Our First Hundred Years The Baptist Church Of South Australia:

Our First Hundred Years H. Estcourt Hughes,1937 Our first hundred years. The Baptist Church of South Australia. By Rev. H. Estcourt Hughes South Australia Baptist Union (AUSTRALIA, South), Henry Estcourt HUGHES,1937

The Baptist Heritage H. Leon McBeth,1987-01-29 The Baptist Heritage Four Century of Baptist Witness H Leon McBeth s The Baptist heritage is a definitive fresh interpretation of Baptist history Based on primary source research the book combines the best features of chronological and topical history to bring alive the story of Baptists around the world

Our Own Matilda Barbara Wall,1994 Biography of successful Australian novelist who published under the name Maud Jeanne Franc Discusses her life in South Australia and provides detailed analyses of her writings Includes an annotated bibliography of her work a list of the writings of her brother Henry John Congreve and an index The author is an English teacher whose other publications include The Narrators Voice The Dilemma of Children s Fiction Interfaces Baptists and Others David Bebbington,2014-07-08 The book is a collection of twenty one essays discussing how Baptists throughout the world have related to other Christians and to other institutions and movements over the centuries The theme of this collection of twenty one essays Baptists and Others includes relations with other Christians and with other institutions and movements What the authors ask has been the Baptist experience of engaging with different groups and developments The theme has been explored by means of case studies some of which are very specific in time and place while others cover long periods and more than one country In the first half the contents are arranged by period The first section examines early Baptists the second nineteenth century Baptists in Britain and America and the third Baptists in the twentieth century The second half turns to various parts of the world There is a section on Australia another on New Zealand and a third on Asia and Africa The overall picture is one of a complicated series of relationships as Baptists defined themselves as different from other bodies and yet especially in the twentieth century tried to co operate in mission and ecumenical endeavour Baptists are often regarded as enthusiastic separatists and unenthusiastic ecumenists These essays based on hard evidence rather than passing impressions are a necessary correction to superficial prejudices and show the reality to be much more complex and nuanced as well as varied over time and place The book is a smorgasbord of delights Yet readers should avoid the temptation to pick and choose from the menu ensuring rather that each offering is digested so they enjoy a balance and nutritious meal Derek Tidball Seizing Opportunities Rebecca Hilton,2025-08-26 Until 1945 Australian Baptist women made up about two thirds of Australian Baptist adherents but rarely have their achievements been documented Instead Australian Baptist history has focused on structures and male ministers This book seeks to redress this deficiency and highlights the work of Baptist women in congregations state and national Baptist women s organizations overseas mission an area in which their contribution was essential and national non denominational organizations particularly the Woman s Christian Temperance Union Australian Baptist women seized the opportunities available to them with drive and passion and the recognition of their ministries is long overdue The Search for a Common Identity Brian R. Talbot, 2007-01-01 The Search for a Common Identity explores the process by which Scottish Baptists came to recognize the need for a union of Baptist churches in Scotland prior to 1869 This book identifies the major leaders in each of the three main Baptist streams in the early nineteenth century and shows how they came to the conviction that it was important for them to establish a common identity At the heart of their unity was an enthusiasm for evangelism The Baptist Home Missionary Society was formed in 1827 Its early successes demonstrated the wisdom of cooperation between the different Baptist agencies in Scotland There had been three attempts to form a union of churches that failed because differences of perspective could not be reconciled The principal achievement of the 1869 Baptist Union was in enabling Baptists with different theological opinions to come together to promote common practical objectives In short a shared sense of purpose led to the growth and establishment of the Baptist Union of Scotland Baptists and Mission Ian M. Randall, Anthony R. Cross, 2008-03-01 Every three years since 1997 an International Conference on Baptist Studies has been held each conference being in a different country The theme in 2006 when the conference was held in Nova Scotia was Baptists and Mission This is a theme that has been at the heart of Baptist life Papers examined home and foreign mission evangelicalism and social concern This volume draws together a range of the papers that were delivered This volume has studies of significant Baptist figures such as Hanserd Knollys Andrew Fuller and Earl Merrick Home mission in a number of settings in North America and Europe is examined The range of places covered in the papers on overseas mission is considerable including Bolivia Mexico India Ivory Coast and Brazil All of these studies by historians drawn from many different contexts add new insights in this crucial area of Baptist studies

From Woolloomooloo to 'Eternity': A History of Australian Baptists Ken R. Manley, 2006-06-01 This pioneering study describes the quest of Baptists in the different colonies later states to develop their identity as Australians and Baptists The first comprehensive history of Baptists in Australia with a national focus the Baptist story is traced from their beginnings in 1831 with the first baptisms in Woolloomooloo Bay Sydney in 1832 down to modern times Changes and continuities achievements and failures are carefully analyzed and related to the wider social political and cultural context The first volume covers the period from 1831 until the outbreak of the First World War in 1914 and shows how a strong sense of becoming an Australian Church shaped much of their development from the various types of British Baptists who began the movement in the new nation What it meant to be an Australian Baptist is described using denominational newspapers church records and personal memoirs Journal of the Historical Society of South Australia Historical Society of South Australia, 1995 A Theological Book List Theological Education Fund, 1971 A Preliminary and Tentative Listing of Books for the Libraries of Christian Theological Institutions in South-East Asia Raymond P. Morris, 1958 A History of the Baptists Robert George Torbet, 1950 This is a history of the people called Baptists Its purpose is to set forth once again a story which has been told in various forms many times but which requires retelling and fresh interpretation for twentieth century readers This book is not intended to give an account of all the bodies which resemble the Baptists It begins with a brief summary of the views held by the people called Baptists It then provides a brief survey of those spiritual ancestors from whom the Baptists are immediately descended While British and European Baptists have not been neglected the main story concerns American Baptists particularly those who are white both Northern and Southern Preface South Australian History Francis Keble Crowley, 1966 Various local history documents used by A M Dolling in her research The Baptist Quarterly, 2006 The Flinders History of South Australia Eric Richards, 1986 A comprehensive collection of papers on prehistory contact history immigration sport religion health and welfare education family patterns women race relations and class papers by G L Pretty R Foster and T J Gara and J Summers separately annotated The Chronicle, 1938
