Crossed Frederick W. Gooding Jr.,2025-04-21 Despite Hollywood s recent efforts to appeal to more racially diverse audiences mainstream movies routinely present a limited view of non Whites generally and Black women specifically in stark contrast to the broadly developed spectrum of White characters Black women characters are frequently rendered invisible and even in films featuring their image Black women characters too often fall prey to historically stereotypical patterns These consistently marginalized Black female images serve to reflect and reinforce messages of racial imbalance distributed worldwide In Double Crossed Black Female Intersectionality in Hollywood author Frederick W Gooding Jr chronicles the Black female experience through the lens of Hollywood Gooding begins by contextualizing the origins of early Black female imagery on screen largely restricted to the domestic mammy figure then traces how these images have shifted over time Through close readings of such films as Gone with the Wind Bringing Down the House The Princess and the Frog and The Help as well as case studies looking at Oprah Winfrey and Shonda Rhimes Gooding considers not only the image the Black woman creates but also the shadow she casts This volume demonstrates the historical economic and social consequences of Hollywood s distorted representation of Black women on screen and in real life Language, Education, and Identity Chaise

LaDousa,Christina P. Davis,2021-07-08 This book examines medium of instruction in education and studies its social economic and political significance in the lives of people living in South Asia It provides insight into the meaning of medium and what makes it so important to identity aspiration and inequality It questions the ideologized associations between education and social and spatial mobility and discusses the gender and class based marginalization that comes with vernacular medium education The volume also considers how policy measures such as the Right to Education RTE Act in India have failed to address the inequalities brought by medium in schools and investigates questions on language access inclusion and rights Drawing on extensive fieldwork and in depth interviews the book will be indispensable for students and scholars of anthropology education studies sociolinguistics sociology and South Asian studies It will also appeal to those interested in language and education in South Asia especially the role of language in the reproduction of inequality
