J. Dionne,Jean Bethke Elshtain,Kayla Meltzer Drogosz,2004-06-14 The United States has been described as a nation with the soul of a church Religion is discussed more explicitly and more urgently in American politics than in the public debates of any other wealthy democracy It is certain to play an important role in the elections of 2004 Yet debates over religion and politics are often narrow and highly partisan although the questions at hand demand a broader and more civil discussion One Electorate under God widens the dialogue by bringing together in one volume some of the most influential voices in American intellectual and political life This book draws on a public debate between former New York governor Mario Cuomo and Indiana congressman Mark Souder who discuss how their respective faith convictions have been both shaped by and reflected in their careers as public servants This discussion in turn prompted commentary by a diverse group of scholars politicians journalists and religious leaders who are engaged simultaneously in the religious and policy realms Each contributor offers insights on how political leaders and religious convictions shape our politics One Electorate under God arises from the idea that public deliberation is more honest and more democratic when officials are open and reflective about the interactions between their religious convictions and their commitments in the secular realm This volume the first of its kind seeks to promote a greater understanding of American thinking about faith and public office in a pluralistic society Contributors include Joanna Adams Azizah Al Hibri Doug Bandow Michael Barone Gary Bauer Robert Bellah David Brooks Harvey Cox Michael Cromartie John DiIulio Jr Terry Eastland Robert Edgar Jean Bethke Elshtain Richard Wightman Fox William Galston Robert George Andrew Greeley John Green Anna Greenberg Susannah Heschel Representative Amo Houghton R New York Michael Kazin Martha Minow Stephen Monsma Mark Noll Rabbi Dav      The Examiner ,1864      To Drink from the Silver Cup Anna Redsand,2020-08-08 Anna Redsand was sixteen when she heard her mother say of two women who d been discovered to be lovers They re living in sin They should see a doctor She knew in that moment that she would have to leave the security and intimacy of family church and home the only world she had ever known As that world faded so too did everything that had been religious or spiritual inside her The journey was to find what she d lost or replace it Was there a faith community that could accept Anna as a lesbian a doubter and someone committed to social justice To Drink From the Silver Cup is the story of Anna Redsand s quest It took her from a devout missionary life in the Navajo Nation into the shame and exile of being unwanted in the homeland and then beyond through the uncharted territory of different religious spiritual and political directions Always striving for authenticity continuing to long for home forty years after taking leave Anna embarked on a deliberate experiment to see if return was possible or whether too much had changed in her and too little in the church In the past most memoirs about conflicts between fundamentalist Christianity and sexuality have been written by gay men Few if any have come to the same resolution that To Drink From the Silver Cup does This is a unique and memorable story with resonance for both seekers and those who have never challenged their held beliefs      Princeton
