Online Theology Mirror Scripture Evangelical Christian:

Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship

The Influence of the Doctrine of Scripture Anna Hutchinson, 2024-02-21 All over the UK Evangelical Anglicans read and study the Bible in churches and in homes in groups and as individuals They do this because they believe the Bible is God's word a collection of texts that is authoritative inspired consistent clear and sufficient But what does this mean for the way the Bible is read Should the Bible always be read as historically accurate As theologically accurate As relevant for today In other words how do the beliefs that such readers have about the nature of the Bible affect the way that they interpret and the conclusions that they come to To answer these questions Anna Hutchinson conducted field work analysing Evangelical Anglicans as they study the Bible Utilizing qualitative methodology she argues that the doctrine of Scripture is often narrowly conceived amongst Evangelical Anglicans such that its influence in interpretation is often qualified and overshadowed by various factors including beliefs about God genre and personal experience

The Museum of the Bible Cavan Concannon, Jill Hicks-Keeton, 2019-06-21 Bringing together nationally and internationally known scholars The Museum of the Bible A Critical Introduction analyzes the Museum of the Bible in Washington D C from a variety of perspectives and disciplinary positions including biblical studies history archaeology Judaic studies and religion and public life The Museum of the Bible is poised to wield unparalleled influence on the national popular imagination of the Bible's contents history and uses through time This volume provides critical tools by which a broad public of scholars and students alike can assess the Museum of the Bible's presentation of its vast collection and wrestle with the thorny interpretive issues and complex histories that are at risk of being obscured when private funds put a major museum near the National Mall

Religion Online August E. Grant, Amanda F. C. Sturgill, Chiung Hwang Chen, Daniel A. Stout, 2019-03-07 Religion Online provides new insights about religiosity in a contemporary context offering a comprehensive look at the intersection of digital media faith communities and practices of all sorts Recent research on Apple users video games virtual worlds artificial intelligence digital music and sports as religion supports the idea that media and religion once considered separate entities are in many cases the same thing New media and religious practice can no longer be detached this two volume set discusses how religionists are embracing the Internet amidst cultural shifts of secularization autonomous religious worship millennials affinity for new media and the rise of fundamentalism in the global south While other works describe case studies this book explains how new media are interwoven into the very fabric of religious belief behavior and community Chapters break down the past present and projected future of the use of digital media in relation to faith traditions of many varieties extending from mainline Christianity to new religious movements The book also examines the impacts of digital media on beliefs and practices around the world In exploring these subjects it calls on the study of culture namely anthropology to conceptualize a technological period as significant as the industrial revolution SCM Core Text: Christian Doctrine Mike

Higton,2013-01-25 The SCM Core Text Christian Doctrine offers an up to date accessible introduction to one of the core subjects of theology Written for second and third year university students it shows that Christian Doctrine is not a series of impossible claims to be clung to with blind faith Mike Higton argues that it is rather a set of claims that emerge in the midst of Christian life as Christian communities try to make enough sense of their lives and of their world to allow them to carry on Christian communities have made sense of their own life and the life of the wider world in which they are set as life created by God to share in God s own life They have seen themselves and their world as laid hold of God s life in Jesus of Nazareth and as having the Spirit of God s own life actively at work within them This book explores these and other central Christian doctrines and in each case shows how the doctrine makes sense and how it is woven into Christian life It will help readers to see what sense it might make to say the things that Christian doctrine says and how that doctrine might affect the way that one looks at everything the natural world gossip culture speaking in tongues politics dieting human freedom love High Noon justice computers racism the novels of Jane Austin parenthood death and fashion A Kairos Moment for Caribbean

Theology Garnett Roper,J. Richard Middleton,2013-08-12 The project of developing a contextual theology for the Caribbean was first articulated in the early 1970s in Trinidad and Jamaica In the years since many evangelical churches and theologians in the Caribbean have been ambivalent about the validity of this project assuming that an emphasis on context was somehow antithetical to the pure gospel But the crisis of the times along with a more mature hermeneutic has led to a re evaluation of this assumption Here a group of evangelical Caribbean theologians enter the discussion with substantive proposals for how the gospel addresses the Caribbean context They are joined by other theologians from mainline Protestant and Catholic traditions in the Caribbean The result is an ecumenical dialogue on the diverse ways in which orthodox Christian faith may provide both challenge and hope for the Caribbean context Half the essays in this volume were originally presented at the Forum on Caribbean Theology held in 2010 at the Jamaica Theological Seminary the rest were invited especially for this volume Paul's Spirituality in Galatians P. Adam McClendon,2015-03-25 Spirituality is a hot topic in today s culture

Spirituality is essentially how one s beliefs and experiences influence the way one lives their life Such influences for living are of critical importance to one s faith within the Christian community What role does the Bible play in developing an expressed spirituality among the Christian community How do one s religious traditions cultural influences and personal preferences influence the way Christian spirituality is perceived and expressed All too often and at times unintentionally the foundational truths of the Bible are subordinated to tradition culture and personal preference This book provides a context for understanding Paul s foundational components for Christian spirituality within the book of Galatians while showing how an accurate understanding of these components can and should serve as a corrective lens to various aspects of Christian spirituality as expressed and experienced today     Losing Our Religion Christel J. Manning, 2015-11-20 Examines how Religious Nones negotiate tensions with those who think they ought to provide their children with a religious upbringing The fastest growing religion in America is none One fifth of Americans now list their religion as none up from only 7 percent two decades ago Among adults under 30 those poised to be the parents of the next generation fully one third are religiously unaffiliated Yet these Nones especially parents still face prejudice in a culture where religion is widely seen as good for your kids What do Nones believe and how do they negotiate tensions with those convinced that they ought to provide their children with a religious upbringing Drawing on survey data and in depth personal interviews with religiously unaffiliated parents across the country Christel Manning provides important demographic data on American Nones and offers critical nuance to our understanding of the term She shows that context is crucial in understanding how those without religious ties define themselves and raise their families Indeed she demonstrates that Nones hold a wide variety of worldviews ranging from deeply religious to highly secular and transmit them in diverse ways What ties them all together is a commitment to spiritual choice a belief in the moral equivalence of religions and secular worldviews and in the individual's right to choose and it is that choice they seek to pass on to their children The volume weaves in stories from the author's interviews throughout showing how non religious parents grapple with pressure from their community and how they think about religious issues Engagingly written and thoroughly researched Losing Our Religion will appeal to scholars parents and anyone interested in understanding the changing American religious landscape     Sit on Our Hands, or Stand on Our Feet? Roger Philip Abbott, 2013-01-07 The aim of Sit on Our Hands or Stand on Our Feet is not to present a theology that explains disasters In fact there is no such theology Nor is this work primarily for those who are responded to it is not part of the theological grab bag that Christian responders carry with them to use for the benefit of casualties It is more a part of the Christian's engaged practical theological apprenticeship prior to and during a response This book represents the role of the practical theologian who empowers the church community's legitimation and contribution in disaster response and who encourages individual Christians whose calling into particularly relevant professions whose natural skills and or professional training could find them placed in a major incident responding status paid or voluntary doing their work as unto the Lord It is a serious must read for any Christians who have hearts heavy with compassion but who are not sure what to do or why when disaster strikes     Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange, 2015-02-03 The reality of the West's post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is alive and well then so too is society's sacralization Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions 2004 Writer's Market Online Kathryn Struckel Brogan, Robert Lee Brewer, 2003 This resource provides all the benefits of the Writer's Market book plus a yearlong subscription to an updated Web site with all the relevant information writers need When Collaboration Mirrors the Trinity Avery Stafford, 2021-11-30 That they all may be one was Jesus first century prayer With mind and emotions set towards Golgotha he poured out his heart to the Father But what is our twenty first century reality Local churches are siloed Pastors do not know one another and rarely work together Christians drive by church buildings on their way to Sunday worship and seldom pray for one another Vitriolic disunity spews across social media in front of an onlooking world Our culture sees our fractured reality and increasingly dismisses Christianity as a viable option for their lives And it is time for believers to recognize that it is our fault But there is hope When Collaboration Mirrors the Trinity is a timely invitation for local churches to make the practice of unity our new normal Avery Stafford presents a biblical model to actualize this invitation He details four rhythms that mirror the loving community of the Triune God Each one can help pastors lay leaders and faith communities deepen their resolve to bless the world through effective gospel partnerships This work is a bold call for believers to discover an untapped resource for the gospel the believers who attend other churches in their city Traditional Worship in Russian-speaking Churches Leonid Mikhovich, 2025-02-28 There is an acute lack of a theology of worship in Baptist Russian speaking contexts with the ramifications of the Tsarist and later Soviet persecution limiting its development even to this day While there is now opportunity to do so developing a theology of worship in the local context is imperative Filling this gap Dr Leonid Mikhovich considers the historical religious and political contexts that have influenced Russian speaking worship Drawing examples from the Baptist movement in Belarus Dr Mikhovich analyzes its various influences and explores conflict arising between local and foreign traditions within the process of adopting some Western structures for the Eastern situation The results prompt reflection on the different expressions of worship and the underlying convictions present in respective cultural contexts while also offering counsel for dealing with tensions between liturgical practices and authoritative voices in the Baptist tradition As the first of its kind worship and church history scholars will find this comprehensive study into traditional Russian speaking worship invaluable for understanding its historical theological and cultural perspectives and essential for mapping its future Transforming Faith Communities Michael I. Bochenski, 2013-03-14 Transforming Faith Communities argues for a model of being church that combines congregationalism with a constructive approach to church state relationships Congregationalism within a vision for a renewed Christendom is commended here as a viable option for Christian mission in the twenty first century world In making this case two movements are explored those inspired by sixteenth century Anabaptism and late twentieth century Latin American liberation theology Each movement is held up as a mirror to the other A continuing vision for the transformation of church and society emerges from this book as a number of contemporary resonances begin to sound These include an outline of some likely common features in the development of radical religious communities an examination of some of the factors that create world affirming Christian faith communities and many examples of effective and constructive engagement with church and society across the centuries The Digital Evangelicals Travis Warren Cooper,2022-08-02 When it comes to evangelical Christianity the internet is both a refuge and a threat It hosts Zoom prayer groups and pornographic videos religious revolutions and silly cat videos Platforms such as social media podcasts blogs and digital Bibles all constitute new arenas for debate about social and religious boundaries theological and ecclesial orthodoxy and the internet s inherent danger and value In The Digital Evangelicals Travis Warren Cooper locates evangelicalism as a media event rather than as a coherent religious tradition by focusing on the intertwined narratives of evangelical Christianity and emerging digital culture in the United States He focuses on two dominant media traditions media sincerity immediate and direct interpersonal communication and media promiscuity communication with the primary goal of extending the Christian community regardless of physical distance Cooper whose work is informed by ethnographic fieldwork traces these conflicting paradigms from the Protestant Reformation through the rise of the digital and argues that the tension is culminating in a crisis of evangelical authority What counts as authentic interaction Who has authority over the circulation of information While many studies claim that technology influences religion The Digital Evangelicals reveals how Protestant metaphors and discourses shaped the emergence of the internet and explores what this relationship with global new media means for evangelicalism Digital Religion Heidi A. Campbell,Ruth Tsuria,2021-09-30 This book offers a critical and systematic survey of the study of religion and digital media It covers religious engagement with a wide range of digital media forms and highlights examples of new media engagement in all five of the major world religions From mobile apps and video games to virtual reality and social media the book provides a detailed review of major topics including ritual identity community authority and embodiment includes a series of engaging case studies to illustrate and elucidate the thematic explorations considers the theoretical ethical and theological issues raised This unique volume draws together the work of experts from key disciplinary perspectives and is the go to volume for students and scholars wanting to develop a deeper understanding of the subject area Thoroughly updated throughout with new case studies and in depth analysis of recent scholarship and developments this new edition provides a comprehensive overview of this fast paced constantly developing and fascinating field Vatican II William Madges,2011-09-22 Original essays explore the effects and influences of the Second Vatican Council particularly on its understanding of church engagement with the modern world and encounters with other religions Contributors include Philip A Franco St John s University New York Peter C Phan Georgetown University Christopher D Denny St John s University New York Harriet A Luckman College of Mount Saint Joseph Alice L Laffey College of the Holy Cross Francis Holland St John s University New

York Jason King St Vincent College William French Loyola University Chicago Christine Firer Hinze Marquette University Victor Lee Austin Saint Thomas Church New York John Sniegocki Xavier University Elaine Catherine MacMillan University of San Diego Paul F Knitter Xavier University Reid B Locklin St Michael s College University of Toronto Elena G Procario Foley Iona College Phillip Luke Sinitiere University of Houston      Converting Britannia Gareth Atkins,2019 A compelling study of Anglican Evangelicalism in the Age of Wilberforce revealing its potency as a political machine whose reach extended into every area of the British establishment and its nascent Empire      Christian Heroes Dave Jackson,Neta Jackson,2004-10 Readers will discover the remarkable stories of those who have suffered for the cause of Christ throughout the course of history This volume reveals what inspired the great heroes of faith and drove them to give their all      Hollywood Biblical Epics Richard Lindsay,2015-06-19 This is the only book of its kind to explore biblical epics from an LGBT perspective studying films from the silent era to the postwar major studio era to the present day In spite of restrictive Hollywood censorship regulations filmmakers throughout history have pushed the boundaries of sex and violence when making religious films In this unrivaled text author and educator Richard Lindsay analyzes the relationship between bible based epics and camp films with overwrought acting casts of thousands and exotic sexuality Lindsay presents the ways in which camp style identifies films as biblical in the mainstream imagination while undermining their traditional religious messages through the inclusion of sexually diverse subtexts Viewed through this lens this provocative book explores topics like the Jazz Age excesses of The King of Kings the pre code decadence of The Sign of the Cross the horror movie tropes of The Passion of the Christ and comparisons between Ben Hur and the gay male fantasies of 1960s beefcake magazines Additional content features the history of biblical epics and a comparison of the pious expectations of filmgoers against the real content of the films
