Outwitting The Husband A Short Story:

Scripts and Scenarios Richard Andrews,1993-04-22 This book examines the scripted stage comedies of the Italian Renaissance tracing their transition from closed courtly audiences to a wider public It concentrates on the performing values of their scripts rather than their literary qualities in order to demonstrate their links with improvised commedia dell arte and thus explores in a new way a crucial phase in the development of European theatre It will be of interest to scholars and students in both theatre history and Italian studies

The Husband's Story David Graham Phillips,1910 Beyond Bodies Daphne M. Grace,2014-05-01 Articulations and expressions of gender can be destabilising transgressive revolutionary and radical encompassing both a painful legacy of oppression and a joyous exploration of new experience Analysing key texts from the 19th to 21st centuries this book explores a range of British and Anglophone authors to contextualise women s writing and feminist theory with ongoing debates in consciousness studies Discussing writers who strive to redefine the gendered world of sexualized space whether internal or external mental or physical this book argues how the delusion of gender difference can be addressed and challenged In literary theory and in representations of the female body in literature identity has increasingly become a shifting multiple renegotiable and controversial concept While acknowledging historical and cultural constructions of sexuality writing the body must ultimately incorporate knowledge of human consciousness Here an understanding of consciousness from contemporary science especially quantum theory as the fundamental building block of existence beyond the body allows unique insights into literary texts to elucidate the problem of subjectivity and what it means to be human Including discussion of topics such as feminism and androgyny agency and entrapment masculinities and masquerade insanity and emotion and individual and social empowerment this study also creates a lively engagement with the literary process as a means of fathoming the enigma of consciousness Daphne Grace is Professor of English specializing in postcolonial and transnational literature gender and women s studies in addition to British literature of the 19th to 21st centuries She currently teaches at the University of the Bahamas and has also previously taught at Sussex University England and Eastern Mediterranean University in Cyprus

The Subtenant ; To Outwit God Hanna Krall,1992 This volume presents two works by acclaimed Polish journalist Hanna Krall The Subtenant a semi autobiographical novel and To Outwit God a remarkable interview with Marek Edelman the last surviving leader of the Warsaw Ghetto uprising The Subtenant explores the troubled and ever shifting relationships between Poles and Jews beginning with the author s concealment as a child during the Nazi years and ending in 1981 when martial law was declared in Poland In To Outwit God Edelman s words assault conventional assumptions about heroes and heroism taking in his time not only in the Warsaw Ghetto but his careers as a physician and a Solidarity activist Taken together the two works form a powerful memoir of Jewish survival a meditation on Polish Jewish relations and a commentary on the forces that have produced modern Polish opposition movements
