Children s book awards have mushroomed since the early twentieth century and especially since the 1960s when literary prizing became a favored strategy for both commercial promotion and canon making There are over 300 awards for English language titles alone but despite the profound impact of children s book awards scholars have paid relatively little attention to them This book is the first scholarly volume devoted to the analysis of Anglophone children s book awards in historical and cultural context With attention to both political and aesthetic concerns the book offers original and diverse scholarship on prizing practices and their consequences in Australia Canada and especially the United States Contributors offer both case studies of particular awards and analysis of broader trends in literary evaluation and elevation drawing on theoretical work on canonization and cultural capital Sections interrogate the complex and often unconscious ideological work of prizing the ongoing tension between formalist awards and so called identity based awards all the more urgent in light of the We Need Diverse Books campaign the ever morphing forms and parameters of prizing and scholarly practices of prizing Among the many awards discussed are the Pura Belpr Medal the Inky Awards the Canada Governor General Literary Award the Printz Award the Best Animated Feature Oscar the Phoenix Award and the John Newbery Medal giving due attention to prizes for fiction as well as for non fiction poetry and film This volume will interest scholars in literary and cultural studies social history book history sociology education library and information science and anyone concerned with children s literature

Tolerance and Risk Mitra Rastegar, 2021-09-07 How apparently positive representations of Muslims in U S media cast Muslims as a racial population Portrayals of Muslims as the beneficiaries of liberal values have contributed to the racialization of Muslims as a risky population since the September 11 attacks These discourses which hold up some Muslims as worthy of tolerance or sympathy reinforce an unstable good Muslim bad Muslim binary where any Muslim might be moved from one side to the other In Tolerance and Risk Mitra Rastegar explores these discourses as a component of the racialization of Muslims where Muslims are portrayed as a highly diverse population that nevertheless is seen to contain within it a threat that requires constant vigilance Tolerance and Risk brings together several case studies to examine the interrelation of representations of Muslims abroad and in the United States These include human interest stories and opinion polls of Muslim Americans media representations of education activist Malala Yousafzai LGBTQ activist discourses local New York controversies surrounding Muslim led public projects and social media discourses of the Syrian refugee crisis Tolerance and Risk demonstrates how representations of tolerable or sympathetic Muslims produce them as a population with distinct characteristics capacities and risks and circulate standards by which the trustworthiness or threat of individual Muslims must be assessed Tolerance and Risk examines the ways that discourses of liberal rights including feminist and LGBTQ rights discourses are mobilized to racialize Muslims as uncivilized even as they garner sympathy and identification with some Muslims capitalism from the East India Company and Industrial Revolution to the digital revolution But here John Cassidy a staff writer at The New Yorker and a Pulitzer Prize finalist adopts a bold new approach he tells the story through the eyes of the system's critics From the English Luddites who rebelled against early factory automation to communists in Germany and Russia in the early twentieth century to the Latin American dependistas the international Wages for Housework campaign of the 1970s and the modern degrowth movement the absorbing narrative traverses the globe It visits with familiar names Smith Marx Luxemburg Keynes Polanyi but also focuses on many less familiar figures including Flora Tristan the French proponent of a universal labor union Thomas Carlyle the conservative prophet of the moral depredations of the market John Hobson the original theorist of imperialism J C Kumarappa the Indian exponent of Gandhian economics Eric Williams the Trinidadian author of a famous thesis on slavery and capitalism Joan Robinson the Cambridge economist and critic of Keynes and Samir Amin the leftist French Egyptian economist and analyst of globalization Blending rich biography panoramic history and lively exploration of economic theories Capitalism and Its Critics is true big history that illuminates the deep roots of many of the most urgent issues of our time Death, Dying, and Mysticism T. Cattoi, C. Moreman, G. C. Harcourt, 2015-04-01

This volume offers a sample of reflections from scholars and practitioners on the theme of death and dying from scholars and practitioners ranging from the Christian tradition to Hinduism Lacanian psychoanalysis while also touching on the themes of the afterlife and near death experiences Gender(ed) Identities Tricia Clasen, Holly Hassel, 2016-08-25 This volume brings together diverse cross disciplinary scholarly voices to examine gender construction in children's and young adult literature It complements and updates the scholarship in the field by creating a rich cohesive examination of core questions around gender and sexuality in classic and contemporary texts By providing an expansive treatment of gender and sexuality across genres eras and national literature the collection explores how readers encounter unorthodox as well as traditional notions of gender It begins with essays exploring how children's and YA literature construct communities formed by gender ethnicity sexuality and in face to face and virtual spaces Section II's central focus is how gendered identities are formed unpacking how texts for young readers ranging from Amish youth periodicals to the blockbuster Divergent series trace reproduce and shape gendered identity socialization In section III the essential literary function of translating trauma into narrative is addressed in classics like Anne of Green Gables and Pollyanna as well as more recent works Section IV's focus on sexuality and romance encompasses fiction and nonfiction works examining how children's and young adult literature can serve as a regressive progressive and transgressive site for construction meaning about sex and romance Last Section IV offers new readings of paratextual features in literature for children from the classic tale of Cinderella to contemporary illustrated novels The key achievement of this volume is providing an updated range of multidisciplinary and methodologically diverse analyses of critically and commercially successful texts contributing to the scholarship on children's and YA literature gender sexuality and women's studies and a range of other disciplines Girls, Moral Panic and News

Media Sharon Mazzarella, 2019-11-07 Mazzarella examines the representational politics behind journalistic constructions of US girls and girlhood through a series of contemporary in depth case studies which work to document a wider cultural moral panic about the troublesome nature of girls bodies The public concern and media fascination with youth so evident in the United States today is a century old phenomenon From the flappers of the 1920s to the bobbysoxers of the 1950s from the hippies of the 1960s and on to the ever present pregnant teens this fascination has played out in the media and has consistently focused on primarily White middle class heterosexual girls A growing body of research has revealed the manner in which journalistic practice constructs such girls as problems Girls Moral Panic and News Media takes a broad look at U S news media constructions of girls girlhoods and girl s bodies sexualities through a series of contemporary in depth case studies including news coverage of the 2008 Gloucester MA High School pregnancy pact teen gun control activist Emma Gonz lez and the sexualization of early puberty In general the news media constructs girls bodies as troublesome and in need of adult surveillance and policing These case studies document a cultural obsession with girls bodies an obsession that often approaches moral panic This book will be key reading for researchers and instructors in the rapidly growing international and interdisciplinary field of Girls Studies and scholars of Media Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies Communication and Journalism

Why the Right Went Wrong E.J. Dionne, 2016-09-06 With a new postscript on the 2016 presidential primaries this is the story behind today s headlines In an absorbing narrative E J Dionne Jr illuminates the history of Republican politics from the Barry Goldwater era through the Reagan Revolution to the crisis of the 2016 presidential election With that perspective and contemporary reporting he explains the unrest and discontent on the Right and the Republican Party s bitter civil war while illustrating why a radicalized conservatism has made governing our country so difficult back cover

The Sports Strategist Irving Rein, Ben Shields, Adam Grossman, 2015 The sports industry is more complex than ever before and succeeding within it now requires an equally dynamic approach Teams and leagues across many sports face unprecedented competition in worldwide markets as the cost of doing business increases and traditional revenue streams face pressure In light of these changes the idea that winning championships is the key to organizational success is misguided The Sports Strategist Developing Leaders for a High Performance Industry reveals which areas in the industry unlike winning can be controlled and maximized for consistent success Aspiring leaders in the sports business will learn how to design identities manage narratives and maximize new technologies in order to implement business analytics and build public support These techniques are vital to creating a successful sports organization that is ready to reap the benefits of winning when it does happen without having to rely on it when it doesn t In such a high performance field the demand for well equipped leaders is great and The Sports Strategist provides the necessary tools and techniques for their success
