Ramshackle Alison McCreesh, 2015 Over the past decade the North or at least the idea of it has slowly made its way back to our consciousness a notion that the North is synonymous with a lawless rugged freedom But at first glance Yellowknife NWT is actually a somewhat disappointing modern capital city There are tall buildings yoga pants a Walmart and a lot of government jobs None the less if you dig a little deeper you do find that alternative off grid reality Barely five minutes from the downtown core wedged between million dollar houses you find little shacks where people exist without running water and use honey buckets for toilets When Alison McCreesh moved from Quebec to Yellowknife she quickly fell in love with the quirky ways in which it seemed possible to live up North Part travelogue part comic book part love story and part guide to the North and its quirky inhabitants Ramshackle spans her first summer north of 60 The Routledge Introduction to Auto/biography in Canada Sonja Boon, Laurie McNeill, Julie Rak, Candida Rifkind, 2022-12-29 The Routledge Introduction to Auto biography in Canada explores the exciting world of nonfiction writing about the self designed to give teachers and students the tools they need to study both canonical and lesser known works The volume introduces important texts and contexts for interpreting life narratives demonstrates the conceptual tools necessary to understand what life narratives are and how they work and offers an historical overview of key moments in Canadian auto biography Not sure what life writing in Canada is or how to study it This critical introduction covers the tools and approaches you require in order to undertake your own interpretation of life writing texts You will encounter nonfictional writing about individual lives and experiences including biography autobiography letters diaries comics poetry plays and memoirs The volume includes case studies to provide examples of how to study and research life narratives and toolkits to help you apply what you learn The Routledge Introduction to Auto biography in Canada provides instructors and students with the contexts and the critical tools to discover the power of life writing and the skills to study any kind of nonfiction from Canada and around the world

Degrees of Separation , 2024-03 The tension between free spirited off grid living and prosaic adult responsibility runs through Alison McCreesh's tender and loving ode to the people and landscapes of the Far North Joe Sacco Paying the Land At age 21 Alison hitchhiked to the Yukon and spent the summer living in a tent 10 years later in the deep of winter and seven months pregnant she returns Degrees of Separation is about what happened in between Over the course of a decade artist Alison McCreesh lived worked and travelled north of the 60th parallel Through a combination of autobiographical stories drawings and sketches Degrees of Separation offers an intimate and understated glimpse of the North as Alison experienced it From frigid days spent killing time while stranded in the High Arctic to the challenges of raising a baby in a small shack with no running water it is one young woman's personal experience of both passing through and of setting down roots Tinged with McCreesh's characteristic blend of humour and humanity Degrees of Separation is about the north and its vastness and its diversity While the backdrop may seem foreign to many this collection is also a universal exploration of those transformative years from young adulthood to motherhood It s a graphic novel navigating themes of connection and disconnect between the north and the south but also between different norths and between our different selves

Ramshackle Alison McCreesh,2018-09-27 One Good Thing Rebecca Hendry,2018 A novel set in Yellowknife s historic Old Town in the 70s that explores both abandonment and belonging in the life of one young woman Yellowknife Steve Zipp,2010 Yellowknife Hans Barfod,Carolyn Czarnecki,1984
