

The illustration depicts a large adult elephant and a smaller calf in a savanna setting. The adult elephant is on the left, its head and trunk dominating the foreground. The calf is positioned below the adult's trunk, looking up at it. The background shows a vast landscape with tall grass, distant hills, and a blue sky with a few birds. The title 'My Bibi Always Remembers' is written in a large, stylized blue font in the upper right corner. The author's name 'Toni Buzzeo' and the illustrator's name 'Mike Wohnoutka' are written in a smaller red font below the title.

Inheriting the Holocaust Paula S. Fass,2008-12-30 In Inheriting the Holocaust Paula S Fass explores her own past as the daughter of Holocaust survivors to reflect on the nature of history and memory Through her parents experiences and the stories they recounted Fass defined her engagement as a historian and used these skills to better understand her parents lives Fass begins her journey through time and relationships when she travels to Poland and locates birth certificates of the murdered siblings she never knew That journey to recover her family s story provides her with ever more evidence for the perplexing reliability of memory and its winding path toward historical reconstruction In the end Fass recovers parts of her family s history only to discover that Poland is rapidly re imagining the role Jews played in the nation s past

Thanks to You Mary Alice Beasley,2013-09-19 Warren Edward Armstrong Jabali was my hero In the hearts of his family and friends across the country he was a superstar Known for his basketball feats at Central High School 1962 1964 Wichita State University 1964 1968 and in the American Basketball Association ABA 1968 1976 this book presents an uplifting story of how a man labeled as one of the two meanest men in the ABA overcame the vilification of his character By positively channeling his energy on the educational empowerment of African American youth he became an extraordinary role model and father figure for many in South Florida Divided into two sections the first part of the book is Warren s incomplete manuscript He described the wide ranging cultural attitudes political environment and social conditions which motivated his actions and profoundly affected his basketball career it is supplemented by newspaper articles and interviews in which he discussed various controversial topics and elaborated on the skills and legacies of his contemporaries The last half is written by the love of his life A very complex and private person the section illustrates multiple aspects of his personality which portray an intimate understanding of him that only someone he cherished could ever reveal This narrative validates the strength of his character as he boldly faced personal challenges It demonstrates his unwavering commitment to education as he persevered in his lifelong pursuit for equality Additionally it highlights how benevolent his interpersonal relationships were as he journeyed along the road less traveled

Last to Eat, Last to Learn Pashtana Durrani, Tamara Bralo, 2024-02-20 A Ms Magazine Pick for Most Anticipated Feminist Books of 2023 Pashtana's story highlights the resourcefulness and bravery of young women in Afghanistan I hope readers will be inspired by her mission to give every girl the education she deserves and the opportunity to pursue her dreams Malala Yousafzai In the spirit of I am Malala and Our House is On Fire by Greta Thunberg this is the astonishing true story of the Malala Fund Education Champion Award winner founder of the NGO LEARN and women's education activist whose advocacy for the disappearing girls of rural Afghanistan has led to her being ruthlessly targeted by the Taliban Inspired by generations of her family's unwavering belief in the power of education Pashtana Durrani recognized her calling early in life to educate Afghanistan's girls and young women raised in a society where learning is forbidden In a country devastated by war and violence where girls are often married off before reaching their teenage years and prohibited from leaving their homes heeding that call seemed both impossible and dangerous Pashtana was raised in an Afghan refugee camp in Pakistan where her father a tribal leader founded a community school for girls within their home Fueled by his insistence that despite being a girl she mattered and deserved an education Pashtana was sixteen when against impossible odds she was granted a path out of the refugee camp admittance to a preparatory program at Oxford Unthinkably and to her parents horror she chose a different path She chose Afghanistan Pashtana founded the nonprofit LEARN and developed a program for getting educational materials directly into the hands of girls in remote areas of the country training teachers in digital literacy Her commitment to education has made her a target of the Taliban Still she continues to fight for women's education and autonomy in Afghanistan and beyond Courageous and inspiring Last to Eat Last to Learn is the story of how just one person can transform a family a tribe a country It reminds us of the emancipatory power of learning and the transformational potential that lies within each of us
