Syllabus and Selected Bibliography of Lessing, Goethe, Schiller William Addison Hervey, 1918 Abth. Von Sebastian Brant bis J. W. Goethe Karl Goedeke, 1849 Fabricating Pleasure Karin A. Wurst, 2005 Traces how the German middle class created a unique form of domestic culture that fused consumption with high culture in fashionable forms of entertainment Entertainment defined as occasions for creating pleasure added an important dimension to the lifestyle and self definition of the German middle class around the turn of the nineteenth century Modern forms of culture and consumption appearing around this time not only enhanced pleasure in physical sensations but also enabled imaginary sensations in the absence of actual stimuli Desiring rather than having became an important mode of cultural consumption linking products and practices with self image serving to express social identity in an increasingly more anonymous society a society where the modern freedom of choice brought with it a loss of tradition and the stability attached to it Fabricating Pleasure traces the creation of this unique form of domestic culture showing how the bourgeoisie of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Germany fused consumption with high culture Author Karin Wurst illuminates the sociohistorical context and the emergence of the modern middle class its differentiation and its conception of culture In her thoughtful analysis Wurst reconstructs the roles of Empfindsamkeit sensibility and the new love paradigm examining the change in mentality they fostered through the reconceptualization of pleasure and entertainment The book also discusses the relationship between print culture using Bertuch's Journal des Luxus und der Moden as its prime example and an increase in social mobility From art and music to fashion and travel Wurst places these popular forms of entertainment and pleasurable diversion in their social and historical contexts and also shows how they have remarkable bearing on present day debates on cultural literacy Elf Bücher deutscher Dichtung Karl Goedeke, 1849 Decolonizing the Memory of the First World War Anna Branach-Kallas, 2024-04-01 Decolonizing the Memory of the First World War contributes to the imperial turn in First World War studies This book provides an exploration of the ways in which war memory can be appropriated neglected and disabled but also unlearned and decolonized The book offers an analysis of the experience of soldiers of colour in five novels published at the centenary of the First World War by David Diop Raphaël Confiant Fred Khumalo Kamila Shamsie and Abdulrazak Gurnah examining the poetics and the politics of the conflict's commemoration It explores continuities between WWI and earlier and later eruptions of violence thus highlighting the long lasting sequels of the first global conflict in the former French British and German empires It thereby asks important questions about the decolonization of the memory of the First World War its tools critical potential and limitations The book will appeal to academics and postgraduate students working in postcolonial literatures postcolonial and decolonial studies First World War studies colonial history human and political geography as well as readers interested in cultural memory and overlapping legacies of violence Goethe and Zelter: Musical Dialogues Lorraine Byrne Bodley, 2017-07-05 Goethe and Zelter spent a staggering 33 years corresponding or in the case of each artist over two thirds of their lives Zelter's position as director of the Sing Akademie zu Berlin and Goethe's location in Weimar resulted in a wide ranging correspondence Goethe's letters offer a chronicle of his musical development from the time of his journey to Italy to the final months of his life Zelter's letters retrace his path as stonemason to Professor of Music in Berlin The 891 letters that passed between these artists provide an important musical record of the music performed in public concerts in Berlin and in the private and semi public soir of the Weimar court Their letters are those of men actively engaged in the musical developments of their time The legacy contains a wide spectrum of letters casual and thoughtfully composed spontaneous and written for publication rich with the details of Goethe's and Zelter's musical lives Through Zelter Goethe gained access to the professional music world he craved and became acquainted with the prodigious talent of Felix Mendelssohn A single letter from Zelter might bear a letter from Felix Mendelssohn to another recipient of the same family reflecting a certain community in the Mendelssohn household where letters were not considered private but shared with others in a circle of friends or family Goethe recognized the value of such correspondence he complains when his friend is slow to send letters in return for those written to him by the poet a complaint common in this written culture where letters provided news introductions literary and musical works This famous correspondence contains a medley of many issues in literature art and science but the main focus of this translation is the music dialogues of these artists A List of First Editions and Other Rare Books in the Weinhold Library, 1907 Elf Bücher deutscher Dichtung Karl Gödeke, 1849

Religious Entanglements Between Germans and Indians, 1800-1945 Isabella Schwaderer, Gerdien Jonker, 2024-01-08 Religion as a form of cultural expression constitutes a critical element in the relationship between Germany and India The discovery of Indian traditions in Germany and re interpretations of those traditions in India fueled not only new theological and philosophical explorations but also extensive innovations in the fields of music dance bodily experience and political intervention Seeking to uncover the enfolding of colonial thought structures through presentations of the Self while placing them in the context of global colonial value chains that connected the peripheries with the centre this interdisciplinary volume addresses India through the lens of an entangled relationship Adopting the position that the acceleration of communication technical development and colonisation locally triggered re interpretations of the religious sphere This volume takes a look at the period from 1800 to the end of National Socialism tracing the strands of an Indo Germanic religion in the making as it goes along A special emphasis is placed on the artistic expressions of religious experience including re enactments of musical compositions and dance configurations which were created to embody India in Germany This is an

Goethe A. N. Wilson,2024-09-26 A N Wilson s biography of the German polymath is wild brilliant and has all the intelligence to rival its subject Frances Wilson the Telegraph Rich and full and passionate and intelligent and deeply needed for these murky times Ben Okri Exuberant and wide ranging Miranda Seymour author of The Haunted Life of Jean Rhys A spellbinding recreation of Goethe s life and work from one of our greatest biographers Goethe was the inventor of the psychological novel a pioneer scientist great man of the theatre and a leading politician As A N Wilson argues in this groundbreaking biography it was his genius and insatiable curiosity that helped catapult the Western world into the modern era A N Wilson tackles the life of Goethe with characteristic wit and verve From his youth as a wild literary prodigy to his later years as Germany s most respected elder statesman Wilson hones in on Goethe s undying obsession with the work he would spend his entire life writing Faust Goethe spent over 60 years writing his retelling of Faust a strange and powerful work that absorbed all the philosophical questions of his time as well as the revolutions and empires that came and went It is his greatest work but as Wilson explores it is also something much more it is the myth of how we came to be modern
