The War on Error Martin Kramer, 2017-09-08 In The War on Error, historian and political analyst Martin Kramer presents a series of case studies, some based on pathfinding research and others on provocative analysis, that correct misinformation clouding the public's understanding of the Middle East. He also offers a forensic exploration of how misinformation arises and becomes fact. The book is divided into five themes: Orientalism and Middle Eastern studies, a prime casualty of the culture wars; Islamism, massively misrepresented by apologists; Arab politics, a generator of disappointing surprises; Israeli history, manipulated by reckless revisionists; and American Jews and Israel, the subject of irrational fantasies. Kramer shows how error permeates the debate over each of these themes, creating distorted images that cause policy failures. Kramer approaches questions in the spirit of a relentless fact checker: Did Israeli troops massacre Palestinian Arabs in Lydda in July 1948? Was the bestseller Exodus hatched by an advertising executive? Did Martin Luther King Jr. describe anti-Zionism as antisemitism? Did a major post-9/11 documentary film deliberately distort the history of Islam? Did Israel push the United States into the Iraq War? Kramer also questions paradigms: the Arab Spring, the map of the Middle East, and linkage. Along the way, he amasses new evidence, exposes carelessness, and provides definitive answers.

African Transnational Mobility in China Roberto Castillo, 2020-12-30 Considering the African presence in China from an ethnographic and cultural studies perspective, this book offers a new way to theorise contemporary and future forms of transnational mobilities while expanding our understandings around the transformations happening in both China and Africa. The author develops an original argument and new theoretical insights about the significance of the African presence in Guangzhou and presents an invaluable case study for understanding particular modes of transnational mobility. More broadly, it challenges forms of representing and producing knowledge about subjects on the move and it transforms existing theorisations and critical understandings of mobility and its shaping power. Through an ethnographic approach, the book brings us closer to a number of practices, features, and objects that, while characterising the lives of Africans in Guangzhou, are also evidence of the interplay between individual aspirations and the structural constraints embedded in contemporary regimes of transnational mobility. Raising critical questions about ways of unbelonging in the precarious settings of neoliberal modernity and the future of African mobilities, this book will be of interest to scholars of transnational African and Chinese Studies.

An Unbroken Educational Apartheid Legacy David E. Morgan Ph.D., 2015-03-17 This is a thought-provoking book on the black-white academic achievement gap in Chicago's predominantly black communities of color and what highly effective school boards can do to change it. In this book, the reader will be powerfully enlightened by a civil and human rights debate that calls for effective leadership in our schools beginning with effective school boards The primary agenda of effective school boards is raising student achievement performance levels and engaging the school district community to attain that goal These instructive analyses of effective school board leadership builds on the research and wisdom of great leaders Simultaneously it develops a breath of fresh air for school reformers who seek to implement a new model and escape the insanity and pathology inherent in school board dysfunctions and violations of our civil and human rights which prevents progress in Chicago s south suburban communities of color In both highs and lows of awesome moments as educational reform leaders and school board members we are in a strategic leadership position to help school boards carry out their essential responsibilities for creating equity and excellence in public education In doing so highly effective school leaders can team with our school board leaders to lead our school district communities in preparing all students to succeed in a rapidly changing global society School board members doing the same things over and over again and then expecting different results in academic outcomes is the definition for insanity Education is freedom In an era of mass educational apartheid with its consequent mass incarceration of blacks that has surpassed the enforced chattel bondage of slavery s peak numbers in 1860 this book addresses a subject that is critically essential timely and in need of immediate attention for the security success and ultimate survival of black America As the problems of the academic under achievement gap is addressed in this book it is also essential that school boards educators and community and national leaders accept reality to view the problem in its true perspective to contemplate it as it is in providing essential solutions toward removing limiting and limited school boards dysfunctions obstructions and other barriers to academic achievement in effective school board leadership Supporting educational excellence will thereby produce more African American scholars in mathematics science and in many other disciplines This book will provide information and focus on some key action areas that successful school boards in America and around the world have focused their attention on Vision Standards Assessment Resource Alignment Climate Collaboration and Continuous Academic Improvement     The Grants Register 2024 Palgrave
