Unsettling Spirit Denise M. Nadeau, 2020-04-02 What does it mean to be a white settler on land taken from peoples who have lived there since time immemorial In the context of reconciliation and Indigenous resurgence Unsettling Spirit provides a personal perspective on decolonization informed by Indigenous traditions and lifeways and the need to examine one's complicity with colonial structures Applying autoethnography grounded in Indigenous and feminist methodologies Denise Nadeau weaves together stories and reflections on how to live with integrity on stolen and occupied land The author chronicles her early and brief experience of Native mission in the late 1980s and early 1990s in northern Canada and Chiapas Mexico and the gradual recognition that she had internalized colonialist concepts of the good Christian and the Great White Helper Drawing on somatic psychotherapy Nadeau addresses contemporary manifestations of helping and the politics of trauma She uncovers her ancestors settler background and the responsibilities that come with facing this history Caught between two traditions born and raised Catholic but challenged by Indigenous ways of life the author traces her engagement with Indigenous values and how relationships inform her ongoing journey A foreword by Cree M tis author Deanna Reder places the work in a broader context of Indigenous scholarship Incorporating insights from Indigenous ethical and legal frameworks Unsettling Spirit offers an accessible reflection on possibilities for settler decolonization as well as for decolonizing Christian and interfaith practice

Global Health Solomon Benatar, Gillian Brock, 2021-02-18 Addressing global health is one of the largest challenges facing humanity in the 21st century however this task is becoming even more formidable with the accelerated destruction of the planet Building on the success of the previous edition the book outlines how progress towards improving global health relies on understanding its core social economic political environmental and ideological aspects A multi disciplinary group of authors suggest not only theoretically compelling arguments for what we must do but also provide practical recommendations as to how we can promote global health despite contemporary constraints The importance of cross cultural dialogue and utilisation of ethical tools in tackling global health problems is emphasised Thoroughly updated new or expanded topics include mass displacement of people novel threats including new infectious diseases global justice and ecological ethics and planetary sustainability Offering a diverse range of perspectives this volume is essential for bioethicists public health practitioners and philosophers

The ^AWoman Who Married the Bear Barbara Alice Mann, Kaarina Kailo, 2023-11-10 Stories of the primordial woman who married a bear appear across the global North from Indigenous North America and Scandinavia to Russia and Korea In The Woman Who Married the Bear authors Barbara Alice Mann a scholar of Indigenous American culture and Kaarina Kailo who specializes in the cultures of Northern Europe join forces to examine the Bear Husband stories on their respective continents their common elements and their meanings in the context of matriarchal culture

Indigeneity and Decolonial Resistance George J. Sefa Dei, Cristina Jaimungal, 2018-06-13 2019 SPE Outstanding Book Award Honorable Mention To be able to promote effective anti colonial and decolonial education it is imperative that educators employ indigenous epistemologies that seek to threaten replace and reimagine colonial thinking and practice Indigeneity and Decolonial Resistance hopes to contribute to the search for a more radical decolonial education and practice that allows for the coexistence of and conversation among multiple epistemes The book approaches the topics from three perspectives the thought that our epistemological frameworks must consider the body of the knowledge producer place history politics and contexts within which knowledge is produced that the anti colonial is intimately connected to decolonization and by extension decolonization cannot happen solely through Western science scholarship and that the complex problems and challenges facing the world today defy universalist solutions but can still be remedied Indigeneity and Decolonial Resistance is an excellent text for use in a variety of upper division undergraduate and graduate classrooms It is also a valuable addition to the libraries of writers and researchers interested in indigenous studies and decolonialism Perfect for courses such as Anti Colonial Thought Indigenous Knowledges and Decolonization Education Social Development and Social Justice Research in Education Race Indigeneity and the Colonial Politics of Recognition Marginality and the Politics of Resistance Indigenous Settler Relations Issues for Teachers Education Leadership Reform and Curriculum Innovation Leadership in Social Change Organizations Adaptive Leadership Power Identity and Social Change Equity Anti Oppression in Practice and the Promise of Diversity Addressing Race and Power in Education Settings Strategies and Policies for Narrowing Racial Achievement and Major Concepts and Issues in Education Prioritizing Sustainability Education

Joan Armon, Stephen Scoffham, Chara Armon, 2019-12-05 Prioritizing Sustainability Education presents theory to practice essays and case studies by educators from six countries who elucidate dynamic approaches to sustainability education Too often students graduate with exploitative consumer driven orientations toward ecosystems and are unprepared to confront the urgent challenges presented by environmental degradation Educators are prioritizing sustainability oriented courses and programs that cultivate students knowledge skills and values and contextualize them within relational connections to local and global ecosystems Little has yet been written however about the comprehensive sustainability education that educators are currently designing and implementing often across or at the edges of disciplinary boundaries The approaches described in this book expand beyond conventional emphases on developing students attitudes knowledge and behaviors by thinking and talking about ecosystems to additionally engaging students with ecosystems in sensory affective psychological and cognitive dimensions as well as imaginative spiritual or existential dimensions that guide environmental care and regeneration This book supports educators and graduate and upper level undergraduate students in the humanities social sciences environmental studies environmental sciences and professional programs in considering how to reorient their fields toward relational sustainability perspectives and practices Re-searching Margins Fida Sanjakdar, Gabrielle

Fletcher, Amanda Keddie, Ben Whitburn, 2022-02-10 Identity power and positionality play crucial roles in designing and implementing research critically and ethically across marginalized cultures and communities Through four unique case studies this book highlights the dilemmas faced by researchers in the field of education demonstrating how they grapple with the ethics of research and with their role in the process Re searching Margins Ethics Social Justice and Education attends to research in four specific marginalized communities whilst also engaging in a wider dialogue about the complex theories methodologies and practices of ethical research in communities of difference This book examines ethical research with cultures and communities as an exchange in which both the researcher and the researched bring complex contextual and biographical factors shaped by their histories identities and experiences Drawing on the lives and research of four renowned scholars this book will be of interest to researchers and policy makers in education who seek to engage ethically and justly with marginalized communities

Nature and Culture Sarah Pilgrim, Jules N. Pretty, 2010-09-23 There is a growing recognition that the diversity of life comprises both biological and cultural diversity But this division is not universal and in many cases has been deepened by the common disciplinary divide between the natural and social sciences and our apparent need to manage and control nature This book goes beyond divisive definitions and investigates the bridges linking biological and cultural diversity The international team of authors explore the common drivers of loss and argue that policy responses should target both forms of diversity in a novel integrative approach to conservation thus reducing the gap between science policy and practice While conserving nature alongside human cultures presents unique challenges this book forcefully shows that any hope for saving biological diversity is predicated on a concomitant effort to appreciate and protect cultural diversity

Epistemic Justice, Mindfulness, and the Environmental Humanities Janelle Adsit, 2021-11-29 Epistemic Justice Mindfulness and the Environmental Humanities explores how contemplative pedagogies and mindfulness can be used in the classroom to address epistemic and environmental injustice In recent years there has been a groundswell of interest in contemplative pedagogies in higher education with increasing attention from the environmental sciences environmental humanities and sustainability studies Teachers and writers have demonstrated how mindfulness practices can be a key to anti oppression and anti racist efforts both in and out of the classroom Not all forms of contemplative pedagogy are suited for this anti colonial and anti oppressive resistance however Simply adopting mindfulness practices in the classroom is not enough to dislodge and dismantle white supremacy in higher education Epistemic Justice Mindfulness and the Environmental Humanities advocates for mindfulness practices that affirm multiple epistemologies and cultural traditions Written for educators in the environmental humanities and other related disciplines the chapters interrogate the western uptake of mindfulness practices and suggest anti colonial and anti oppressive methods for bringing mindfulness into the classroom The chapters also discuss what mindfulness practices have to offer to the pursuit of a culturally relevant pedagogy This highly applied and practical text will be an insightful read for educators in the environmental humanities and across the liberal arts disciplines Queer and Deleuzian Temporalities Rachel Loewen Walker, 2021-11-18 Rachel Loewen Walker's original study of Deleuze's theory of temporality advances a concept of the living present as a critical juncture through which novel meanings and activism take flight in relation to new feminist materialisms queer theory Indigenous studies and studies of climate Drawing on literature philosophy popular culture and community research Loewen Walker unsettles the fierce linearity of our stories particularly as they uphold fixed systems of gender sexuality and identity Treading new ground for Deleuzian studies this book focuses on the non linearity of the living present to show that everything is within rather than outside of time Through this critical re evaluation which takes in climate change queer and trans politics and Indigenous sovereignty Queer and Deleuzian Temporalities thickens the present moment By opening up multiple pasts and multiple futures we are invited to act with a deepened level of accountability to all possible timelines Point of Departure Four Arrows, 2016-06-01 Point of Departure offers a practical metacognitive and transformational learning strategy for human surviving and thriving Using five foundational and interactive Indigenous worldview beliefs that contrast sharply with our dominant worldview ones everyone can reclaim the original instructions for living on Earth Without the resulting change in consciousness that can emerge from this learning approach no modern technologies can save us The five foundational Indigenous precepts relate to a radically different understanding about 1 Trance based learning 2 Courage and Fearlessness 3 Community Oriented Self Authorship 4 Sacred Communications 5 Nature as Ultimate Teacher Praise for Point of Departure Four Arrows provides a quintessential critique of how the collective human departure of modern society from Indigenous Consciousness has led to the current wholesale exploitation and destruction of Indigenous Nature while providing the impetus for the urgency of a return to the Indigenous Mind as one of the true pathways for our future survival Greg Cajete Director of Native American Studies University of New Mexico Author of Native Science and Look to the Mountain Recognizing the disastrous consequences of the dominant worldview pervading global society Four Arrows teaches metacognitive strategies to help shift us back toward the Indigenous worldview the only worldview that can restore balance amidst planetary crisis With his characteristic insight he reminds us that interconnectedness with all of creation is the basis of courage that will help each of us Indigenous and non Indigenous alike rise to action in defense of Mother Earth Waziyatawin Dakota author and activist from Pezihutazizi K api Makoce Land Where They Dig for Yellow Medicine in southwestern Minnesota Four Arrows continues to open our eyes to the possibility of a new society one founded on the empirical data of thousands of years and within the paradigms of traditional wisdom and the people connected to all of life theirs ours animal brethren and Mother Earth Point of Departure is a MUST read for anyone who wants to be part of the solution Rebecca Adamson Founder President First Peoples Worldwide Anyone who is even slightly Indigenous will nod in recognition all the way through Point of Departure Using the four sacred directions as cognitive bridges into the circle of all Four Arrows walks the reader through trance based Transformative learning courage Indian style as connection not fear based and the Indigenous grammar of communication and truth telling with neither restricted to humans Then binding the hoop together for all our relations Four Arrows recommends re acquaintance with Nature The handy take away discussions and how to manuals concluding each discussion draw the reader into the circle if only the reader is willing Barbara Alice Mann Associate Professor of Humanities University of Toledo Author of Spirits of Blood Spirits of Breath The Twinned Cosmos of Indigenous America
