The Deviant Mystique Scott Grills, Robert Prus, 2003-02-28 Adopting a symbolic interactionist perspective and building extensively on the ethnographic research tradition this book analyzes the mystique that often accompanies deviance by examining deviance as an ongoing feature of community life Because deviance is approached in nonprescriptive ways as a product of community interchange the emphasis here is on the ways in which deviance is defined engaged and regulated It is examined as the product of human association as something that is generated by people as they interact with one another assume viewpoints and initiatives and try to influence and resist one another within the context of community life Prus and Grills do not attempt to address various deviant behaviors instead they provide readers with a glimpse into how deviance is formulated practiced viewed and treated Who defines deviance Why What are the effects of deviance on others How do subcultures form These and other questions are answered in this unique approach to the study of deviance Providing a conceptually coherent framework for approaching the study of deviance as an ongoing feature of the human community the authors pay special attention to the many theaters of operation in which people come together and engage one another with respect to morality and deviance Recognizing that audience definitions of deviance are pivotal to community notions of reality and actual interaction consideration is given to the interrelated processes of defining deviance identifying deviants regulating deviance informally and formally and experiencing treatment and disinvolvement This thoughtful consideration serves to shed new light on the mystique that has been created around ideas about deviance

Communist Activities in the Territory of Hawaii United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities,1950 Resilience and Autonomy in Prewar and Wartime Japan Hiromi Murakami,2023-12-15 Resilience and Autonomy in Prewar and Wartime Japan The Internal Governance of Industries 1925 1945 illuminates the processes by which industrial manufacturing organizations in Japan conducted collective actions and how and under what conditions industries interacted with each other and responded to government interference Surprisingly the nature of the struggle between the authorities and the private sector in Japan remains the same today as it did during the prewar period The private sector had been frustrated with impractical state policies and responded vigorously because its survival was at stake This book specifically delves into the manufacturing industries and explores the extent to which industry groups collectively responded to crisis situations and interacted with the authorities It highlights the remarkable resilience leadership and initiative displayed by the industry sector in self governance and assertion of power over authorities even when government controls were nominally in effect Hearings Regarding Communist Activities in the Territory of Hawaii: July 6, 1951 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities,1950 Hearings [and Reports] 82d Congress, 1st Session: Hearings regarding communist activities in the territory of Hawaii United States. Congress. House. Committee on Un-American Activities,1951 Integrating Safety-II into Safety Management Toni Wäfler,Rahel Gugerli,Giulio Nisoli,2020-12-22 We all aim for safe processes However providing safety is a complex endeavour What is it that makes a process safe And what is the contribution of humans It is very common to consider humans a risk factor prone to errors Therefore we implement sophisticated safety management systems SMS in order to prevent potential human failure These SMS provide an impressive increase of safety In safety science this approach is labelled Safety I and it starts to be questioned because humans do not show failures only On the contrary they often actively contribute to safety sometimes even by deviating from a procedure This Safety II perspective considers humans to be a safety factor as well because of their ability to adjust behaviour to the given situation However adaptability requires scope of action and this is where Safety I and Safety II contradict each other While the former restricts freedom of action the latter requires room for manoeuvring Thus the task of integrating the Safety II perspective into SMS which are traditionally Safety I based is difficult This challenge was the main objective of our project We discovered two methods that contribute to the quality of SMS by integrating Safety II into SMS without jeopardizing the Safety I approach Participatory Evaluation of Development Initiatives In Conflict Situations Amitava Mukherjee,2021-01-01 The book is an exercise in real life evaluations in conflict situations in Afghanistan It covers a wide range of situations and development interventions where participatory monitoring and evaluation PM E could be very effective The book discusses the principles of community based monitoring and evaluation to set the context in which participatory monitoring and evaluation can be carried out and draws our attention to the quality of participatory monitoring and evaluation The framework under which participatory monitoring and evaluation can be carried out has been discussed in detail Application of participatory monitoring and evaluation is demonstrated in a national level development intervention funded by the World Bank and in the evaluation of the Country Strategy of a major Donor that operates internationally both in conflict situations Then as a control group participatory monitoring and evaluation as a real life process in non conflict situation namely programmes under MNREGA is demonstrated in villages in Mirzapur Finally details of the participatory methods that could be applied in community based monitoring and evaluations have been provided for future use and to facilitate future learnings The book will be invaluable for students teachers and trainers of development economics Government functionaries functionaries in the development sector front line development workers and practitioners Making the Case Donn Short,Bruce MacDougall,Paul T. Clarke,2021-11-15 A principal forbids same sex prom dates A community group tries to prohibit gender neutral bathrooms Despite growing acceptance of 2SLGBTQ rights Canadian schools regularly become battlegrounds in clashes between students wishing to express their sexuality or gender identity and those who perceive this as a threat to their values Making the Case clearly shows how Canadian law responds to competing human rights claims when there is a clash between people asserting sexual minority rights and those asserting religious rights The authors call on related court cases to explain the position of Canadian law They demonstrate that Canadians have rights to religion and rights to gender expression or sexual orientation and that supporting sexual minority rights does not undermine other people s rights to religious freedom This accessible book is an important tool for anyone working to create an inclusive school environment or needing to respond to a rights based conflict within their school culturally diverse and economically fragmented Responses to insecurity now increasingly inform decisions made by governments organisations and ordinary people in their social interactions This book makes a key contribution to an understanding of these developments approaching the subject from a range of perspectives across several different disciplines The three parts of the book look at broader theoretical and thematic issues then at cross national and pan European developments and debates in European governance and finally explore specific examples of local issues of community safety and the broader implications these have Leading figures in the field draw upon criminological legal social and political theory to shed new light on what has become one of the most intractable problems facing western societies
