Arts of Engagement Dylan Robinson, Keavy Martin, 2016-07-15 Arts of Engagement focuses on the role that music film visual art and Indigenous cultural practices play in and beyond Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission on Indian Residential Schools Contributors here examine the impact of aesthetic and sensory experience in residential school history at TRC national and community events and in artwork and exhibitions not affiliated with the TRC Using the framework of aesthetic action the essays expand the frame of aesthetics to include visual aural and kinetic sensory experience and question the ways in which key components of reconciliation such as apology and witnessing have social and political effects for residential school survivors intergenerational survivors and settler publics This volume makes an important contribution to the discourse on reconciliation in Canada by examining how aesthetic and sensory interventions offer alternative forms of political action and healing These forms of aesthetic action encompass both sensory appeals to empathize and invitations to join together in alliance and new relationships as well as refusals to follow the normative scripts of reconciliation Such refusals are important in their assertion of new terms for conciliation terms that resist the imperatives of reconciliation as a form of resolution This collection charts new ground by detailing the aesthetic grammars of reconciliation and conciliation The authors document the efficacies of the TRC for the various Indigenous and settler publics it has addressed and consider the future aesthetic actions that must be taken in order to move beyond what many have identified as the TRC's political limitations

Thomas Hirschhorn Lisa Lee,2025-09-30 A groundbreaking study of the crossover relationship between art and graphic design in the work of widely acclaimed artist Thomas Hirschhorn b 1957 Drawing extensively from unknown or little known works and previously unpublished documents from the artist s archive Thomas Hirschhorn from Graphic Design to Art explores the formative decade of 1984 to 1994 It tells the story of Hirschhorn s initial commitment to the print medium with its basis in mass culture and distribution as a vehicle for his political energies Lisa Lee analyzes for the first time in Hirschhorn scholarship his works of self commissioned graphic design which combine rudimentary collage and diagrammatic languages to assert an essential publicness She describes Hirschhorn s growing disenchantment with the practical and political limitations of graphic design and simultaneously his realization that artmaking with its freedoms and attendant responsibilities was the only framework in which to realize his political ambitions Finally and crucially the book offers original interpretations of Hirschhorn s dedicated reinvention of composition exhibition and dissemination of artworks to better embody his utopian desire to intervene in the world Lee shows that nearly all the artistic strategies we associate with Hirschhorn were first articulated in this formative decade the use of quotidian materials the appropriation of vernacular forms the processing of mass circulated images an embrace of quantity and an emphasis on urban peripheries
