Barri Flowers, From award winning criminologist R Barri Flowers and the bestselling author of Murder at the Pencil Factory and The Sex Slave Murders comes a powerful new historical true crime short Murder of the Banker's Daughter The Killing of Marion Parker On December 15 1927 12 year old Marion Parker daughter of a prominent banker was brazenly abducted from her junior high school in Los Angeles California in a bizarre ransom scheme Two days later the girl's dismembered remains were left behind by a brutal killer destroying a family and unnerving the entire city This caused pandemonium as the perpetrator managed to evade immediate capture leading to a manhunt by authorities unlike any in recent memory The horror of the crime was reminiscent of one 14 years earlier involving 13 year old Mary Phagan who was murdered at a pencil factory in Atlanta and 5 years later when the 20 month old son of famed aviator Charles Lindbergh was abducted from the family's New Jersey home and brutally slain The killer of Marion Parker was identified as former bank messenger William Edward Hickman a 19 year old with a score to settle and an appetite for killing The career criminal's capture trial and ultimate fate captured the public's imagination while putting attention on the age old vulnerability of children in this country targeted by child predators and the often tragic consequences that rings true to this day Included with the story are bonus excerpts of R Barri Flowers bestselling true crime shorts Murder at the Pencil Factory and Mass Murder in the Sky as well as an excerpt of the author's international bestselling true crime book The Sex Slave

Morgan,2005

Murder Along the Cape Fear is the story of Fayetteville and Fort Bragg North Carolina during the twentieth century Seen through the eyes of a native son this is the tale of one a distinguished historian who lived through some of it and heard about much of it from friends and relatives In this hundred year journey the town was profoundly impacted by the establishment of Fort Bragg 10 miles to its west Throughout this hundred year history murder seems to be the scarlet thread that stitched the town into infamy The book demonstrates that Fayetteville was by no means innocent prior to the coming of Fort Bragg Nor did all of the crime and evil emanate from Fort Bragg after 1918 As for murder there was an abundance of killing that had no connection with Fort Bragg but the most sensational murder case of the century involved Jeffrey MacDonald a Green Beret Army captain and physician who received three life terms in federal prison for killing his pregnant wife and two daughters While many other Fort Bragg soldiers were involved with murders along the Cape Fear murders were also committed by transient civilians and local citizens like the famous inventor of the M 1 carbine Marshall Carbine Williams and Velma Barfield who poisoned her mother and three other people In all about two dozen murder cases some highly publicized and some not are woven into this story about a North Carolina town in the twentieth century Engagingly told this book is a wonderful blend of history lore and murder
