New Maladies Of The Soul:

New Maladies of the Soul Julia Kristeva, 1995 Drawing on the work of psychologist Helene Deutsch and the writer Germaine de Stael Kristeva turns her attention in the second half of New Maladies of the Soul to women's experience and contributions within the broader context of contemporary history Delving into art literature autobiography and theories of language she continues with an exploration of cultural products ranging from the Bible to the work of Leonardo da Vinci

New Maladies of the Soul Julia Kristeva, 2024-05-21 Drawing on her many years of experience as a practicing psychoanalyst Kristeva reveals to readers a new kind of patient symptomatic of an age of political upheaval mass mediated culture and the dramatic overhaul of familial and sexual mores Julia Kristeva, Interviews Julia Kristeva, 1996 This is a collection of 22 never before translated interviews and one personal essay by Julia Kristeva Kristeva's in depth discussions with major figures in contemporary arts and letters cover topics as diverse as the American literary academy fiction writing and issues in neuroscience The Portable Kristeva Julia Kristeva, 2002 As a linguist Julia Kristeva has pioneered a revolutionary theory of the sign in its relation to social and political emancipation as a practicing psychoanalyst she has produced work on the nature of the human subject and sexuality and on the new maladies of today's neurotic The Portable Kristeva is the only fully comprehensive compilation of Kristeva's key writings The second edition includes added material from Kristeva's most important works of the past five years including The Sense and Non Sense of Revolt Intimate Revolt and Hannah Arendt Editor Kelly Oliver has also added new material to the introduction summarizing Kristeva's latest intellectual endeavors and updating the bibliography The Highway of Despair Robyn Marasco, 2015-03-24 Hegel's highway of despair introduced in his Phenomenology of Spirit is the tortured path traveled by natural consciousness on its way to freedom Despair the passionate residue of Hegelian critique also indicates fugitive opportunities for freedom and preserves the principle of hope against all hope Analyzing the works of an eclectic cast of thinkers Robyn Marasco considers the dynamism of despair as a critical passion reckoning with the forms of historical life forged along Hegel's highway The Highway of Despair follows Theodor Adorno Georges Bataille and Frantz Fanon as they each read resist and reconfigure a strand of thought in Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit Confronting the twentieth century collapse of a certain revolutionary dialectic these thinkers struggle to revalue critical philosophy and recast Left Hegelianism within the contexts of genocidal racism world war and colonial domination Each thinker also re-centers the role of passion in critique Arguing against more recent trends in critical theory that promise an escape from despair Marasco shows how passion frustrates the resolutions of reason and faith Embracing the extremism of what Marx in the spirit of Hegel called the ruthless critique of everything existing she affirms the contemporary purchase of radical critical theory resulting in a passionate approach to political thought Reinventing the Soul Mari Ruti, 2020-10-20 Essential reading for scholars and students in critical theory psychoanalysis and gender studies How does the self care for itself in the posthumanist era What psychic processes might allow the postmodern subject to find meaning and value in its life Is it possible to delineate a theory of psychic potentiality that is compatible with poststructuralist models of fluid decentered and polyvalent subjectivity Reinventing the Soul offers a new perspective on what it means to be a human being and to strive in the world despite the wounding effects of the socialization process Drawing on the rich legacies of French poststructuralism and Lacanian psychoanalysis Ruti builds an affirmative alternative to the post Foucaultian tendency to envision subjectivity as a function of hegemonic systems of power She proposes that the subject's encounter with the world also necessarily activates the psyche's innovative potential By focusing on matters of creative agency imaginative empowerment inner metamorphosis and self actualization Ruti outlines some of the mechanisms by which the psyche manages not only to survive its lack alienation or suffering but also to transform its abjection into an existentially livable reality Central to Ruti's argument is the idea that human beings relate to the world in active rather than merely passive ways as dynamic creators of meaning rather than as powerless dupes of disciplinary power

Poststructuralist Agency Gavin Rae, 2020-02-14 Gavin Rae shows that the problematic status of agency caused by the poststructuralist decentring of the subject is a central concern for poststructuralist thinkers He shows how this plays out in the thinking of Deleuze Derrida and Foucault and find the best explanation of agency for the founded subject in the work of Castoriadis

Kristeva's work In an original and insightful analysis Keltner presents Kristeva's thought as the coherent development and elaboration of a complex multidimensional threshold constitutive of meaning and subjectivity The threshold indicates Kristeva's primary sphere of concern the relationship between the speaking being and its particular social and historical conditions and Kristeva's interdisciplinary approach Kristeva's vision Keltner argues opens a unique perspective within contemporary discourses attentive to issues of meaning subjectivity and social and political life By emphasizing Kristeva's attention to the permeable borders of psychic and social life Keltner offers innovative readings of the concepts most widely discussed in Kristeva scholarship the semiotic and symbolic abjection love and loss She also provides new interpretations of some of the most controversial issues surrounding Kristeva's work including Kristeva's conceptions of intimacy social and cultural difference and Oedipal subjectivity by contextualizing them within her methodological approach and oeuvre as a whole Julia Kristeva Thresholds is an engaging and accessible introduction to Kristeva's theoretical and fictional works that will be of interest to both students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences The Stranger's Voice Carol L. Schnabl Schweitzer, 2010 especially those who have sensed that the denial of the mother's voice has played a critical role in their own self alienation and its melancholy moods will discover that this book has much to offer them as well Donald Capps Princeton Theological Seminary Book Jacket The Metaphysics of Night Matthew Del Nevo, 2017-09-08 The Metaphysics of Night acknowledges a post secular philosophy one that puts philosophy into serious dialogue with religion rather than considering religion a thing of the past Matthew Del Nevo deals with the cultural unconscious inseparable from religious consciousness and draws on psychoanalysis and literature as well as philosophy The metaphysics of the night is Del Nevo's metaphor for the deep and mysterious expanse of the soul Philosophically the book is critical of Enlightenment presumptions about knowledge and truth and overly spiritualizing tendencies in religion Its critical edge cuts against materialist and historicist tendencies in the humanities and abstract intellectualism in philosophy Arguing for strong aesthetic values Del Nevo defends and explains soul and soulful experience the creation of depth the ineffable real presence beauty and saving words noting that the sources of all these are in us but often are blocked Each of the five parts of this book testify to what the author notes may be forgotten but which ought not to be forgotten It is necessary for life as socially religiously and educationally instituted within culture and as constitutive for culture Del Nevo deals with sensibility as a form of wisdom and instinct that is not cognitive or knowledge information based He argues for a shift of emphasis in culture from intellect to intuition This well written work filled with Catholic philosophic and artistic thought will be of interest to all philosophers theologians and students of culture The Future of Values Jérôme Bindé, 2004-09 This volume brings together about 50 scientists and researchers from the four corners of the world to redefine and anticipate tomorrow's values and reflect on the direction these values may lead humanity Publisher's description The Politics to Come Arthur Bradley, Paul Fletcher, 2010-02-18 The Politics to Come brings together an international collection of thinkers to consider the meaning of liberal democratic modernity at a moment when its future has never been less certain It examines the explosive threats the liberal order confronts today financial meltdown religious extremism environmental catastrophe Yet it also seeks to place these singularly modern crises within a much longer history For the contributors to this collection it is the ancient religious tradition called the messianic that provides the critical lens through which modernity may be interrogated In its ongoing struggles with the messianic liberal modernity confronts the promise and threat of a radically new Politics to Come So what are the Politics to Come How do they manifest themselves throughout history Why does the possibility of a messianic judgement continue to haunt the western political imaginary This collection offers a series of political philosophical and theological perspectives from which the future of liberal modernity if it has one can be imagined Julia Kristeva Noëlle McAfee, 2004 One of the most original thinkers of the twentieth century Julia Kristeva has been driving forward the fields of literary and cultural studies since the 1960s This volume is an accessible introductory guide to the main themes of Kristeva's work including her ideas on semiotics and symbolism abjection melancholia feminism revolt McAfee provides clear explanations of the more difficult aspects of Kristeva's theories helpfully placing her ideas in the relevant theoretical context be it literary theory psychoanalysis linguistics gender studies or philosophy and demonstrates the impact of her critical interventions in these areas Julia Kristeva is the essential guide for readers who are approaching the work of this challenging thinker for the first time and provides the ideal opportunity for those with more knowledge to re-familiarise themselves with Kristeva's key terms

Head Cases Elaine Miller, 2014-02-25 While philosophy and psychoanalysis privilege language and conceptual distinctions and mistrust the image the philosopher and psychoanalyst Julia Kristeva recognizes the power of art and the imagination to unblock important sources of meaning She also appreciates the process through which creative acts counteract and transform feelings of violence and depression Reviewing Kristeva's corpus Elaine P Miller considers the intellectual's aesthetic idea and thought specular in their capacity to reshape depressive thought on both the individual and cultural level She revisits Kristeva's reading of Walter Benjamin with reference to melancholic art and the imagination's allegorical structure her analysis of Byzantine iconoclasm in relation to Freud's psychoanalytic theory of negation and Hegel's dialectical negativity her understanding of Proust as an exemplary practitioner of sublimation her rereading of Kant and Arendt in terms of art as an intentional lingering with foreignness and her argument that forgiveness is both a philosophical and psychoanalytic method of transcending a stuck existence Focusing on specific artworks that illustrate Kristeva's ideas from ancient Greek tragedy to early photography contemporary installation art and film Miller positions creative acts as a form of spiritual inoculation against the violence of our society and its discouragement of thought and reflection
