New Approaches Towards the 'Good Life' Hans-Uwe Otto,Sabine Schäfer,2014-08-13 The Capability Approach founded by Armatya Sen and Martha Nussbaum offers a justicebased analytical framework for human development The contributions to the present volume show how the Capability Approach can be applied productively in empirical analyses of the life situations of young people and the educational institutions they attend in different parts of the world including Serbia Kosovo Kenya India Greece and Germany Moreover the volume helps to extend the Capability Approach by relating it to different theoretical and methodological approaches such as the capability concept of Paul Ricoeur critical materialism critical discourse analysis and biographical research Thus the volume delivers comprehensive insights into the social injustices to be found not only on the level of individual life paths but also in institutions and in educational policy while showing innovative ways of applying the Capability Approach in the social sciences Connecting Kids to History with Museum Exhibitions D. Lynn McRaine, John Russick, 2010 D Lynn McRaine and John Russick bring together top museum professionals to present state of the art research and practice that respects and incorporates kids developmental stages and learning preferences and the specific ways in which kids connect to history They provide concrete tools for audience research and evaluation exhibition development and design and working with kids as creative consultants from publisher description Understanding Child Development Charlesworth, 1995-01-01 Teaching Children Mathematics , 2004 Resources in Education , 1998
