Advertising and the Transformation of Screen Cultures Bo Florin, Patrick Vonderau, Yvonne Zimmermann, 2025-10-01
Advertising has played a central role in shaping the history of modern media While often identified with American consumerism and the rise of the Information Society motion picture advertising has been part of European visual culture since the late nineteenth century With the global spread of ad agencies moving image advertisements became a privileged cultural form to make people experience the qualities and uses of branded commodities to articulate visions of a good life and to incite social relationships Abandoning a conventional delineation of fields by medium country or period this book suggests a lateral view It charts the audiovisual history of advertising by focussing on objects products and services screens exhibition programming physical media practices production marketing and intermediaries ad agencies In this way the book develops new historical methodological and theoretical perspectives
