We the Young Fighters Marc Sommers, 2023-10 We the Young Fighters is at once a history of a nation the story of a war and the saga of downtrodden young people and three pop culture superstars Reggae idol Bob Marley rap legend Tupac Shakur and the John Rambo movie character all portrayed an upside down world where those in the right are blamed while the powerful attack them Their collective example found fertile ground in the West African nation of Sierra Leone where youth were entrapped inequality was blatant and dissent was impossible When warfare spotlighting diamonds marijuana and extreme terror began in 1991 military leaders exploited the trio's transcendent power over their young fighters and captives Once the war expired youth again turned to Marley for inspiration and Tupac for friendship Thoroughly researched and accessibly written We the Young Fighters probes terror based warfare and how Tupac Rambo and especially Bob Marley wove their way into the fabric of alienation resistance and hope in Sierra Leone The tale of pop culture heroes radicalizing warfare and shaping peacetime underscores the need to engage with alienated youth and reform predatory governments The book ends with a framework for customizing the international response to these twin challenges

The Fabric of Peace in Africa Pamela Aall, Chester A. Crocker, 2017-06-05 Africa has experienced dozens of conflicts over a variety of issues during the past two decades Responding to these conflicts requires concerted action to manage the crises the violence the political discord and the humanitarian consequences of prolonged fighting It is also necessary to address the long term social and economic impacts of conflict to rebuild communities societies and states that have been torn apart To accomplish this requires the involvement of institutions and groups rarely considered in formal official African conflict management activities schools universities religious institutions media commercial enterprises legal institutions civil society groups youth women and migrants These groups and organizations have an important role to play in building a sense of identity fairness shared norms and cohesion between state and society all critical components of the fabric of peace and security in Africa This volume brings together leading experts from Africa Europe and North America to examine these critical social institutions and groups and consider how they can either improve or impede peaceful conflict resolution The overarching questions that are explored by the authors are What constitutes social cohesion and resilience in the face of conflict What are the threats to cohesion and resilience And how can the positive elements be fostered and by whom The second of two volumes on African conflict management capacity by the editors The Fabric of Peace in Africa Looking beyond the State opens new doors of understanding for students scholars and practitioners focused on strengthening peace in Africa the first volume Minding the Gap African Conflict Management in a Time of change focused on the role of mediation and peacekeeping in managing violence and political crises

Education and Development Muna B. Ndulo, N'Dri T. Assié-Lumumba, 2020-05-05 This edited volume addresses a critical aspect of development in Africa the intersection between education and governance Using case studies and experiences from different parts of the continent this book assesses how the potential for human resources in terms of education can be leveraged in the development process to achieve equity inclusive development and governance outcomes in Africa This book builds on the resource curse to focus on human resources as an alternative paradigm to sustainable development in Africa At a time when concerns over access to quality education is an important issue among policy makers and international development agents this timely project calls attention to one of the most critical aspects of development in Africa

Securitizing Youth Marisa O. Ensor, 2021-04-23 Securitizing Youth offers new insights on young people's engagement in a wide range of contexts related to the peace and security field It presents empirical findings on the challenges and opportunities faced by young women and men in their efforts to build more peaceful inclusive and environmentally secure societies The chapters included in this edited volume examine the diversity and complexity of young people's engagement for peace and security in different countries across the globe and in different types and phases of conflict and violence including both conflict affected and relatively peaceful societies Chapter contributors young peacebuilders and seasoned scholars and practitioners alike propose ways to support youth's agency and facilitate their meaningful participation in decision making. The chapters are organized around five broad thematic issues that correspond to the 5 Pillars of Action identified by UN Security Council Resolution 2250. Lessons learned are intended to inform the global youth peace and security agenda so that it better responds to on the ground realities hence promoting more sustainable and inclusive approaches to long lasting peace.

Routledge Handbook of Peace, Security and Development Fen Osler Hampson, Alpaslan Özerdem, Jonathan Kent, 2020-06-04. This Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of the peace security and development nexus from a global perspective and investigates the interfaces of these issues in a context characterised by many new challenges. By bringing together more than 40 leading experts and commentators from across the world the Handbook maps the various research agendas related to these three themes taking stock of existing work and debates while outlining areas for further engagement. In doing so the chapters may serve as a primer for new researchers while also informing the wider scholarly community about the latest research trends and innovations. The volume is split into three thematic parts: Concepts and approaches; New drivers of conflict, insecurity and developmental challenges; Actors, institutions and processes. For ease of use and organisational consistency each chapter provides readers with an overview of each research area, a review of the state of the literature, a summary of the major debates and promising directions for future research. This Handbook will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies, development studies, security studies and International Relations.

Youth and Popular Culture in Africa Paul Ugor, 2021. The edited collection focuses on the links between young people and African popular culture. It explores popular culture produced and consumed by young people in contemporary Africa. And by culture we mean all kinds of texts or representations: visual, oral, written, performative, fictional, social and virtual created by African youth mostly about their lives and their immediate societies and for themselves but also consumed by the larger public and shared locally and globally. We proceed from the premise that cultural texts not only function as social facts as Karin Barber argues but that they double as commentaries upon and interpretations of social facts. They are part of social reality but they also take up an attitude to social reality. 2007-04. So the work focuses specifically on what African youth produce as popular culture under what conditions or contexts they produce such work, how they produce those texts, why they produce them, the aesthetic dimensions of these texts as cultural artifacts and why these textual practices matter as social facts, as interpretive acts and as cultural symbols of the general cultural activism of young people in a rapidly changing world, a world where the global cultural economy is the prime terrain for the relentless struggles over the meanings that come to shape political, economic and social systems.

Africa's Urban Youth Amy S. Patterson, Tracy Kuperus, Megan Hershey, 2023-08-10. Draws from extensive fieldwork in three countries to show how African youth negotiate citizenship through daily obligations, relationships and political engagement.

Conceptualizations of Africa Abdul Karim Bangura, JP Afamefuna Ifedi, 2025-02-27. This book discusses how Africa has been understood and defined across various academic fields Building on the influential works of Valentin Yves Mudimbe and more recent studies by Axel Fleisch and Rhiannon Stephens this book bridges previous limitations by offering a comprehensive interdisciplinary analysis Each chapter examines the conceptualization of Africa within a specific discipline balancing local and global perspectives blending competing viewpoints and providing suggestions for future research The book will be essential for students scholars and researchers interested in a better understanding of the diverse and complex narratives that shape our knowledge of Africa and its intellectual heritage

Inclusive Urban Development in the Global South Andrea Rigon,Vanesa Castán Broto,2021-05-16 Inclusive Urban Development in the Global South emphasizes the importance of the neighbourhood in urban development planning with case studies aimed at transforming current intervention practices towards more inclusive and just means of engagement with individuals and communities The chapters explore how diversity of gender class race and ethnicity citizenship status age ability and sexuality is taken or not taken into account and approached in the planning and implementation of development policy and interventions in poor urban areas The book employs a practical perspective on the deployment of theoretical critiques of intersectionality and diversity in development practice through case studies examining issues such as water and sanitation planning in Dhaka indigenous rights to the city in Bolivia post colonial planning in Hong Kong land reform in Zimbabwe and many more The book focuses on radical alternatives with the potential to foster urban transformations for planning and development communities working around the world

The Scramble for Europe Stephen Smith,2019-06-04 From the harrowing situation of migrants trying to cross the Mediterranean in rubber dinghies to the crisis on the US Mexico border mass migration is one of the most urgent issues facing our societies today At the same time viable solutions seem ever more remote with the increasing polarization of public attitudes and political positions In this book Stephen Smith focuses on young Africa 40 per cent of its population are under fifteen and a dramatic demographic shift Today 510 million people live inside EU borders and 1.25 billion people in Africa In 2050 450 million Europeans will face 2.5 billion Africans five times their number The demographics are implacable The scramble for Europe will become as inexorable as the scramble for Africa was at the end of the nineteenth century when 275 million people lived north and only 100 million lived south of the Mediterranean Then it was all about raw materials and national pride now it is about young Africans seeking a better life on the Old Continent the island of prosperity within their reach If Africa's migratory patterns follow the historic precedents set by other less developed parts of the world in thirty years a quarter of Europe's population will be Afro Europeans Addressing the question of how Europe can cope with an influx of this magnitude Smith argues for a path between the two extremes of today's debate He advocates migratory policies of good neighbourhood equidistant from guilt ridden self denial and nativist egoism This sobering analysis of the migration challenges we now face will be essential reading for anyone concerned with the great social and political questions of our time

Youth and Non-Violence in Africa's Fragile Contexts Akin Iwile, Tarila Marclint Ebiede,2022-10-22 This book makes an important contribution to the conflict literature and to new ways of thinking about agency and social life in fragile contexts It does this by engaging with often ignored peace infrastructures In this book the contributors highlight different ways in which non violence is deployed by Africa s youth to navigate difficult violent contexts Drawing on empirically grounded case studies from the Central African Republic to Zimbabwe this book explores how similar or indeed the same social infrastructures can be deployed for both violence and non violence and the important factors that drive many youth to take the non 1 violence option even when order appears to collapse around them The authors also explore how for instance systems of organizing survive violent disruptions to the so called rhythms of everyday life and when they do how they are then repurposed by youth to help them survive violence

Management and Leadership for a Sustainable Africa, Volume 1 Kemi Ogunyemi,Oreva Atanya,Vanessa Bural,2022-11-16 To effectively deliver sustainable management in practice for Africa we need responsible leadership We need to deepen our understanding of sustainability in the unique socio political and economic context of the continent The roles of various actors across public private and non profit sectors as enablers of sustainable development need to be explored to understand the social economic and environmental SEE trends in Africa and its emerging and developing economies as well as to chart the way forward for the continent This first volume focuses on the African understanding of sustainability and its dimensions within its unique historical social environmental and political contexts Through the lens of responsible leadership the authors reflect on the implementation and extension of the SEE sustainability triad in ways unique to the African continent especially in relation to the development of well thought out healthy and enduring policy frameworks and the promotion of good governance The African scope of the book is hinged on collaboration from authors across Africa and the inclusion of case stories from emerging economies in the five African subregions East West North Central and Southern Africa within the chapters The core message is that to achieve effective and sustainable management and development for Africa the practice of responsible leadership is critical

Youth and sustainable peacebuilding Helen Berents,Catherine Bolten,Siobhan McEvoy-Levy,2024-07-02 Sustainable peace involves more than simply including youth in official peacebuilding mechanisms or recognizing their local peacebuilding work it requires a transformation in thinking about the youth as actors in the world of security and peace Using case studies from around the globe the contributors to this volume analyse why states are afraid of their young people why youth participation in formal peace processes matters but is insufficient and ways that young people are working outside of official systems to create and nurture peace on their own terms The volume offers guidance for ways to bridge the disconnect that exists between institutional assumptions and expectations for youth as peacebuilders and the actual sustainable peace leadership of youth Throughout it emphasises a critical approach to peacebuilding with for and by youth

Development Theory and Practice in a Changing World Pádraig Carmody,2019-04-09 Taking a critical and historical view this text explores the theory and changing practice of international development It provides an overview of how the field has evolved and the concrete impacts of this on the ground on the lives of people in the Global South Development Theory and Practice in a Changing World covers the major theories of development such as modernisation and dependency in addition to anti development theories such as post modernism and decoloniality It examines the changing nature of immanent structural conditions of development in addition to the main attempts to steer them imminent development The book suggests that the era of development as a hegemonic idea and practice may be coming to an end at the same time as it appears to have achieved its apogee in the Sustainable Development Goals as a result of the rise of ultra nationalism around the world the increasing importance of securitisation and the existential threat posed by climate change Whether development can or should survive as a concept is interrogated in the book This book offers a fresh and updated take on the past 60 years of development and is essential reading for advanced undergraduate students in areas of development geography international studies political science economics and sociology

Peacebuilding Legacy Sukanya Podder,2022 Peacebuilding Legacies addresses an important gap relating to the long term effects of peacebuilding programmes involving children and young people Podder unpacks the concept of peacebuilding legacy through the lens of time transformation and intergenerational peace The Age of Change Michelle D.

Gavin,2025-09-04 An approachable guide to the political social and demographic changes happening in Africa and why they matter for the rest of the world Africa is undergoing an astounding transformation that will usher in a new era of political volatility and experimentation in the coming years The region is in the midst of a historically unprecedented demographic surge that has skewed the median age in most countries to below twenty years old This demographic moment coincides with three factors likely to amplify the political agendas of African youth rapid urbanization dramatically increased digital connectivity and increasing recognition that old political narratives are no longer fit for purpose Michelle D Gavin argues that these clear trends will result in an increase in political volatility Anti government movements will continue to find new expression incumbents will be more vulnerable honeymoon periods for new leaders will be shorter and transfers of power and leadership will be more frequent Citizens frustrated by the status quo will show more willingness to experiment with different forms of government and different external partnerships all with significant implications for those hoping for a global democratic resurgence This book explores growing dissatisfaction and desire for change as the political through line emerging on a diverse continent and illuminates some of the frustrated defiant and often humorous pan African political conversations underway among young politically engaged populations What is coming will be dramatically different from the period of political stagnation that has characterized the past two decades in the region and that also means that major powers like the United States Russia and China that are competing for influence in the region will have to change the way they do business
