Murder on the Orient Express. Audio CD Pack Level 4 Agatha Christie,2009-02      Agatha Christie and New Directions in Reading Detective Fiction Alistair Rolls,2022-06-16 This book brings a new lens to the work of Agatha Christie through a series of close readings which challenge the official solutions by Hercule Poirot and Miss Marple This book s approach interweaves two core ideas first it explores the importance of French critic Pierre Bayard s self styled detective criticism second it takes detective criticism in a new direction by refocusing on the beginnings of Agatha Christie s novels In this way the book counters the end orientation that has traditionally dominated the reading experience of and critical response to detective fiction by exploring the potential of the beginning to host other interpretations and stories Offering a new way of reading detective fiction this book is a mixture of narratology and detective criticism and deploys it in the form of radical new readings of a number of Christie s most famous works This illuminating text will interest students and scholars of crime and detective fiction literary studies and comparative literature      The Analogical Reader Peter Dixon,Marisa

Bortolussi,2023-11-23 Perspective taking is a critical component of approaches to literature and narrative but there is no coherent broadly applicable and process based account of what it is and how it occurs This book provides a multidisciplinary coverage of the topic weaving together key insights from different disciplines into a comprehensive theory of perspective taking in literature and in life The essential insight is that taking a perspective requires constructing an analogy between one s own personal knowledge and experience and that of the perspective taking target This analysis is used to reassess a broad swath of research in mind reading and literary studies It develops the dynamics of how analogy is used in perspective taking and the challenges that must be overcome under some circumstances New empirical evidence is provided in support of the theory and numerous examples from popular and literary fiction are used to illustrate the concepts This title is part of the Flip it Open programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details      Reading

Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson,1997-07-15 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs      The Routledge Companion to Crime Fiction Janice Allan,Jesper Gulddal,Stewart King,Andrew Pepper,2020-04-07 The Routledge

Do we map as we read How central to our experience of literature is the way in which we spatialise and visualise a fictional world Reading and Mapping Fiction offers a fresh approach to the interpretation of literary space and place centred upon the emergence of a fictional map alongside the text in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Bringing together a range of new and emerging theories including cognitive mapping and critical cartography Bushell compellingly argues that this activity whatever it is called mapping diagramming visualising spatialising is a vital and intrinsic part of how we experience literature and of what makes it so powerful Drawing on both the theory and history of literature and cartography this richly illustrated study opens up understanding of spatial meaning and interpretation in new ways that are relevant to both more traditional academic scholarship and to newly emerging digital practices The Proof Is in the Poison Diane Kelly, 2022-06-07 Moonshine shop owner Hattie Hayes is ready to lend a hand when a mystery starts brewing at a train convention in Chattanooga TN in this charming cozy mystery series Now that her moonshine shop is up and running Hattie Hayes can focus her efforts on expanding her fledgling business to events in the area like the Chattanooga Choo Choo Model Train Convention which is running full steam ahead at the convention center down the block Hattie is all aboard seizing this perfect opportunity to promote her Southern homebrew to the folks who have come to the city for the annual event But when an attendee dies after drinking some of Hattie's moonshine she'll need to prove her innocence Between tight lipped train hobbyists and competitors for a coveted convention prize Hattie has a wide array of suspects to choose from and she'll need to use all the tricks up her sleeve to make sure her moonshine business can survive a murderer and stay on track Mystery fiction and modern life ,

Transit Life David Bissell, 2018-03-23 An exploration of the ways that everyday life in the city is defined by commuting We spend much of our lives in transit to and from work Although we might dismiss our daily commute as a wearying slog we rarely stop to think about the significance of these daily journeys In Transit Life David Bissell explores how everyday life in cities is increasingly defined by commuting Examining the overlooked events and encounters of the commute Bissell shows that the material experiences of our daily journeys are transforming life in our cities The commute is a time where some of the most pressing tensions of contemporary life play out striking at the heart of such issues as our work life balance our relationships with others our sense of place and our understanding of who we are Drawing on in depth fieldwork with commuters journalists transit advocates policymakers and others in Sydney Australia Transit Life takes a holistic perspective to change how we think about commuting Rather than arguing that transport infrastructure investment alone can solve our commuting problems Bissell explores the more subtle but powerful forms of social change that commuting creates He examines the complex politics of urban mobility through multiple dimensions including the competencies that commuters develop over time commuting dispositions and the social life of the commute the multiple temporalities of commuting the experience of commuting spaces from footpath to on ramp both physical and digital the voices of commuting from private rants to drive time radio and the interplay of materialities ideas advocates and organizations in commuting infrastructures
