Outlaws Gender Galaxy Chaynika Shah:

No Outlaws in the Gender Galaxy Chayanika Shah, Raj Merchant, Shals Mahajan, Smriti Nevatia, 2015-11-06 The constructed naturalness of a world made up of two sexes two genders and heterosexual desire as the only legitimate desire has been continuously questioned and challenged by those marginalised by these norms This forces us to ask some important questions How is gender really understood and constructed in the world that we inhabit How does it operate through the various socio political cultural structures around us And most crucially how is it lived No Outlaws in the Gender Galaxy answers these questions with a research study that attempts to understand gender through the lives of queer persons assigned gender female at birth The lived realities of the respondents echoing in the book through their voices help to interrogate gender as well as provide clues to how it can be envisioned or revisioned to be egalitarian This book explores how gender plays out in public and private institutions like the family educational institutions work and public spaces Looking at each of these independently it elaborates the specific ways in which binary gender norms are woven into each arena and it also explores the multiple ways in which interlocking systems of heteronormativity casteism class and ableism are enmeshed within patriarchy to create exclusion marginalisation pathologisation and violence This book illustrates the multiplicity of ways in which people live gender and testifies that even if there are gender laws in a just world there can be no gender outlaws Published by Zubaan Feminist Collections University of Wisconsin System. It captures the diversities and challenges of contemporary families and provides a culture and region specific overview of how families adapt and change generationally. The book explores the paradigms of understanding family life in India through illustrations which trace patterns of family formations in the context of large scale social economic and media driven changes. Besides discussing the ongoing debates on the sociology of family, the chapters in this volume also look at diverse families experiencing poverty, conflict and displacement and demystifies families with members having a disability or non normative sexual orientation. Women's Empowerment in India Anjoo Sharan Upadhyaya, Åshild Kolås, Eileen Connolly, 2024-03-19 The volume brings together readings describing a range of less traversed aspects and transferences of women's rights and struggles in India and develops a comprehensive understanding of the interface between women's activism and politics. The book documents and discusses diverse ways in which Indian women have struggled for empowerment, political voice and representation and rallied against injustice and discrimination. Against the backdrop of women's assertion of rights and negotiations for empowerment, the chapters in this volume explore diverse facets of collective agency and emanations of women's politico legal struggles against stereotypes of gender and class in post independence India. While the donor driven international community has been eager to celebrate the successes of its global normative agenda setting and best practices approach, this book based primarily on field research by the contributors showcases authentic local ownership and women's own agency, taking seriously the need to understand the cultural context and pay attention to intersectionality. It presents various examples of women's activism for change reflecting on the quotidian struggles and dynamic assertions of voice and political power within and outside of formal political institutions. The book is a contribution to the debate about agency and ownership as key aspects of empowerment, highlighting women who defy dominant narratives. It will be an essential read for students and academics of political science, gender studies, sociology and social sciences and cultural studies. It will also be of interest to readers interested in the history of women's movements and their participation in national and local politics in India.
