Was ist Kulturwissenschaft? Stephan Conermann, 2014-06-15 Die Kultur und Geisteswissenschaften durchlaufen derzeit einen fundamentalen Wandlungsprozess Mit den neuen Herausforderungen der Globalisierung werden europäische geisteswissenschaftliche Kategorien zunehmend in Frage gestellt und neu reflektiert Insbesondere die Kleinen Fächer werden sich angesichts dessen nur behaupten können wenn sie sich innovativen kulturwissenschaftlichen Fragestellungen öffnen die die gegenwärtigen globalen Zustände kritisch zu durchdringen vermögen Die Beiträge des Bandes zeigen inwieweit die Kleinen F cher tats chlich bereit sind diesen Cultural Turn zu vollziehen inwiefern eine kulturwissenschaftliche Ausrichtung diese F cher st rkt und fragen ob eine solch verbindende Perspektive disziplinen bergreifend zur Orientierung verhilft

Introduction to Cybersemiotics: A Transdisciplinary Perspective Carlos Vidales, Søren Brier, 2021-04-14 This book traces the origins and evolution of cybersemiotics beginning with the integration of semiotics into the theoretical framework of cybernetics and information theory The book opens with chapters that situate the roots of cybersemiotics in Peircean semiotics describe the advent of the Information Age and cybernetics and lay out the proposition that notions of system communication self reference information meaning form autopoiesis and self control are of equal topical interest to semiotics and systems theory Subsequent chapters introduce a cybersemiotic viewpoint on the capacity of arts and other practices for knowing This suggests pathways for developing Practice as Research and practice led research and prompts the reader to view this new configuration in cybersemiotic terms Other contributors discuss cultural and perceptual shifts that lead to interaction with hybrid environments such as Alexa The relationship of storytelling and cybersemiotics is covered at chapter length and another chapter describes an individual collectivity dialectics in which the latter Commind constrains the former interactants but the former fuels the latter The concluding chapter begins with the observation that digital technologies have infiltrated every corner of the metropolis homes workplaces and places of leisure to the extent that cities and bodies have transformed into interconnected interfaces The book challenges the reader to participate in a broader discussion of the potential limitations alternatives and criticisms of cybersemiotics

Bastard Culture! Mirko Tobias Schäfer, 2025-10-01 New online technologies have brought with them a great promise of freedom The computer and particularly the Internet have been represented as enabling technologies turning consumers into users and users into producers Furthermore lay people and amateurs have been enthusiastically greeted as heroes of the digital era This thoughtful study casts a fresh light on the shaping of user participation in the context of among others popular discourse in and around new media Sch fer s groundbreaking research into hacking fan communities and Web 2 0 applications demonstrates how the dynamic of innovation control and interaction have shifted the boundaries of the traditional culture industry into the user domain The media industry undergoes a shift from creating content to providing platforms for user driven social interactions and user generated content In this extended culture industry participation unfolds not only in the co creation of media content and software based products but also in the development and defense of distinctive media practices that represent a socio political understanding of new technologies

NAKO Gabriela Krist,2016-10-10 The Nako temple complex from the 12th century is an extraordinary testimony of early Tibetan Buddhism not anymore preserved in today s Tibet Endangered by the rough environment improper treatment and frequent earthquakes the outstanding monuments were re discovered by scholars from Austrian universities in the 1980s The transdisciplinary research project carried out over more than 20 years led to in depth studies preservation and model like conservation of the temples and their artworks Arguing with God

Bernd Janowski,2013-10-10 This is the first English translation of Bernd Janowski s incisive anthropological study of the Psalms originally published in German in 2003 as Konfliktgespr che mit Gott Eine Anthropologie der Psalmen Neukirchener Janowski begins with an introduction to Old Testament anthropology concentrating on themes of being forsaken by God enmity legal difficulties and sickness Each chapter defines a problem and considers it in relation to anthropological insights from related fields of study and a thematically relevant example from the Psalms including how a central aspect of this Psalm is explored in other Old Testament or Ancient Near Eastern texts Each chapter concludes with an Anthropological Keyword which explores especially important words and phrases in the Psalms The book also includes reflections on reading the Psalms from a New Testament perspective focusing on themes of transience praising God salvation from death and trust in God Janowski s study demonstrates how the Psalms have important theological implications and ultimately help us to understand what it means to be human Readings in the Anthropocene Sabine Wilke,Japhet Johnstone,2017-09-21

Readings in the Anthropocene brings together scholars from German Studies and beyond to interpret the German tradition of the last two hundred years from a perspective that is mindful of the challenge posed by the concept of the Anthropocene This new age of man unofficially pronounced in 2000 holds that humans are becoming a geological force in shaping the Earth s future Among the biggest challenges facing our future are climate change accelerated species loss and a radical transformation of land use What are the historical philosophical cultural literary and artistic responses to this new concept The essays in this volume bring German culture to bear on what it means to live in the Anthropocene from a historical ethical and aesthetic perspective

Space Race Television Sven Grampp,2024-05-23 This volume offers a media theoretically oriented perspective on the Space Race It analyzes feature films documentaries live television coverage magazines stamps

posters ticker tape parades They visualized the Space Race in a specific way and circulated it transnationally from East to West and from West to East across the Iron Curtain It will be shown how reporting on the Space Race between 1955 and 1975 can be explained as a globalizing history of the intertwining of images during the Cold War German Women's Writing of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries Helen Fronius, 2017-10-23 German women writers of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries have been the subject of feminist literary critical and historical studies for around thirty years This volume with contributions from an international group of scholars takes stock of what feminist literary criticism has achieved in that time and reflects on future trends in the field Offering both theoretical perspectives and individual case studies the contributors grapple with the difficulties of appraising non feminist women writers and genres from a feminist perspective and present innovative approaches to research in early women s writing This inclusive and cross disciplinary collection of essays will enrich the study of German women s writing of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and contribute to contemporary debates in feminist literary criticism Anna Richards is Lecturer in German at Birkbeck College University of London Helen Fronius is College Lecturer in German at Keble College University of Oxford Cultural Techniques Bernhard Siegert, 2015-05-01 In a crucial shift within posthumanistic media studies Bernhard Siegert dissolves the concept of media into a network of operations that reproduce displace process and reflect the distinctions fundamental for a given culture Cultural Techniques aims to forget our traditional understanding of media so as to redefine the concept through something more fundamental than the empiricist study of a medium s individual or collective uses or of its cultural semantics or aesthetics Rather Siegert seeks to relocate media and culture on a level where the distinctions between object and performance matter and form human and nonhuman sign and channel the symbolic and the real are still in the process of becoming The result is to turn ontology into a domain of all that is meant in German by the word Kultur Cultural techniques comprise not only self referential symbolic practices like reading writing counting or image making The analysis of artifacts as cultural techniques emphasizes their ontological status as in between shifting from first order to second order techniques from the technical to the artistic from object to sign from the natural to the cultural from the operational to the representational Cultural Techniques ranges from seafaring drafting and eating to the production of the sign signal distinction in old and new media to the reproduction of anthropological difference to the study of trompe l'oeils grids registers and doors Throughout Siegert addresses fundamental questions of how ontological distinctions can be replaced by chains of operations that process those alleged ontological distinctions within the ontic Grounding posthumanist theory both historically and technically this book opens up a crucial dialogue between new German media theory and American postcybernetic discourses
