Musings On Ars Poetica Musings On Ars Poetica:

Musings On Ars Poetica F. Ndi, 2009-05-15 A literary monument erected by a poet for poets with a vision for poetry as a special annunciation and the poet as a seer spokesperson recorder analyst adjudicator and advocate with poetic vision and poetic understanding Bill Ndi the poet has the rare gift of slipping into the self and psyche of his society to empty the dark depths where the treasures of burden and sadness are hidden He empties and exposes them to the world to see how even personal repression of feelings by far outweighs those imposed throughout History by tyrants It is above all his greatest task of filling these depths with the joys and expectations of the society This objective stance by the poet places him above the fanatic whose subjectivity pushes the world adrift and makes of the poet a universal man of peace The Collected Works of William Hazlitt: Free thoughts on public affairs. Political essays. Advertisement, etc., from The eloquence of the British senate William Hazlitt, 1902

Letters, Essays, and Thoughts on Studies and Conduct Addressed to Young Persons by Men Eminent in Literature and Affairs Edited by Henry Barnard, LL. D. Henry Barnard, 1873 Carpe Diem Robert A. Rohland, 2022-12-01 Carpe diem eat drink and be merry for tomorrow we die is a prominent motif throughout ancient literature and beyond This is the first book length examination of its significance and demonstrates that close analysis can make a key contribution to a question that is central to literary studies in and beyond Classics how can poetry give us the almost magical impression that something is happening here and now In attempting an answer Robert Rohland gives equal attention to Greek and Latin texts as he offers new interpretations of well known poems from Horace and tackles understudied epigrams Pairing close readings of ancient texts along with interpretations of other forms of cultural production such as gems cups calendars monuments and Roman wine labels this interdisciplinary study transforms our understanding of the motif of carpe diem Of Other Thoughts: Non-Traditional Ways to the Doctorate A.-Chr.

Engels-Schwarzpaul, Michael A. Peters, 2013-11-19 Of Other Thoughts offers a path breaking critique of the traditions underpinning doctoral research Working against the grain of traditional research orthodoxies graduate researchers almost all from Indigenous transnational diasporic coloured queer and ethnic minorities AND their supervisors offer insights into non traditional and emergent modes of research transcultural post colonial trans disciplinary and creative practice led Through case studies and contextualizing essays Of Other Thoughts provides a unique guide to doctoral candidates and supervisors working with different modes of research More radically its questioning of traditional assumptions about the nature of the literature review the genealogy of research practices and the status and structuring of the thesis creates openings for alternative modes of researching It gives our emerging researchers the courage to differ and challenges the University to take up its public role as critic and conscience of society Barbara Bolt Associate Professor and Associate Director of Research and Research Training The Victorian College of the Arts University of Melbourne Australia These writings are essential reading for all PhD students interested in making their critical work count for more They examine multiple sites where conservative politics and ethics institutional regulations culturally constrained supervisory practices and disciplinary boundary maintenance run counter to the radical and transforming potential of critical PhD work Graham Hingangaroa Smith Distinguished Professor Vice Chancellor Chief Executive Officer Te Whare W nanga o Awanui rangi Whakat ne Aotearoa New Zealand This book makes a distinctive and valuable contribution to the growing literature on doctoral education Readers will find a wonderfully diverse collection of perspectives on non traditional paths to the PhD The book synthesises theory with practice in a highly effective and engaging manner It sets doctoral experiences in their broader cultural political and intellectual contexts and addresses epistemological and methodological questions with fresh insight Of Other Thoughts will appeal to students and supervisors in a range of different fields and deserves a wide international readership Peter Roberts Professor of Education University of Canterbury Christchurch Aotearoa New Zealand Musing Jonathan Locke Hart,2011 Musing is a book of sonnets combining one of poetry s most classic forms with history and landscape Ranging from the traditional to the innovative Jonathan Locke Hart captures a piece of European poetic flavour and mingles the experience with North American artistic flair Laughing Store Linus Tongwo Asong,2010 Laughing Store is just what we need in times of troubles and uncertainties such as these A book of humour from an acclaimed master of laughter it lifts our hearts and raises our spirits Jokes that touch about every domain of existence from sex to religion from births to deaths from politics to the beer parlour from the courtroom to the hospital And most important of all conceived in the supremely original Cameroonian flavour of jokes Forest Echoes Nol Alembong,2010-03-01 Forest Echoes is a literary quilt revealing a mature poet bestriding generations as he patches together a people s culture their philosophy history along with their attendant woes into a subtle sometimes disillusioning even yet purposeful and poignant whole Nol Alembong is not afraid to be himself in this work a scholar teacher parent traditionalist and above all an Anglophone Cameroonian Whatever the case these are magisterial and equally influential individual traits that have merged into a united whole in forging this poet s identity and concerns as evident from the thematic panorama of the poems In Forest Echoes the title poem for example one encounters a poet who though steeped in his people s struggles has been able to stand back watch and evaluate the effects of the interactions of time events and society It is this ability of his as an involved yet detached observer along with the trend of events that have scarred his people s lives which have yielded the powerful emotions that he has assembled in this thematically lush historically nostalgic and overwhelmingly evocative collection Dr Emmanuel Fru Doh The Earth in Peril Colin Diyen,2010-07-01 Colin Diyen s imaginary world of Mungongoh is an interesting one There is the wrathful King Awobua whose lust for the earth is immeasurable He intends to use the Institute of Research for the Development of Ideas IRDI where all the top brains in Mungongoh are concentrated to accomplish his wish of conquering the earth This institution had surfaced with various diabolic ideas hideous enough to make Lucifer jealous but which apart from causing much sorrow on earth had never actually proved efficient enough to rid the earth of all mankind The last great idea developed by the IRDI was a massive offensive against the earth and this involved the use of every pestilence available and the neutron bomb The book brings out strong positive points about the earth as well as many negative aspects that if not corrected fast may take the earth down the drain Creating Critical Research Poetry Maria K. E. Lahman, 2025-04-28 Creating Critical Research Poetry critically engages with the ways in which researchers can poetically approach textual representations that narrate the unnarratable and contest the uncontested This text provides a rich path for early research poets to engage with and bloom and established research poets to dig deeper and flourish Connections to literary poetry and critical social science theories are detailed First person poetic accounts where poets describe early fruitful engagement with poetic forms are highlighted Free verse formed poetry and dimensional poems e g concrete poetry are covered in depth with guidance for developing a poetic sensibility and honing research poetry craft Poetic experiences are integrated throughout the book which may be engaged with individually as a group and in virtual or face to face courses Each chapter provides reflexive questions for the reader to engage with in their own journal writings a poem creation exercise and further poetic resources Set within critical theories Creating Critical Research Poetry provides a context for early research poets and thought provoking possibilities for seasoned research poets This is the perfect entry point to this burgeoning field of critical inquiry and qualitative research

A Legend of the Dead Linus Asong, 2009-10-15 When the admirable Kevin Beckongncho becomes the new Paramount Chief of the much coveted throne of Nkokonoko Small Monje as well as its new DO Chieftaincy could finally be said to have been redeemed But he quickly becomes a marked man as he runs into fatal collision with an unscrupulous governmental system with which he cannot co exist How this great man suddenly dies and why his people must not mourn for him is the unresolved mystery with which Asong closes both the book and his trilogy that includes The Crown of Thorns and No Way to Die The Cameroonian Novel of English Expression. An Introduction A. Ambanasom, 2009-08-15 Initially considered something of a black sheep within the Anglophone Cameroon literary genres the Anglophone novel has gradually grown to carve out a respectable niche for itself in the Anglophone Cameroon sub system imposing itself in a way that makes it impossible for critics to ignore it Now a vibrant genre it even threatens to overtake drama and poetry both of which have enjoyed more critical attention This book is a study of how Anglophone Cameroon has contributed in extending the possibilities of the novel as a literary form and of some of the established conventions necessary for a fruitful evaluation of the growing body of the Cameroonian novel in English In this eclectic and compelling book Ambanasom sets out to achieve three primary objectives to introduce the reader to the extensive body of Cameroonian novels in English to re examine the distorting and limiting criteria upon which the critical assessment of the Cameroonian novel in English has so far been based and to bridge the widening chasm between literary theory and actual critical practice To achieve these objectives Ambanasom begins by elaborating an alternative and flexible theoretical framework which he christens the Socio Artistic Approach and which according to him is concerned with both a text s thematic moral cultural or ideological issues on the one hand and its central literary analysis on the other He then proceeds to use this new critical framework to examine twenty seven major Cameroonian novels in English There are critical voices already emerging within the Anglophone Cameroonian literary circles calling for rigorous teaching and practice of theory in the interpretation of literary works setting in motion a critical discourse Such a call is salutary and welcome Those university lecturers whose responsibility it is to teach theoretical courses should take this call very seriously moving from theory to hands on practice This book is Ambanasom s contribution to that critical debate

Stereotyping Africa. Surprising Answers to Surprising Questions Fru Doh,2009-11-01

Characteristically Africans in any Western country are asked so many different questions about Africa as Westerners love to refer to the many countries that make up that huge continent as if Africa were a single nation state So one begins wondering why it is that Africans on the other hand do not refer to individual European countries as Europe simply then the trends and consequences of stereotyping begin setting in just as one is getting used to being asked if Africa has a president or if one can say something in African It is some of these questions that Emmanuel Fru Doh has collected over the years and has attempted answering them in an effort to shed some light on a continent that is in many ways like the rest of the world when not better but which so many love to paint as dark backward chaotic and pathetic

Exhumed, Tried and Hanged Charles

Alobwede D'Epie,2010 Exhumed Tried and Hanged elucidates the abuse of folk good faith and ignorance by a conceited ruthless and grasping leadership that sows carnage among the natives of Etambeng culminating in unprecedented exodus untold suffering and death of the people in neighbouring villages Upon the death of the perpetrator the few returnees are made to listen to the gruesome stories of how the aggrieved children of his victims took revenge on his corpse

Folktales from the Moose of Burkina Faso Alain-Joseph Sissao,2010 The Moogo the region of the Moose known as Mossi in ancient literature occupies the entire central zone of Burkina Faso It is divided into several kingdoms the principal one comprising today s capital of Ouagadougou Along with the singing griots the evening storytellers pass on the ancestral word during the evening gatherings where they provide the group with models to follow The folktale is the most appropriate form for teaching young children to express themselves to structure their thoughts and to reason The tales portraying familiar animals will be reserved for the group of youngest children The legendary gluttony and foolishness of Mba Katr the hyena in contrast with the cunning and finesse of Mba So mba the hare will interest above all children from 10 to 12 years of age The stories describing the origin of things the reason for various social taboos the legitimacy of social functions and structures as well character flaws that need correcting are reserved as a priority for adolescents

Thoughts on Death and Immortality

Ludwig Feuerbach,2023-07-28 Never translated before Thoughts on Death and Immortality was the first published work of Ludwig Feuerbach 1804 1872 The scandal created by portrayal of Christianity as an egoistic and inhumane religion cost the young Hegelian his job and to some extent his career Joining philosophical argument to epigram lyric and satire the work has three central arguments first a straightforward denial of the Christian belief in personal immortality second a plea for recognition of the inexhaustible quality of the only life we have and third a derisive assault on the posturings and hypocrisies of the professional theologians of nineteenth century Germany Never translated before Thoughts on Death and Immortality was the first published work of Ludwig Feuerbach 1804-1872 The scandal created by portrayal of Christianity as an egoistic and inhumane religion cost the young Hegelian his job and to some extent his life

Restoration and Eighteenth-Century Poetry 1660-1780 (Routledge Revivals) Eric Rothstein, 2014-10-10 Restoration and Eighteenth Century Poetry 1660-1780 originally published in 1981 considers poetry written between 1660 and 1780 a period which although largely recovered from its nineteenth century reputation still attracts widely varying critical responses Abandoning the old labels such as neoclassicism romanticism and sensibility the author focuses on descriptions of genres and their formal elements and traces the broader patterns of literary and historical change running through the period Eric Rothstein describes different poetic modes panegyric satire pastoral and topographical poetry the epistle and the ode to suggest their aesthetical possibilities as well as their process of change He also considers style and the uses of the past topics which have often caused particular problems for the students of the period What becomes clear is the extraordinary originality flexibility and power with which Restoration and eighteenth century poets handles the stylistic assumptions and the body of poems they inherited and employed in their own works

Thoughts on the Sabbath: to which are subjoined, two addresses to the inhabitants of Dublin; on the observance of the Lord's day, and on the practice of coming late to church ... Fourth edition, enlarged Richard Whately, 1854

Perspectives on Translation and Interpretation in Cameroon Emmanuel Chia, Joseph Che Suh, Alexandre Ndeffo Tene, 2009 Perspectives on Translation and Interpretation in Cameroon is the first volume of a book series of the Advanced School of Translators and Interpreters ASTI of the University of Buea It opens a window into the wide dynamic and interesting area of translation and interpretation in a multilingual Cameroon that had on the eve of independence and unification opted for official bilingualism in French and English The book comprises contributions from scholars of translation in the broad area of translation comprising the concept of translation and its pedagogy the history of translation and the state of the art of translation as a discipline profession and practice The book also focuses on acquisition of translation competences through training and chronicles the history of translation in Cameroon through the contributions of both Cameroonian and European actors from the German through the French and English colonial periods to the postcolonial present in their minutia Rich original and comprehensive the book is a timely and invaluable contribution to the growing community of translators and interpreters in Africa and globally

No Way to Die Linus Asong, 2009-09-15 What happens when a young man of talent and visions of greatness falls victim to a cruel set of circumstances over which he has no control No Way to Die is such a story Dennis Nunqam Ndendemajem gives up Even when he is given a second chance to start again he refuses to gather the broken pieces of his life together He refuses to rebuild and refuses to live But he also finds no way to die
