Women and Reiki Judith MacPherson, 2017-07-05 Women and Reiki is the first ethnographic study of Reiki and energetic healing in Britain The book argues that if we are to build an accurate and comprehensive picture of healing we must examine the role of gender representation and power Although women healers predominate at the grass roots level these factors have been largely ignored in academic studies of New Age and alternative spiritualities The acknowledgement of women s power in these studies is to be found somewhere between male dominated biomedical approaches to health and apparently more egalitarian holistic discourse and practice Using the work of theorists such as Michel Foucault and Meredith McGuire the book shows that women healers are using Reiki and other healing spiritualities to actively engage in a politics of reclamation

Paths Made by Walking Amina Tawasil,2024 There has been as yet very little written about educated women who are aligned with the Islamic Republic of Iran and part of the inner circle of the state This book takes an entirely new approach to these women and works to disrupt stereotypes that portray them as mouthpieces of the regime by untangling the minutiae of their daily lives and connecting it to their aspirations Rose Wellman author of Feeding Iran Shi i Families and the Making of the Islamic Republic Tawasil s discussion of veiling and staying out of sight is the most complex comprehensive insightful grounded treatment I have ever seen Her understanding of the howzevi women s perspectives of the meaning of their veiling of their purposes their goals for their religious selves is outstanding We do not have anything like this a study of the world of female religious students and teachers as women striving to become the religious selves they want to attain Mary Hegland author of Days of Revolution Political Unrest in an Iranian Village What can women s scholastic pursuits tell us about what building an Islamic state looks like for women who are loyal to its project And what can an ethnographic study of women who are using Islamic education to transform their conditions in Iran teach us about our own humanity Paths Made by Walking provides insight into these questions by examining how Iranian women have participated in Islamic education after the 1979 Revolution The first ethnography on Iranian howzevi seminarian women it reveals how ideologies of womanhood institutions and Islamic practices have played a pivotal role in religiously conservative women s mobility in the Middle East Based on several months of participant observation Paths Made by Walking presents an ethnography of the seminarian women whose Islamic education has propelled some of them into powerful positions in Iran from close ties with the state s Supreme Leader and Chief Justice to membership in the Basij voluntary military organization

At the same time these women often choose to remain hidden or to otherwise follow practices that seem inscrutable or illogical from a framework of politicized resistance By centering the howzevi women s senses of self and revealing their complex interpretations of their beliefs Amina Tawasil offers a fresh perspective on forms of feminine identity that do not always mirror supposedly universal desires for recognition autonomy leadership or authority Taking readers into the classrooms living rooms and compounds where howzevi women participate in intellectual discourse this book invites readers to reconsider their conceptualizations of the women who support the Islamic Republic of Iran
