New York Times.      New York City's Best Public Elementary Schools Clara Hemphill, 2005 For nearly a decade parents have looked to Clara Hemphill to help them find a great public school for their child. For this third edition Clara and her staff visited nearly 500 of New York City's elementary schools and chose 200 of the best schools to recommend with more than 70 new school profiles not included in the previous edition. This essential guide uncovers the inside scoop on schools: the condition of the building, homework, teacher quality, etc. Includes a checklist of questions to ask on a school tour and incorporates new listings of charter schools and magnet programs.      New York City's Best Public High Schools Clara Hemphill, 2007-09 If you lived anywhere else in the country you would probably send your child to your neighborhood high school. In New York City it's much more complicated than that. But what parent has time to research hundreds of school options? To help you choose a high school that is just right for your child Clara Hemphill and her colleagues at InsideSchools visited nearly all of the city's 400 high schools. This essential revision of the critically acclaimed parents guide features new school profiles, invaluable advice to help parents and students through the stressful admissions process, and new sections on alternative schools, vocational schools, and schools for students learning English. Featuring interviews with teachers, parents, and students, this guide uncovers the inside scoop about school atmosphere, homework, student stress, competition among students, the quality of teachers, gender issues, the condition of the building, class size, and much more. For this third edition, I looked for schools that spark students' curiosity, broaden their horizons, and help them develop into thoughtful, caring adults.
