integrate their historiography The essays in the volume retrieve and amplify voices of subaltern communities amid planetary crises especially in India to set up new paradigms to engage and tackle the climate crises that confront our times This volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian studies literary criticism especially ecocriticism environmental studies and climate action      Handbook of Ecocriticism and Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf, 2016-05-10

Ecocriticism has emerged as one of the most fascinating and rapidly growing fields of recent literary and cultural studies From its regional origins in late twentieth century Anglo American academia it has become a worldwide phenomenon which involves a decidedly transdisciplinary and transnational paradigm that promises to return a new sense of relevance to research and teaching in the humanities A distinctive feature of the present handbook in comparison with other survey volumes is the combination of ecocriticism with cultural ecology reflecting an emphasis on the cultural transformation of ecological processes and on the crucial role of literature art and other forms of cultural creativity for the evolution of societies towards sustainable futures In state of the art contributions by leading international scholars in the field this handbook maps some of the most important developments in contemporary ecocritical thought It introduces key theoretical concepts issues and directions of ecocriticism and cultural ecology and demonstrates their relevance for the analysis of texts and other cultural phenomena      Representing the Margin Ajay S. Sekher, 2008 The work explores the representation of socio cultural margins of caste and gender in Indian contexts in works of fiction written in various Indian languages in the twentieth century taking representative samples from Hindi Urdu Bengali Kannada Malayalam and English The focus of enquiry is the narrativization of these important cultural and political questions in representative texts of fiction What are the socio political and cultural implications and underpinnings of the representation of marginalization in the medium and genre of fiction what could be the politics ethics and aesthetics of such narrating how far such representations are subversive or consensual complicit what are the limitations and pitfalls of such intervening radicalism in fictional narration all these questions are taken up in detail in the analyses In the greater sense this study is also a critique of modernity and its discontents as it analyses the dialectics of modernity its radical as well as reactionary aspects A problematic premise of contextualizing the text and textualizing the context would also be prominent in the attempt Fictional texts from five Indian languages including English two texts from each language are incorporated in the study to ensure regional and linguistic representation within the limits of the availability of works in translation Questions of class analytical perspectives in the context of Brahmanic patriarchy are explicated and critiqued The need for a subaltern hermeneutics and the urgency of epistemological democratization are also discussed as a political and emancipatory outcome of the study Both the formal as well as thematic concerns of the novel in the Indian languages are found to be shaped and determined by the material realities and associated attitudes and worldviews of caste and gender hierarchy emanating from internal imperialism Though the ten texts chosen attempt intense critique of the gender question the more profound and specific cultural question of caste

evades comprehension and critical understanding Caste often escapes as the unrepresentable in narration as it is in conversion

Women and Nature? Douglas Vakoch, Sam Mickey, 2017-07-06 Women and Nature Beyond Dualism in Gender Body and Environment provides a historical context for understanding the contested relationships between women and nature and it articulates strategies for moving beyond the dualistic theories and practices that often frame those relationships In 1974 Fran oise d Eaubonne coined the term ecofeminism to raise awareness about interconnections between women's oppression and nature's domination in an attempt to liberate women and nature from subordination Since then ecofeminism has attracted scholars and activists from various disciplines and positions to assess the relationship between the cultural human and the natural non human through gender reconsiderations The contributors to this volume present critical and constructive perspectives on ecofeminism throughout its history from the beginnings of ecofeminism in the 1970s through to contemporary and emerging developments in the field drawing on animal studies postcolonialism film studies transgender studies and political ecology This interdisciplinary and international collection of essays demonstrates the ongoing relevance of ecofeminism as a way of understanding and responding to the complex interactions between genders bodies and the natural environment It will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecofeminism as well as those involved in environmental studies and gender studies more broadly

Ecologies of Gender Susanne Lettow, Sabine Nessel, 2022-03-30 Ecologies of Gender Contemporary Nature Relations and the Nonhuman Turn examines the role of gender in recent debates about the nonhuman turn in the humanities and critically explores the implications for a contemporary theory of gender and nature relations The interdisciplinary contributions in this volume each provides theoretical reflections based on an analysis of specific naturecultural processes They reveal how ecologies of gender are constructed through aesthetic epistemological political technological and economic practices that shape multispecies and material interrelations as well as spatial and temporal orderings The volume includes contributions from cultural anthropology cultural studies film studies literary studies media studies philosophy and theatre studies The essays are organized around four key dimensions of an ecological understanding of gender creatures materials spaces and temporalities The overall aim of the volume Ecologies of Gender Contemporary Nature Relations and the Nonhuman Turn is to explore the potentialities and limitations of the nonhuman turn for a critical analysis and theory of ecologies of gender and thereby make an original contribution to both the environmental humanities and gender studies This book will be of great interest to scholars and students from the interdisciplinary field of the environmental humanities and environmental studies more broadly as well as from gender studies and cultural theory

Development, Democracy and the State K. Ravi Raman, 2010-04-14 This book is the most comprehensive analysis of the Kerala Model of Social Development to date Using an interdisciplinary approach it sheds new light on the paradoxes of the Indian state and critiques its model of economic development

narratives from Kerala the south western state in India Introducing a detailed review of environmental literature in Malayalam the selected eco narratives are presented through two key literary genres life narratives and novels conveying the socio environmental pressures problems and anxieties of modern globalising Kerala This text also entails primary investigations of toxic fictions and extractivist fictions including Malayalam novels that narrate the disastrous consequences of the permeation of toxic pollutants in human and ecosystemic bodies and novels that chronicle the impact of exploitative mining activities on the environment All eco narratives analysed in the book exhibit the familiar pattern of the Global South environmental narratives namely a close imbrication of the ecological and social spheres Reading Contemporary Environmental Justice argues that these selected eco texts offer inspiring scenarios where the subaltern people show thantedam or courage to claim thante idam one s own space in society and on the Earth This volume will be essential for those looking to expand their understanding of environmental justice and the harmful effects of development and modernisation

Indigeneity and Legal Pluralism in India Pooja Parmar,2015-07-20 As calls for reparations to indigenous peoples grow on every continent issues around resource extraction and dispossession raise complex legal questions What do these disputes mean to those affected How do the narratives of indigenous people legal professionals and the media intersect In this richly layered and nuanced account Pooja Parmar focuses on indigeneity in the widely publicized controversy over a Coca Cola bottling facility in Kerala India Juxtaposing popular legal and Adivasi narratives Parmar examines how meanings are gained and lost through translation of complex claims into the languages of social movements and formal legal systems Included are perspectives of the diverse range of actors involved based on interviews with members of Adivasi communities social activists bureaucrats politicians lawyers and judges Presented in clear accessible prose Parmar s account of translation enriches debates in the fields of legal pluralism indigeneity and development

Democratic Decentralisation and the Positioning of Indigenous Nupur Tiwary,2024-01-01 Decentralization is at the center of policy reform agenda worldwide Today more than ever countries are actively engaged in developing decentralization programs to make their public administration more effective flexible and responsive In 2000 the World Bank estimated that between 80 100% of the world s countries were experimenting with some form of decentralization of governance system This book presents the work done on decentralization keeping tribal local self governance at the center of analysis by compiling the work of researchers policymakers and experts who are well versed in the domain of tribal welfare and understand its nuances Their research would inevitably help develop policy level interventions and reforms to strengthen the foundation of tribal local self governance and consequently help achieve sustainable development for the tribal communities

Indian Feminist Ecocriticism Nicole Anae,Douglas A. Vakoch,2022-08-08 Following Fran oise d Eaubonne s creation of the term ecofeminism in 1974 scholars around the world have explored ways that the degradation of the environment and the subjugation of women are linked In the nearly three decades since the publication of the classical work Ecofeminism by

Maria Mies and Vandana Shiva in 1993 several collections have appeared that apply ecofeminism to literary criticism also known as feminist ecocriticism The most recent of these include anthologies that emphasize international perspectives furthering the comparative task launched by Mies and Shiva To date however there have been no books devoted to gaining a broad based understanding of feminist ecocriticism in India understood in its own terms Our new volume Indian Feminist Ecocriticism offers a survey of literature as seen through an ecofeminist lens by Indian scholars which places contemporary literary analysis through a sampling of its diverse languages and in the context of millennia old mythic traditions of India

Ecodisaster Imaginaries in India Scott Slovic, Joyjit Ghosh, Samit Kumar Maiti, 2023-09-19 Ecodisaster Imaginaries in India Essays in Critical Perspectives is a volume of critical essays that discuss and debate the literary and cultural representations of ecological environmental disaster in India from the perspectives that are integral to postcolonial disaster studies and the environmental humanities The essays offer theoretically informed readings of environmental fiction nonfiction and poetry among other contemporary literary genres that open our eyes to today's burning issues of global warming climate change pollution of air and water bodies deforestation and species extinction The volume addresses the staunch ecological consciousness reflected in Rabindranath Tagore's writings from the early twentieth century indigenous responses to ecodisaster and the portrayal of ecodisaster in selected Indian movies which raise questions of human rights violations in the face of manmade disaster and environmental crisis

Recall and Retell Elwin Susan John, Amal P Mathews, 2025-03-27 This volume explores the instrumental role played by memory in our daily and collective narratives and the manifold ways in which it can destabilize those prevailing in India It explores manifestations of memory and postmemory through written narratives within India's social political and cultural memoryscape Drawing on archival research oral history collection and textual and critical analysis the book endeavours to reconstruct Indian experiences in all their richness and diversity while challenging dominant paradigms and expanding the boundaries of collective memory An important contribution this book will be of interest to students and scholars of history memory studies partition studies sociology cultural studies English literature decolonization and South Asian studies

New Lamps for Old? J. Devika, Binitha V. Thampi, 2012-06-25 Based on a large number of interviews with women politicians of many generations and women who have entered the three tier Panchayati Raj institutions since the mid 1990s in Kerala this book tries to initiate fresh debate on the impact of the large scale induction of women into the institutions of local self government in India The State of Kerala has been hailed as a success story in accommodating gender concerns in local level planning and political decentralisation this conclusion has been based on relatively simple evaluative exercises that ask whether women of diverse backgrounds have gained entry into formal institutions of governance or not This book seeks to place political decentralisation and its possibilities for women within the historical and contemporary contexts Against the popular assumption that the liberal feminist promise made by the state will be delivered say once the noxious influence of male relatives is removed the book points to the multiple social forces that shape possibilities and hindrances for women and reshape gender divisions in the political field The book thus pays attention to women in both local governance and politics Secondly it examines how women have utilised extended survived within or subverted these spaces In the present context in which fifty per cent of the seats in the institutions of local self government are being reserved for women and there exists considerable skepticism about reservations for women in the Parliament this book offers reflections on both local governance and high politics Published by Zubaan Indian Literature, 2007

Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel Sangita Patil, 2019-07-08 Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel tests the theories of ecofeminism against the background of India's often different perceptions of environmental problems challenging the hegemony of Western culture in thinking about human problems This book moves beyond a simple application of the concepts of ecofeminism instead explaining the uniqueness of Indian novels as narratives of ecofeminism and how they can contribute to the development of the theory of ecofeminism In examining a selection of novels the author argues that Indian texts conceptualize the ecological crisis more as a human problem than as a gender problem The book proposes that we should think of ecofeminism as ecohumanism instead seeing human beings and nature as a part of a complex web Novels analysed within the text include Kamala Markandaya's Nectar in a Sieve 1954 Shivram Karanth's Return to Earth 2002 and Na D Souza's Dweepa 2013 Ecofeminism and the Indian Novel will be of great interest to students and scholars of ecofeminism ecocriticism ecological feminism environmental humanities gender studies ecological humanities feminist studies and Indian literature

Sexuality and Public Space in India Carmel Christy, 2017-03-16 The topic of sexuality and gender within the South Asian context is timely and widely discussed across a variety of academic disciplines Since the end of the last century there have been debates in the cultural sphere in India on issues concerning Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender people's rights gender sex workers rights and caste There has also been an explicit visibility for sexuality in the form of discussion around intimate scenes in films advertisements and moral concerns around pre marital heterosexual relationships and same sex relationships This book brings out the modalities through which explicit visibility of sexuality gets constituted in the public space of India after the 1990s The specificities through which relations of gender sexuality and caste get constituted and performed in regional media provide significant entry points to an understanding of larger structures and the ever present fissures through which these larger structures emerge Focussing on the southern state of Kerala the book investigates women's sexuality and caste through a number of case studies the Suryanelli rape case neology in the media and the debates around the life narratives of Nalini Jameela a sex worker The book does not stop at representational practices as it also looks at the negotiations between the subject and her represented figures which is a significant addition to the existing body of work in the field of media and gender studies Sexuality and Public Space in India is a careful interrogation of the mass mediatized space of contemporary public discourse around sexuality It will be of interest to academics in South Asian Studies Sociology Anthropology and Gender Studies Interpreting Suicide Anilesh T.

T.,2023-11-21 This book is an exceptionally critical and insightful contribution to the scholarly discourse of suicidology The book offers in depth analyses of the conceptual evolution and various perspectives of suicide a very detailed mapping of the conceptualisation of the critical idiom of Text explication of the theoretical contributions of Barthes Derrida Foucault and others and analyses of suicides of immortalised characters forgotten writers and the culturally devoiced The book locates the notion of Text in a range of literary and cultural theories from New Criticism to New Historicism and explores the methodology of analysing enigmatic suicides as Texts in and of themselves
