Murder in the Gunroom H. Beam Piper,2015-10-30 It was hard to judge Jeff Rand s age from his appearance he was certainly over thirty and considerably under fifty He looked hard and fit like a man who could be a serviceable friend or a particularly unpleasant enemy Women instinctively suspected that he would make a most satisfying lover One might have taken him for a successful lawyer he had studied law years ago or a military officer in mufti he still had a Reserve colonelcy and used the title occasionally to impress people who he thought needed impressing or a prosperous businessman as he usually thought of himself Most of all he looked like King Charles II of England anachronistically clad in a Brooks Brothers suit At the moment he was looking rather like King Charles II being bothered by one of his mistresses who wanted a peerage for her husband But Mrs Fleming he was expostulating There surely must be somebody else After all you ll have to admit that this isn t the sort of work this agency handles The would be client released a series of smoke rings and watched them float up toward the air outlet at the office ceiling It spoke well for Rand s ability to subordinate esthetic to business considerations that he was trying to give her a courteous and humane brush off She made even the Petty and Varga girls seem credible Her color scheme was blue and gold blue eyes and a blue tailored outfit that would have looked severe on a less curvate figure and a charmingly absurd little blue hat perched on a mass of golden hair If Rand had been Charles II she could have walked out of there with a duchess s coronet and Nell Gwyn would have been back selling oranges Why isn t it she countered Your door s marked
