New Orleans Impressions:

Impressions Respecting New Orleans, by Benjamin Henry Boneval Latrobe. Diary and Sketches, 1818-1820. Edited with an Introduction and Notes by Samuel Wilson, Jr Benjamin Henry Boneval Latrobe, 1951      Impressions of the West and South During a Six Weeks' Holiday William Kingsford, 1858      Queer Impressions Elaine Pigeon, 2013-11-05 Beginning with The Portrait of a Lady this book shows how in developing his unique form of realism James highlights the tragic consequences of his American heroine's Romantic imagination in particular her Emersonian idealism In order to expose Emerson's blind spot a lacuna at the very centre of his New England Transcendentalism James draws on the Gothic effects of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Edgar Allan Poe thereby producing an intensification of Isabel Archer's psychological state and precipitating her awakening to a fuller heightened consciousness Thus Romanticism takes an aesthetic turn becoming distinctly Paterian and unleashing queer possibilities that are further developed in James's subsequent fiction This book follows the Paterian thread leading to The Author of Beltraffio and Th ophile Gauthier and thereby establishing an important connection with French culture Drawing on James's famous analogy between the art of fiction and the art of the painter the book explores a possible link to the Impressionist painters associated with the literary circle mile Zola dominated It then turns to A New England Winter a tale about an American Impressionist painter and finds traces leading back to James's initiation pr miere The book closes with an exploration of the possible sources of Kate Croy's unspeakable father in The Wings of the Dove and proposes a possible intertext one that provides direct insight into the Victorian closet      Impressions of the West and South During a Six Weeks'holiday. [By W. K., I.e. William Kingsford.] W. K., 1858      Alan Flattmann's French Quarter Impressions John R. Kemp, Alan Flattmann, 2002-01-01 Alan Flattmann's French Quarter Impressions includes a foreword by E John Bullard the Montine McDaniel Freeman Director of the New Orleans Museum of Art as well as more than 120 color images portraying everything from the French Market to St Louis Cathedral The author provides an in depth look at Alan Flattmann's work artistic career and his interpretation of the world around him through art It also includes an introduction describing the French Quarter from the people and architecture to the unique mood as well as an historical essay on the famous New Orleans neighborhood      Impressions of Old New Orleans Arnold Genthe, 1926      Impressions of America Ralph A. Brown, Marian R. Brown, 1966 A collection of 100 articles on America by foreign observers      Priced Catalogue of Selected Specimens Coins and Medals Bangs & Co, 1863      A Documentary History of Slavery in North America Willie Lee Nichols Rose, 1999 Documenting multiple aspects of slavery and its development in North America this collection provides more than one hundred excerpts from personal accounts songs legal documents diaries letters and other written sources The book assembles a remarkable portrayal of the day to day connections between and among slaves and their owners across more than two centuries of subjugation and resistance despair and hope Beginning with a chronicle of the origins of slavery in the British colonies of North America the collection traces the growth of the system to the antebellum period and includes accounts of slave revolts auctions slave travel and laws and family life Intimate as well as comprehensive the documents reveal the individual views goals and lives of slaves and their masters making this engaging work one of the most respected catalogs of firsthand information about slavery in North America A Lasting Impression Tamera Alexander,2011-11 After an unwanted past Claire strives to create something that will last as an artist among Nashville s elite society in the 1860s

Grass Lark Elizabeth Stevenson,2020-03-12 It is remarkable how persistent a minor writer may be He may lack the large vision and universal message of the great writer but instead possess a clear true intense view of particular places peoples and situations that renders hi work unique and irreplaceable Lafcadio Hearn 1850 1904 is such a figure in American literature Best known as a scholar of Japanese culture Hearn was a remarkable journalist translator travel writer and perhaps second only to Poe in the literature of the macabre and supernatural Hearn s life as strange and colorful as his work is brilliantly recounted in Elizabeth Stevenson s sensitive and sympathetic biography The range of Hearn s writing is reflected in the peripatetic course of his life The son of an Irish father and a Greek mother he was born on the Ionian island of Leucadia was raised in Dublin and came to America at the age of nineteen His early career was spent as a journalist Without a trace of condescension or pity he entered into the lives of the dock workers of Cincinnati the Creoles of New Orleans and Martinique and later the common villagers of Japan describing how they lived and worked and what they believed Elizabeth Stevenson s book is as much about the writer as the man While giving an accurate measure of the scale of Hearn s achievement she makes a compelling case for its artistry Her reading demonstrates that his writings are not mere aids to the understanding of various cultures but ends in themselves Hearn did not just translate the folklore of other cultures he recreated it The Grass Lark will interest literary scholars American studies specialists and folklorists Investigation of the Assassination of

Provincialism Bill Hardwig,2013-04-15 Drawing on tourist literature travelogues and local color fiction about the South Bill Hardwig tracks the ways in which the nation s leading interdisciplinary periodicals especially the Atlantic Monthly Harper s and the Century translated and broadcast the predominant narratives about the late nineteenth century South In many ways he attests the national representation of the South was controlled more firmly by periodical editors working in the Northeast such as William Dean Howells Thomas Bailey Aldrich and Richard Watson Gilder than by writers living in and writing about the region Fears about national unity immigration industrialization and racial dynamics in the South could be explored through the safe and displaced realm of a regional literature that was often seen as mere entertainment or as a picturesque depiction of quaint rural life The author examines in depth the short work of George Washington Cable Charles Chesnutt

Alice Dunbar Nelson Lafcadio Hearn Mary Noailles Murfree and Thomas Nelson Page in the context of the larger periodical investment in the South Arguing that this local color fiction calls into question some of the lines of demarcation within U S and southern literary and cultural studies especially those offered by identity based models Hardwig returns these writers to the dynamic cultural exchanges within local color fiction from which they initially emerged Editor & Publisher ,1926 The fourth estate President John F.
