inherently destructive nature of warfare on sustainable development the chapters focus on the importance of adhering to international legal frameworks for safeguarding the environment during armed conflicts When My Valley Was Green Kanwar K Kaul, 2017-09-22 Being born and brought up in Kashmir paradise on earth nestled in the highest and most glorious mountain range on earth the Himalayas is indeed a reward of destiny The landlocked valley of Kashmir has a unique history of art culture spirituality food and lifestyle which the author weaves masterfully into a rich tapestry with his life experiences An account of his recent visit to Kashmir in July 2016 which he calls a sentimental journey a pilgrimage to the homeland is captivating It engages the reader with an intensely human journey of the life of the author in Kashmir and beyond from 1930 Contemporary Indian English Poetry and Drama Sajalkumar Bhattacharya, Himadri Lahiri, Arnab Kumar Sinha, 2019-07-29 This anthology of essays maps the divergent issues that have become relevant in contemporary Indian English poetry and drama By providing a clear idea about the new themes techniques and methods used by the Indian English poets and playwrights to address the issues emerging in the changing socio cultural scenario particularly during the post globalization period the essays offer insightful observations on canon formation and its reception It is high time to consider afresh whether the canons of Indian English poetry and drama have widened their scope to include innovative forms of writing or whether they have evolved significantly to generate novel perspectives. These questions which are linked with the issue of canon formation and its reception are intricately woven into the fabric of these essays. This anthology will respond to the scholarly interests of inquisitive students research scholars and academics in the field of Indian English Internal Displacement and Conflict Sudha Rajput, 2019-02-04 Grounded in multidisciplinary research this book literature presents a methodical understanding of those displaced within their national borders the Internally Displaced Persons IDPs The IDP phenomenon remains less understood than that of refugees due to the internal nature of the crisis linked to a nation s sovereignty which assigns the responsibility for care to the national actors as opposed to an international body However the IDP phenomenon poses an international humanitarian challenge with upwards of 40 million people currently in internal displacement across the globe This book helps answer the most perplexing questions surrounding conflict induced protracted displacements namely how do positions embraced by key actors inform influence IDP policies and why despite the promise of robust return packages do families remain reluctant to return to home communities and equally reluctant to embrace new host communities Capitalizing on the diagnostic tool kit known as Dugan's Nested Model uniquely adapted to the Kashmiri Pandit displacement this book also analyzes issues of the similarly displaced communities of Nagorno Karabakh Abkhazia and South Ossetia Kosovo and Darfur regions This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies humanitarianism Asian politics and International Law in general Shikwa-e-Hind Mujibur Rehman, 2024-05-21 Roughly 200 million today Indian Muslims are greater than the population of Britain and France or Germany put together According to the Indian Constitution Indian Muslims are treated as political equals which is what India s secular polity promised after its independence encouraging more than 35 million Indian Muslims at the time of Partition to choose India as their motherland over Pakistan However the supposed relationship of equality between Hindus and Muslims as scripted in the constitution is being increasingly replaced by the domineering tendencies of a Hindu majority in India today The author describes the current state and position of Indian Muslims the seeds for which were sown when the BJP came to power in 2014 as the thirdpolitical moment the second he believes was in 1947 when the community was given equal status in the Indian Constitution and the first was in 1857 when Indian Muslims learnt to live under the British colonial state As he states there is no denying that political circumstances for Indian Muslims were not completely ideal or full of democratic energy prior to the rise of the Hindu Right since the late 1980s With numerous layers defined by language ethnicity region etc Muslims have the most heterogeneous identity representing India's quintessential diversity And yet Muslims are perceived as the most enduring well grounded threat to the majoritarian project of the Hindu Rashtra Indian Muslims are perceived or presented as perpetrators of violence and violators of law even if they are at the receiving end They are viewed as an internal enemy who need to be dealt with for political social historical and ideological reasons Going forward the community must formulate the language of democratic rights of Indian Muslims as equal citizens and define the ethics of human dignity in their struggle to reassert their place in India's political power structures at all levels from panchayat to Parliament While the economic future or cultural rights of Indian Muslims have been debated since 1947 it is the political future that demands attention because only as an equal and participatory community in the politics of the nation can economic and cultural futures be addressed This book explores the political future of Indian Muslims in this context From Shaheen Bagh to Hindu Muslim riots from the unique position of Muslim women in India to the Sachar Report and the Muslim backwardness debate Mujibur Rehman analyses confronts and discusses the urgent concerns of Indian Muslims in a manner that is nuanced and Changing Dimensions Of Human Security And Governance DR. RAJ KUMARI MEENA, 2022-09-03 globally relevant This book contains twenty nine Best Paper Award winning articles presented in the IIHSG International Conference 2022 on Human Security and Governance organised by Interdisciplinary Institute of Human Security Centre for Conflict Studies Middlebury Institute of International Studies Monterey CA USA Security Women United Kingdom Department of International Relations Central University of Jharkhand India Department of Defence Human Security Education and Governance Human Rights and Governance Human Security and Sustainable Development Women in Governance and Human Security Human Security and Non state Actors Child Security and Governance Human Security and Pandemic Human Security and Law Governance State Politics and Human Security Food Security and Governance and Defense Strategy and Human Security I hope that this collection of essays can become a benchmark for the future as well as spur new research agendas and projects that will put the region into a much needed conversation on the recent trends of human security and the modalities of tackling it by different types of governance
