The World's Carriers and Carrying Trades' Review, 1923. Motor, 1905. The Booker Prize and the Legacy of Empire Luke Strongman, 2021-12-28. This book is about the Booker Prize, the London-based literary award made annually to the best novel written in English by a writer from one of those countries belonging to or formerly part of the British Commonwealth. The approach to the Prize is thematically historical and spans the award period to 1999. The novels that have won or shared the Prize in this period are examined within a theoretical framework mapping the literary terrain of the fiction. Individual chapters explore themes that occur within the larger narrative formed by this body of novels: collectively invoked cultures, social trends and movements spanning the stages of imperial heyday and decline as perceived over the past three decades. Individually and collectively, the novels mirror often in terms of more than a single static image: British imperial culture after empire, contesting and reinterpreting perceptions of the historical moment of the British Empire and its legacy in contemporary culture. The body of Booker novels narrates the demise of empire and the emergence of different cultural formations in its aftermath. The novels are grouped for discussion according to the way in which they deal with aspects of the transition from empire to a post-imperial culture: from early imperial expansion through colonization, retrenchment, decolonization and postcolonial pessimism to the emergence of tribal nationalisms and post-imperial nation-states. The focus throughout is primarily literary and contingently cultural. Motor Cycling and Motoring, 1912. Motor Age, 1910.

Nobody's Perfect Anthony Lane, 2009-08-19. Anthony Lane on Con Air. Advance word on Con Air said that it was all about an airplane with an unusually dangerous and potentially lethal load. Big deal. You should try the lunches they serve out of Newark. Compared with the chicken napalm I ate on my last flight, the men in Con Air are about as dangerous as balloons. Anthony Lane on The Bridges of Madison County. I got my copy at the airport behind a guy who was buying Playboy's Book of Lingerie and I think he had the better deal. He certainly looked happy with his purchase, whereas I had to ask for a paper bag. Anthony Lane on Martha Stewart. Super-skilled, free of fear, the last word in human efficiency. Martha Stewart is the woman who convinced a million Americans that they have the time, the means, the right and damn it, the duty to pipe a little squirt of soft cheese into the middle of a snow pea and to continue piping until there are fifty to sixty stuffed peas raring to go. For ten years, Anthony Lane has delighted New Yorker readers with his film reviews, book reviews and profiles that range from Buster Keaton to Vladimir Nabokov to Ernest Shackleton. Nobody's Perfect is an unforgettable collection of Lane's trademark wit, satire and insight that will satisfy both the long-addicted and the not-so-familiar. "The Car" Road Book and Guide, 1913. The Autocar, 1912.
