
Chapter 01 - New World Beginnings 33,000 B.C. - A.D. 1783

I. Introduction

- Recorded human history is only one small portion of earth history
- European explorers "stumbled" on the Americas, altering the course of history in Europe, the Americas, Asia, and Africa

II. The Shaping of North America

- Geologic forces and climate change created the distinctive No. American continent

III. Peopling the Americas

- Ancient Americans probably crossed the Bering "land bridge" from Asia between 35,000 and 10,000 years ago (25,000 year window). Receding ice and rising oceans eliminated the bridge.
- These peoples slowly migrated and inhabited both continents, perhaps numbering up to 54 mill. by 1492 AD (4 mill. in No Amer)

IV. The Earliest Americans

- Corn/maize was the central agricultural crop that sustained many of the Indian cultures, moving them from nomadic hunters toward settled agricultural societies
- Complex maize culture spread slowly from Mexico north and east into No. Amer, reaching the southeast as late as 1000 AD – Creeks, Choctaws, Cherokees – three-sister farming: corn, beans, squash
- Iroquois developed their confederacy as late as the 1500s
- Most American societies were small & migratory – women farmed, men hunted – women often held political and cultural authority
- Though Americans did not dominate the land, they still manipulated it to meet their agricultural needs

V. Indirect Discoverers of the New World==

- Despite early settlements in NE NoAmer @ 1000AD, Norse explorers lacked the social organization to maintain them
- European expansion and connections with Africa and Asia were the catalysts for "discovering America"
- Crusades familiarized Europe with exotic and desirable goods that they were now willing to take risks to trade for

Ellison, 1980 Anne Frank's The Diary of a Young Girl: Study Guide and Student Workbook (Enhanced ebook), 2011-03 Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1924 SCM Studyguide: Theology in the Contemporary World Ben Pugh, 2017-10-30

No sooner have they mastered the basics than students of theology can quickly find themselves in over their heads They are bombarded with claim and counter claim as soon as they want to tackle anything topical The contentious subjects tend to be the historical Jesus gender and sexuality or the atonement Other subjects might be less contentious but attract an astonishing excess of literature Take the vast literature tackling the subject of the Church for instance or the bloated body of tomes on various aspects of Pneumatology This book tries to provide the bewildered and intimidated student with a primer that is at once introductory and incisive approachable and informative It will help those training for ministry to recover their fascination for the subject of theology and how it could apply to their future ministry The Myths That Made America

Heike Paul, 2014-08-15 This essential introduction to American studies examines the core foundational myths upon which the nation is based and which still determine discussions of US American identities today These myths include the myth of discovery the Pocahontas myth the myth of the Promised Land the myth of the Founding Fathers the melting pot myth the myth of the West and the myth of the self made man The chapters provide extended analyses of each of these myths using examples from popular culture literature memorial culture school books and every day life Including visual material as well as study questions this book will be of interest to any student of American studies and will foster an understanding of the United States of America as an imagined community by analyzing the foundational role of myths in the process of nation building

SCM Studyguide: Philosophy and the Christian Faith Ben Pugh, 2018-12-04 The challenges that Western culture keeps posing to the Christian faith are ever new The goal posts keep changing This study guide will equip theology students to understand the culture shaping beliefs that are driving the kinds of questions it brings to faith It will be an historical overview of the key stages in the history of Western philosophy with each section carefully tracing the genealogical line of ideas and the Christian responses to them right up to the present day For most theology students learning abstract philosophical concepts involves literally learning a new language a language that the initiated converse in with ease but which leaves the uninitiated baffled Thus each chapter in this study guide opens with a glossary of terms Throughout the studyguide students are encouraged to reflect on the ways in which what has been learned might be applied in both explicitly theological and wider cultural contexts for example they might be asked to think of a film or book that seems to express elements of existentialism or postmodernism or to describe how something very like the extreme subjectivity of idealism can sometimes show itself in Sunday morning worship Teaching World History as Mystery Jack Zevin, David

Gerwin, 2010-12-07 This text presents a philosophy methodology and examples for world history instruction based on inquiry and problem solving methods that promote reasoning and judgment and restore a sense of imagination and participation to classroom learning Paperbound Book Guide for Colleges, 1974 CCNA Routing and Switching Complete Study
