'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P. Liao, 2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9/11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9/11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9/11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9/11 South Asian diasporic fictions

Flat Aesthetics Christian Moraru, 2022-12-15 Flat Aesthetics seeks to secure a more granular and ontologically demotic handle on the contemporary in American literature While contemporaneity can be viewed as our period Christian Moraru approaches the contemporary as some thing made by things themselves The making of the contemporary is variously restaged by the body of fictional prose under scrutiny here Thus this corpus itself participates in the making of contemporaneity In dialogue with object oriented ontology and various new materialisms Moraru contends that the contemporary does not preexist objects or the novels featuring them it is not their background but an outcome of things self presentation As objects beings or existents present themselves in the present in our now they foster thing configurations that together compose the form of and essentially make the contemporary the present s cultural material signature as Moraru calls it To decipher this signature Flat Aesthetics provides a cross sectional reading of postmillennial American fiction Discussed are solely post 2000 works by writers who have also established themselves over the past two decades or so from Nicole Krauss Michael Chabon and Ben Lerner to Colson Whitehead and Emily St John Mandel Their output Moraru claims bears witness to the onset of a flat aesthetics in American letters after September 11 2001 Organized into five parts the books canvases objectual constellations of contemporaneity shaped by material dynamics of language museality and display spatiality zombification and thing rhetoric and post anthropocentric kinship

Herbert, 2012-02-07 The Reluctant Fundamentalist is more than the usual immigrant book of adaptation struggle and identity. It is the gripping tale of a young man who comes to America from Pakistan just prior to 9/11. The protagonist Changez is a Harvard-educated businessman who works for a high-profile company that assesses the economic value of other companies. Changez is very successful in his chosen career but then September 11 happens and everything changes. The setting is Lahore, Pakistan, and the tale is told by one narrator, that of Changez, as he speaks to a nameless and faceless American tourist. The narration takes place in the span of a single evening, in fact during a single meal, and Hamid manages to swing the reader on a pendulum of conflicting emotions and thoughts. The Bookclub in a Box guide explores a number of important questions: who is this nameless American and why is he in Pakistan? how can one person have equal love for two countries that are at odds with each other in culture and outlook? how does such a person come to terms with his two worlds and what is the significance of the word 'reluctant' in the novel's title? The Reluctant Fundamentalist. Every Bookclub in a Box discussion guide also includes complete coverage of the themes and symbols, writing style, and interesting background information on the novel and the author. Granta 122 John Freeman, 2013-01-17 In a world of the future, people exist in a perpetual state of rehearsing evacuations, and one man's rehearsal involves leaving his parents behind. A fire spotter knows all too well that where there's smoke, there's fire, but fails to spot the blaze that consumes half her family. Then there's the Custer impersonator who takes his role in a re-enactment too literally and too far. And the massage therapist struggling to help a veteran whose biggest regret is tattooed across his back. With award-winning reportage, memoir, fiction, and photography, Granta has illuminated the most complex issues of modern life through the refractory light of literature. Feel the sting of betrayal via new writing by Ben Marcus, Janine Di Giovanni, Samantha Harvey, Colin Robinson, Jennifer Vanderbes, Callan Wink, John Burnside, Andre Aciman, and more.
