Social Media in the Arab World Barrie Gunter, Mokhtar Elareshi, Khalid Al-Jaber, 2016-04-21 Following the Arab Spring the use of social media has become instrumental in organising activist movements and spreading political dissent in the Middle East New online behaviours have transformed traditional communication channels enabling young people of all backgrounds to feel politically empowered But now that spring has turned to winter what are the long term implications of internet activism in the region Social Media in the Arab World provides a unique insight into the role of online communications as a force for change in the Gulf States Featuring examples as diverse as neo patrimonial politics in Saudi Arabia and the ways an online presence affects the status of women in Kuwait the chapters examine shifts in the political social and religious identities of citizens as a result of increased digital activism With contributions from a variety of inter disciplinary experts this wide ranging study examines the consequences of changing power dynamics brought about by popular social media In doing so this book offers an original perspective on the long term implications of internet usage in the Arab world and is essential reading for students and researchers working across the region

The BBC and the Public Barrie Gunter, 2024-10-23 This book examines the relationship between the public and the BBC in terms of public use of the BBC and their attitudes towards it These audience research measures are being used as metrics to assess the value of the BBC to the UK public Some of the attitudinal measures address perceptions of the BBC s outputs and some examine public views about the way the BBC is funded and managed The book has been written at a time when the BBC reached its centenary and also the mid point of its latest Royal Charter period At the time of writing the government had begun a mid term review of its performance as judged by its attainment of objectives set out in that Charter The Secretary of State for Digital Culture Media and Sport at the time of the mid term review had spoken and written openly about abolishing the TV licence fee and the introduction of a new funding model for the BBC that would be implemented in its new Royal Charter due to be enacted in 2027 Against this backdrop this book examines public opinion about the funding of the BBC and then looks at changing media consumption habits and how these have affected patronage of the BBC s outputs Ultimately a decision must be taken about the kind of national broadcaster the UK both is government and its citizens would like to keep in the future Changing the funding model without first defining what the BBC should do and how it should be structured and resourced to do it could result in a messy solution that satisfies and benefits no one
