Transforming Family Jocelyn Frelier, 2022-11 One of the lasting legacies of colonialism is the assumption that families should conform to a kinship arrangement built on normative nuclear individuality based models An alternate understanding of familial aspiration is one cultivated across national borders and cultures and beyond the constraints of diasporas This alternate understanding which imagines a category of trans families relies on decolonial and queer intellectual thought to mobilize or transform power across borders In Transforming Family Jocelyn Frelier examines a selection of novels penned by francophone authors in France Morocco and Algeria including Azouz Begag Nina Bouraoui Fouad Laroui Le la Sebbar Le la Slimani and Abdellah Ta a Each novel contributes a unique argument about this alternate understanding of family questioning how family relates to race gender class embodiment and intersectionality Arguing that trans families are always already queer Frelier opens up new spaces of agency for both family units and individuals who seek representation and fulfilling futures The novels analyzed in Transforming Family as well as the families they depict resist classification and delink the legacies of colonialism from contemporary modes of being As a result these novels create trans identities for their protagonists and contribute to a scholarly understanding of the becoming trans of cultural production As international political debates related to migration the family unit and the global migrant crisis surge Frelier destabilizes governmental criteria for the regrouping of families by turning to a set of definitions found in the cultural production of members of the francophone North African diaspora

New Maternalisms: Tales of Motherwork (dislodging the Unthinkable) Roksana Badruddoja, 2016-04-01 New Maternalisms Tales of Motherwork Dislodging the Unthinkable explores the perceptions of those who engage in and or research motherwork or the labour of caregiving and how mothers view themselves in comparison to broader normative understandings of motherwork. Here the anthology serves to deconstruct motherwork by highlighting and dislodging it from maternal ideology, the socially constructed good mom read as sacrificial mom and feminized hegemonic discourse. The objective of the edited volume then is to critically explore how we experience motherwork, what motherwork might mean and how motherwork impacts and is impacted by the communities in which we live. Such an examination involves contesting dominant ways of thinking about motherwork.
