Other Dreams of Freedom Yvonne C. Zimmerman, 2013 Yvonne C Zimmerman offers a groundbreaking exploration of the relationship between freedom and sexual regulation in American approaches to human trafficking Longing and Letting Go Holly Hillgardner, 2017 Can we love God and others without our desires eclipsing the very beauty integrity and diversity toward which we are drawn that is can we love without trying to possess Spanning centuries continents and religious traditions Longing and Letting Go looks to Christian writer Hadewijch and Hindu songstress Mirabai to explore their inextricable practices of longing and letting go and more particularly the interreligious possibilities of passionate non attachment for an interconnected pluralistic world

The Goodness of Home Natalia Marandiuc, 2018 In this wide ranging contribution to Christian theological anthropology Natalia Marandiuc offers a constructive theological argument for the function of love attachments as sources of subjectivity and enablers of human freedom Human loves and the love of God are portrayed here as co creating the self and situating human subjectivity in a relational home

Meaning in Our Bodies Heike Peckruhn, 2017 In Meaning in Our Bodies Heike Peckruhn argues that scholars who appeal to the importance of bodily experiences need to acquire a robust and nuanced understanding of how sensory perceptions and interactions are cultural and theological acts of making meaning

Righteous Rhetoric Leslie Dorrough Smith, 2014-03-04 Scholars who study the Christian Right often claim that the movement's distinction lies in its moral absolutism and religious fervor Through a detailed study of the sexually charged rhetoric of one of America's largest conservative women's organizations Concerned Women for America CWA Righteous Rhetoric argues that the absolute platforms for which CWA is known are not the linchpin of its political power Rather such absolutes are the byproduct of a more fundamental rhetorical process called chaos rhetoric a type of speech designed to create a heightened sense of social chaos and threat In response CWA is able to flexibly counter this negative emotion by crafting a positive identity for itself shifting in ways that are politically advantageous in the tumultuous cultural contests that occur over sex gender and reproduction However powerful this technique may prove Righteous Rhetoric demonstrates that chaos rhetoric is not unique to CWA but is a ubiquitous tactic used by almost all groups in the fight for social dominance Where CWA and the Christian Right's true source of distinction lies is thus not in unique theologies or political tactics but in the ability to fuse its own identity with America's most beloved symbols in such a way that its own existence is rendered inseparable from the nation's very survival

Liberalism Versus Postliberalism John Allan Knight, 2013 The book provides an original analysis of the central philosophical differences between liberal and postliberal theology Knight argues that important developments in philosophy of language reveal serious problems with the central methodological commitments of liberalism and postliberalism and suggest ways in which the divide can be bridged

Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen, 2018 During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic Persian and Chinese works The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some its brightest luminaries Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition Wang Daiyu Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority How do practices inform belief Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca comprehensive knowledge of the Qur'an and personal knowledge of Arabic stimulated communal engagement Petersen demonstrates that the integration of Sino Muslims within a growing global environment where international travel and communication was increasingly possible was accompanied by the rising self awareness of a universally engaged Muslim community

Image, Identity, and the Forming of the Augustinian Soul Matthew Drever, 2013-06-03 In our current pluralist context there is no clearly designated means of valuing or defining the human person Matthew Drever shows that in the writings of St Augustine we find a concept of the human person that is fluid tenuous prone to great good and great vice and influenced deeply by the wider spiritual and material environment Through an examination of his account of the human relation to God Drever demonstrates how Augustine can offer a crucial resource for a religious reorientation and revaluation of the human person Drever focuses particularly on the concepts of the imago dei and creatio ex nihilo significant for their influence on Augustine's understanding of the human person and for their potential to bridge his and our own world Though rooted in Augustine's early work these concepts are developed fully in his later writings his Genesis commentaries and On the Trinity in particular Drever examines how in these later writings the origin creatio ex nihilo and identity imago dei of the human person intersect with Augustine's understanding of creation Christ and the Trinity Image Identity and the Forming of the Augustinian Soul constructs an interpretation of Augustine's view of the person that acknowledges its classical context while also addressing contemporary theological and philosophical appropriations of Augustine and the issues that animate them

Melville's Wisdom Damien B. Schlarb, 2021-06-18 In Melville's Wisdom Religion Skepticism Literature in Nineteenth Century America Damien B. Schlarb explores the manner in which Herman Melville responds to the spiritual crisis of modernity by using the language of the biblical Old Testament wisdom books to moderate contemporary discourses on religion skepticism and literature Schlarb argues that attending to Melville's engagement with the wisdom books Job Proverbs and Ecclesiastes can help us understand a paradox at the heart of American modernity the simultaneous displacement and affirmation of biblical language and religious culture

Enfolding Silence Brett J. Esaki, 2016-05-02 This book explores how Japanese Americans have developed traditions of complex silences to survive historic moments of racial and religious marginalization and how they continue to adapt these traditions today Utilizing case studies and histories of the Japanese American arts of gardening origami jazz and monuments Brett Esaki provides a theory of silence that goes beyond the binary of sound and its absence to articulate the multiple layers of silence that exist for Japanese Americans

Drifting through Samsara Masoumeh Rahmani, 2021-11-30 In Drifting Through Samsara Masoumeh Rahmani provides a fieldwork based study of Goenka's Vipassana meditation movement in New Zealand This group is distinguished by its refusal to identify as Buddhist and by a rich rhetorical repertoire for repackaging Theravada Buddhist teachings in pseudo scientific and secular language Drawing from qualitative research the book examines the way the movement's discourse shapes unique processes and narratives of conversion and disengagement

Roadmap to Redemption Rebecca Bender, 2013-03-17 Roadmap to Redemption is the first of its kind a workbook for survivors of sexual trafficking written by a survivor Rebecca Bender was lured into the life of human trafficking at the vulnerable age of 18 Now rescued and restored she uses the valuable lessons she learned to help bring other survivors to redemption This nine week workbook is cupped with her personal testimony and injected with scripture If you like Beth Moore's bible studies you'll love Rebecca Bender She uncovers the seductive tactics traffickers use in America today and equips anyone who wants to work with exploited victims This workbook can be used one on one privately or in a group setting Don't let this faith based holy spirit led workbook pass you by Endorsed by some of the biggest names in the Human Trafficking arena Roadmap to Redemption should be in the hands of every victim of trauma www.roadmaptoredemption.com

Trafficking Hadassah Ericka Shawndricka Dunbar, 2021-11-11 The representation of sexual trafficking in the book of Esther has parallels with the cultural memories histories and materialized pain of African girls and women across time and space from the Persian Empire to subsequent slave trade routes and beyond Trafficking Hadassah illuminates that African female bodies have been and continue to be colonized and sexualized exploited for profit and pleasure causing adverse physical mental sexual socio cultural and spiritual consequences for the girls and women concerned It focuses on sexual trafficking both in the biblical book of Esther and during the transatlantic slave trade to demonstrate how gender and racism intersect with other forms of oppression including legal oppression which results in the sexual trafficking of African females It examines both the conditions and mechanisms by which the trafficking of the virgin girls who are collectively identified are legitimated and normalized in the book of Esther alongside contemporary histories of African females This important book examines ideologies and stereotypes that are used to justify the abuse in both contexts challenges the complicity of biblical readers and interpreters in violence against girls and women and illustrates how attention to the nameless faceless African girls in the text is impacted by the MeToo and SayHerName social movements This book will be of particular interest to those studying the Bible religion gender theology and sex trafficking It is also an important book for those in the related fields of Africana Studies Trauma Studies Post Colonial Studies Diaspora Studies Critical Race Studies as well as to the general reader

Manufacturing Freedom Elena Shih, 2023-04-25 Sex worker rescue and rehabilitation programs have become a core focus of the global movement to combat human trafficking Manufacturing Freedom offers an ethnographic exploration of two American anti trafficking organizations that offer vocational training in jewelry production to women migrants in China and Thailand as a path out of sex work Activists brand this jewelry a slave free good and then sell it to consumers in the United States generating racialized circuits of commerce and morality centered around promises of freedom from enslavement and redemptive wages for former sex workers whom these organizations universally label as victims of trafficking Workers by contrast often contest the trafficking label and object to the moral and disciplinary processes that ensnare them in a pernicious global web of anti trafficking rescue In this novel study Elena Shih argues that these anti trafficking rescue and rehabilitation projects profit off persistent labor abuse of women workers and imagined but savvily marketed narratives of redemption thereby generating a transnational moral economy of low wage women s work that obfuscates relations of race gender national power and inequality

Human Trafficking, the Bible, and the Church Marion L. S. Carson, 2016-11-04 Human trafficking causes untold suffering to millions throughout the world From a Christian perspective it should go without saying that we ought to work towards the eradication of this evil The Bible however which all Christian traditions recognize as normative for faith and practice reflects an era in which slavery was regarded as the norm This raises a question can it have anything to say to the church about human trafficking or should it be discarded as irrelevant and anachronistic Drawing on history and literature to help us bridge the hermeneutical gap between the texts and our own age this study presents an examination of key biblical material on slavery and prostitution It suggests that the Bible does have much to say that can inform Christian responses to modern day slavery in all its forms including the sex industry into which so many victims of trafficking are sold

Religious Responses to Sex Work and Sex Trafficking Lauren McGrow, 2022-08-01 This book examines the history theological beliefs and current contextual practices of faith based NGOs who work in the area of human trafficking that involves the sex industry There are hundreds of religious organizations around the globe who minister with human trafficking survivors and sex workers but what is really happening on the ground and how do theological beliefs support a faith based response Many of these groups represent their work as a cosmic battle against evil forces yet important structural critiques are ignored in the urgency to rescue women and children Using perspectives from both NGO staff and sex workers an interdisciplinary panel of contributors examine specific organizations highlight marginalized voices and analyze undergirding methodologies In doing so the authors provide clear critiques and establish best practice guidelines for faith based NGOs and future religious leaders affirming an intersection of justice based upon critical reflection and careful action This book addresses with nuance an important topic that is often over simplified It will therefore be of great interest to scholars studying the interaction of religion to sex work and human trafficking as well as academics of religious studies and theology more generally The Lucky One ,2016 Jenni masterfully weaves steadfast truths into a story that shakes our world view our theology and our ideas of what a human can bear Hettie Brittz motivational speaker and author Fearless Free and un Natural MomWhether you read this book to try to understand some of the darkness of sex trafficking or to find healing for your own wounds you will not be disappointed Adele Booyesen D Min The Lucky One is a disturbing and riveting entry into the world of sexual abuse human trafficking evil and redemption Your heart will be sensitized to a great evil but far more you too will be invited to taste the goodness of God in the land of the living Dan B Allender Ph D Professor of Counseling Psychology Founding President The Seattle School of Theology and PsychologyThis book is heartbreaking Not in the pain that it describes which is horrific but in the beauty that it calls out to in the midst of the pain Christa Foster Crawford Anti Trafficking Consultant Trafficking Resource Connection Adjunct Assistant Professor of Children at Risk Fuller Theological Seminary School of Intercultural Studies She was only four years old when she was sold into the sex trade White picket fences and steepled churches all guarded secrets that were not ever supposed to be told In kindergarten she began praying every night that Jesus would let her die In second grade she sat in church on a Sunday morning swinging her feet from a wooden pew behind the man who had paid to rape her the night before Her perpetrators were from all walks of life An engineer a police officer a bait shop owner business men farmers younger men and old different men all feeding the same lust The only thing that they had in common was their brutal love for little girls She shouldn t have survived it If God had answered her prayers she wouldn t have Here is the true account of how she was brought out of captivity and into a life of freedom Jenni Jessen is a wife a mama and a survivor She and her husband KJ live in SE Asia where they founded Compass 31 an organization dedicated to fighting human trafficking KJ and Jenni provide foster care to teenage mothers and babies rescued from the sex trade Their family includes 6 different people groups a dog a cat and a pair of lovebirds named Jack and Diane Vulnerable Raleigh Sadler,2019-02-01 There are more than 40 million enslaved people in the world today This is overwhelming A number so large leaves us asking What could I even do to help In his book Vulnerable Rethinking Human Trafficking Raleigh Sadler president and founder of Let My People Go makes the case that anyone can fight human trafficking by focusing on those who are most often targeted This book invites the reader to understand their role in the problem of human trafficking but more importantly their role in the solution Human trafficking can be defined as the exploitation of vulnerability for commercial gain Using the power of story and candid interviews Sadler seeks to discover how ordinary people can fight human trafficking by recognizing vulnerability and entering in As vulnerable people we can empower other vulnerable people because Christ was made vulnerable for us Heavy Traffic Mel Baggett,Twyla Baggett,2025-01-24 Surely slavery doesn t exist in the United States today Right Wrong Human trafficking exists everywhere In small towns and big cities across the
