and too are integral parts of the Indian diaspora who deserve the celebratory treatment and status The book can be used for courses in the areas of critical social work family studies gerontology nursing rural development critical pedagogy and diaspora studies A veritable archive of stories anecdotes memories and reminiscences of love longing and search for a legacy by diasporic Indian grandparents across the globe as they transgress boundaries in a socially porous world negotiate generational differences complicated by the realities of modern living cross cultures and seek to preserve connections between the past the present and the future A necessary contribution to the growing literature in the life of the Indian diaspora Brij V Lal Professor of Pacific and Asian History The Australian National University General Editor Encyclopedia of the Indian Diaspora Headhunting and Colonialism R. Roque,2010-01-22 An exploration of headhunting and the collection of heads for European museums in the context of colonial wars from the 1870s to the 1930s The book offers a new understanding of the mutually dependent interaction between indigenous peoples and colonial powers and how collected remains became regarded as objects of wider significance

Fortune's Bazaar Vaudine England,2023-05-16 A timely well researched and vibrant new history of Hong Kong that reveals the untold stories of the diverse peoples who have made it a multicultural world metropolis and whose freedoms are endangered today Hong Kong has always been many cities to many people a seaport a gateway to an empire a place where fortunes can be dramatically made or lost a place to disappear and reinvent oneself and a mixing pot of diverse populations from literally everywhere around the globe A British Crown Colony for 155 years Hong Kong is now ruled by the Chinese Communist Party Here renowned journalist Vaudine England delves into Hong Kong s complex history and its people diverse multi cultural cosmopolitan who have made this one time fishing village into the world port city it is today Rather than a traditional history describing a town led by British Governors or a mere offshoot of a collapsing Chinese empire Fortune s Bazaar is the first thorough examination of the varied peoples who made Hong Kong While British traders and Asian merchants had long been busy in the Indian and South East Asian seas there were many from different cultures and ethnic backgrounds who arrived in Hong Kong met and married despite all taboos and created a distinct community Many of Hong Kong s most influential figures during its first century as a city were neither British nor Chinese they were Malay or Indian Jewish or Armenian Parsi or Portuguese Eurasian or Chindian or simply Hong Kongers England describes those overlooked in history including the opium traders who built synagogues or churches ship owners carrying gold rush migrants property tycoons and more Here too is the visionary who plumbed Hong Kong s harbor depths to spur reclamation the half Dutch Chinese gentleman with two wives who was knighted by Queen Victoria and the landscape gardeners who settled Kowloon and became millionaires A story of empire race and sex Fortune s Bazaar combines deep archival research and oral history to present a vivid history of a special place a unique city made by diverse people of the world whose part in its creation has never been properly told until now Light and Power for a Multiracial Nation J. Tischler,2013-04-23 Modernisation was one of the most pervasive ideologies of the twentieth century Focusing on a case study of the Kariba Dam in central southern Africa and based on an array of primary sources and interviews the book provides a nuanced understanding of development in the turbulent late 1950s a time when most colonies moved towards independence Elites and Decolonization in the Twentieth Century Jost Dülffer,Marc Frey,2011-04-05 Decolonization changed the spatial order of the globe the imagination of men and women around the world and established images of the globe Both individuals and social groups shaped decolonization itself this volume puts agency squarely at the centre of debate by looking at elites and leaders who changed the course of history across the world Elusive Refuge Laura Madokoro,2016-09-26 Laura Madokoro recovers the lost history of millions of displaced Chinese who fled the Communist Revolution and recounts humanitarian efforts to find homes for them outside China Entrenched bigotry in predominantly white countries the spread of human rights Cold War geopolitics and the Vietnam War shaped refugee policies that still hold sway Atlantic Ports and the First Globalisation c. 1850-1930 Miguel Suárez Bosa,2014-01-02 Port cities were the means through which cultural and economic exchange took place between continental societies and the maritime world In examining the ports of Brazil the Caribbean and West Africa this volume will provide fresh insight into the meaning of the First Globalisation George Padmore and Decolonization from Below L. James,2014-10-14 This book argues that the rising tide of anti colonialism after the 1930s should be considered a turning point not just in harnessing a new mood or feeling of unity but primarily as one that viewed empire racism and economic degradation as part of a system that fundamentally required the application of strategy to their destruction Missionary Discourses of Difference E. Cleall,2012-06-29 Missionary Discourse examines missionary writings from India and southern Africa to explore colonial discourses about race religion gender and culture The book is organised around three themes family sickness and violence which were key areas of missionary concern and important axes around which colonial difference was forged Psychiatry and Empire S. Mahone,M. Vaughan,2007-11-28 Psychiatry and Empire brings together scholars in the History of Medicine and Colonialism to explore questions of race gender and power relations in former colonial states across Africa Asia the Caribbean and the Pacific The volume advances our understanding of the rise of modern psychiatry as it collided with the psychology of colonial rule
