reading circles and for how we understand the novel reading experience more broadly Computerworld ,1997-11-03 For more than 40 years Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide Computerworld's award winning Web site Computerworld.com twice monthly publication focused conference series and custom research form the hub of the world's largest global IT media network Sybase 15.0 Replication Server Administration Saroj Kapoor Bagai,Jagan Bandi Reddy,Jeff Tallman,2008-12-08 Oracle8i Backup & Recovery Rama Velpuri,Anand Adkoli,2000-12-05 Includes information that every Oracle administrator and programmer must know to maximize uptime and recover data without compromising mission critical systems Computing and Combinatorics Dachuan Xu,Donglei Du,Dingzhu Du,2015-06-23 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 21st International Conference on Computing and Combinatorics COCOON 2015 held in Beijing China in August 2015 The 49 revised full papers and 11 shorter papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from various submissions The papers cover various topics including algorithms and data structures algorithmic game theory approximation algorithms and online algorithms automata languages logic and computability complexity theory computational learning theory cryptography reliability and security database theory computational biology and bioinformatics computational algebra geometry number theory graph drawing and information visualization graph theory communication networks optimization and parallel and distributed computing Animals and Science Fiction Nora Castle,Giulia Champion,2024-03-22 Animals and Science Fiction is the first edited collection to be published focusing on the intersection of animal studies and science fiction studies It offers a broad range of theoretical approaches and primary source texts including novels short stories poetry film and TV photography erotica video games and urban planning documents that explore the ways works of science fiction can transform how we see and interact with nonhuman others With an eye toward more just multispecies futures it argues that speculative imaginaries can be pivotal in changing attitudes toward and understandings of nonhuman animals in our world today Chapters appeal to those interested in biopolitics posthumanism new materialism ecocriticism and the environmental humanities ocean humanities postcolonial studies critical race studies Indigenous studies global sf studies film studies and food studies Taken together the collection works to showcase a diverse and growing field of scholarly inquiry into animals and science fiction Encyclopedia of Computer Science and Technology Harry Henderson,2009 Presents an illustrated A Z encyclopedia containing approximately 600 entries on computer and technology related topics Electronic Monuments Gregory L. Ulmer,2005 While corporations governmental groups and public relations firms debated the best way to memorialize the event of 9 11 sites of commemoration could be seen across the country and especially on the Internet Greg Ulmer suggests that this reality points us to a new sense of monumentality one that is collaborative in nature rather than iconic From a do it yourself Mount Rushmore to an automated tribute to the devastating annual toll of traffic deaths in the United States Electronic Monuments describes commemoration as a fundamental experience joining individual and collective identity and adapting both to the emerging apparatus of electracy or digital literacy Concerns about the destruction of civic life caused by the society of the spectacle are refocused on the question of how a collectivity remembers who or what it is Ulmer proposes that the Internet makes it possible for monumentality to become a primary site of self knowledge one that supports a new politics ethics and dimension of education The Internet thus holds the promise of bringing citizens back into the political equation as witnesses and monitors Gregory L Ulmer is professor of English and media studies at the University of Florida Gainesville
