a personal journey of grief and healing Hope Edelman shared her journey in Motherless Daughters afterward she received letters from motherless women all over the world who felt compelled to share their own stories of mother loss Comforted by the shared experiences that appeared in the book they wanted to hear more from women like them Letters from Motherless Daughters was created to fulfill that request and now in this updated edition Hope compiles letters received over the two thirteen to seventy eight share their journeys of mourning and regeneration Beginning with the initial period of adjustment and acceptance covering the first years after a mother s death and describing lives shaped by loss more than twenty years later these letters reflect the challenges and triumphs motherless girls and women face over time The words of these brave women illustrate the profound pain astounding strength and personal growth inherent in living through the loss of a mother without ever outliving the need for her
