The Only Grant-Writing Book You'll Ever Need Ellen Karsh,Arlen Sue Fox,2003-07-09 The competition for government and foundation grants is steeper than ever in this post 9 11 environment of urgent monetary need For everyone who has to raise money through grants for every type of organization and government agency comes a book that details winning strategies for developing grant proposals from authors who know where the money is and know how to get it The authors frame writing the grant proposal as the final not too difficult step in a comprehensive and methodical process From the first step of determining what kinds of funding are most appropriate they show readers how to identify a compelling need analyze the effectiveness of existing programs to address that issue and develop one or more of these existing programs or create an innovative one that will indeed have an impact Along the way they explain how to build a coalition when it is needed to implement the program efficiently The grant application becomes a showcase for readers organization well designed programs and dedicated partners

Summary of Ellen Karsh's The Only Grant-Writing Book You'll Ever Need Everest Media,2022-03-27T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 Grants are hot right now but they are also extremely misunderstood People think that all you need to do to get grant money is to incorporate as a not for profit organization and wait for money to fall out of the sky 2 The world of grants is not like the lottery You have to be in it to win it but you also have to represent yourself and your organization in the best possible light If you can't do that then do not apply 3 The US Department of Education has funded parent centers in schools for more than 20 years These centers are supposed to be developed and run by parents but the types of activities available to parents are chosen by the Department of Education 4 There are three types of organizations grassroots small and large The kind of work you want to do and the size of your organization will determine where you should look for funding
