Muslim And Christian Beliefs A Comparison:

Muslim and Christian Beliefs: A Comparison Bruce McDowell, Anees Zaka, 2000-01-01 It is crucial that followers of Jesus and followers of Allah understand the similarities and differences of their respective systems of belief This compendium has been derived largely from the authors book Muslims and Christians at the Table We heartily recommend this 325 page book designed to promote biblical understanding among Muslims Your Book and My Book Gerhard Nehls, 2016-04 We live in a changing world Mass migration and seemingly shrinking distances are leading to a clash of worldviews and cultures This in turn is formed and sustained by our religious beliefs based on the Bible or the Qur'an Most Christians and Muslims do not chose their religion They were born into it and to a varying degree instructed in it True faith is based on knowing why and what to believe For such a choice information is indispensable It can be found here Those who make a genuine effort to obtain an adequate insight into both religions in order to form their own opinions about them do not only broaden their horizon and begin to understand the mindset of their foreign neighbours but also learn to significantly relate to them This book affords a basic and yet sufficient insight into the Bible and the Qur'an The reader will be surprised by discoveries they are likely to make about the very source of their own religion Gerhard Nehls not only studied the Bible and the Qur'an but equally the Hadith and Sirat which support and interpret the latter Besides that he was involved in a great number of personal studies and discussions with Muslims This book is unique in that it does not consult the one or other opposing opinion about them but lets the two Books speak for themselves Its topical order makes it easy to discover their similarities but it also does not hide their at times crucial differences Be challenged Just think of it What if Egyptian-Islamic Views on the Comparison of Religions Francis Abdelmassieh, 2020 Al Azhar University is widely regarded as the most prestigious educational institution in Sunni Islam In this capacity it plays an important role in Egyptian society also touching on the relationship between Muslims and Christians The present study examines the writings of three contemporary Al Azhar scholars in an effort to identify the operative understanding of comparative religions namely Islam and Christianity in each case The study identifies various paradigms and provides impulses for a methodological reorientation in an effort to promote mutual understanding Islam and Christianity for Children Christine Chapman, 2014-04-14 Can I be half Muslim and half Christian Is the Bible like the Qur'an Do Muslims believe in Jesus Have you ever tried to explain religion to a child What if that child had parents of different religions Author Christine Chapman found herself in this position in discussions with her young grandchildren Many texts explain religions as separate to each other but children these days have to try to make sense of religion in the context of multi faith parentage or community How do they distinguish between theology and culture fact from family emotions She set about researching and writing just such a text adding illustrations on every page She explores views on family life and marriage dress and diet prayer and festivals while explaining the beliefs of Muslims and Christians to children in a non partisan fact based way Her focus is on the need for understanding and friendship between members of both religions Armed with this kind of understanding and knowledge she hopes and prays that the next generation may grow up to more peaceful times than ours

Comparing the Qur'an and the Bible Rick Richter, 2011-11-01 Engagement with the Muslim world and Muslim people is inevitable for Christians After all Islam is the fastest growing religion in the United States But what does the Qur'an really say about things like Jesus war and non Muslims What does the Bible say on these matters If Christians are to engage in informed loving conversation with their Muslim neighbors they need to be equipped with more than the often specious talking points they glean from the news or email forwards Comparing the Qur'an and the Bible offers readers an unprecedented collection of Scriptures and doctrines of both faiths presented side by side for easy study and comparison covering such key issues as Jesus Abraham creation angels jinn jihad the fall of humankind predestination ransom for sin sacrifice grace rebirth God Allah women marriage and divorce homosexuality suicide resurrection judgment Paradise prayer A brief explanation of each passage in the Qur'an and the Bible is given as well as biblical answers to Islamic teaching The book also motivates readers to have hearts for Muslims and seek to bring them to Christ offering door openers to sharing the Good News This indispensable collection will be treasured by anyone seeking to understand and engage their Muslim neighbors

Muslim-Christian Engagement in the Twentieth Century Charles Fletcher, 2014-10-21 Christian Muslim dialogue grows increasingly important but little is known about individual Muslim dialogical thinkers Born in Palestine in 1921 Ismail al Faruqi was a leading figure in the development of conversation and debate across faiths in North America in the second half of the twentieth century and was actively engaged in inter faith study and dialogue Al Faruqi founded the Islamic Studies programme at Temple University Pennsylvania where several distinguished Muslim intellectuals have taught such as Seyyid Hossein Nasr Mahmoud Ayoub and Hasan Hanafi Along with Kenneth Cragg and Wilfred Cantwell Smith al Faruqi was an active participant in Muslim Christian dialogues in the 1970s and the 1980s Charles Fletcher here presents the first study dedicated to Ismail al Faruqi s theory and practice of interfaith dialogue Analysing al Faruqi s sometimes provocative ideas on the comparative study of religion dialogue and practical engagement the author provides an illuminating study of the life and thought of this important scholar Tracing the development of al Faruqi s ideas and practice of inter faith dialogue Fletcher shows how Muslim intellectuals engaged in such attempts viewed their role as representatives of the worldwide Muslim community With perceptive insights into the history of contemporary Muslim Christian dialogue this book will be invaluable for all those interested in inter faith relations comparative religious studies North American Muslims and Islamic studies A God Divided Christopher Catherwood,2007 Catherwood a respected authority in religious history objectively and accessibly explains how Christianity Islam and Judaism evolved over time and how they have changed today Comparative Religions (Speedy Study Guides) Speedy Publishing,2015-04-28 Acknowledging the presence of different religions and understanding their differences creates a deep sense of awareness and respect This quick study guide briefly but smartly introduces the religions of Buddhism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Judaism The history of Hitler s ruthless attacks on Jews will never again be repeated with the right knowledge and information Get a copy today Muslim and Christian Understanding W. El-Ansary,D. Linnan,2010-11-26 This book explores A Common Word Between Us and You a high level ongoing Christian Muslim dialogue process The Common Word process was commenced by leading Islamic scholars and intellectuals as outreach in response to the Pope s much criticized Regensburg address of 2007 Christian and Islamic Theology of Religions Esra Akay Dag,2017-04-21 Cover Title Copyright Dedication Contents Preface Abbreviations Introduction 1 Christian theology of religions 2 Rowan Williams s theology of religions 3 Islamic theology of religions 4 Jerusha Lamptey s theology of religions 5 Theology of religions reassessed Conclusion Index Modern Western Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin,2002 Christianity, Islam, and Atheism William Kilpatrick,2012 Christianity Islam and atheism argues that Islam is a religion of conquest and subjugation and that in spite of 9 11 and thousands of other terrorist attacks throughout the world many in the West still do not know or admit this because it conflicts with their multiculturalism and their belief in the equivalence of all cultures and religions Medieval Exegesis and Religious Difference Ryan Szpiech,2015-05-01 Jews Christians and Muslims all have a common belief in the sanctity of a core holy scripture and commentary on scripture exegesis was at the heart of all three traditions in the Middle Ages At the same time because it dealt with issues such as the nature of the canon the limits of acceptable interpretation and the meaning of salvation history from the perspective of faith exegesis was elaborated in the Middle Ages along the faultlines of interconfessional disputation and polemical conflict This collection of thirteen essays by world renowned scholars of Judaism Christianity and Islam explores the nature of exegesis during the High and especially the Late Middle Ages as a discourse of cross cultural and interreligious conflict paying particular attention to the commentaries of scholars in the western and southern Mediterranean from Iberia and Italy to Morocco and Egypt Unlike other comparative studies of religion this collection is not a chronological history or an encyclopedic guide Instead it presents essays in four conceptual clusters Writing on the Borders of Islam Jewish Christian Conflict The Intellectual Activity of the Dominican Order and Gender that explore medieval exegesis as a vehicle for the expression of communal or religious identity one that reflects shared or competing notions of sacred history and sacred text This timely book will appeal to scholars and lay readers alike and will be essential reading for students of comparative religion historians charting the history of religious conflict in the medieval Mediterranean and all those interested in the intersection of Jewish Christian and Muslim beliefs and practices

Gender Roles in the Future? Theoretical Foundations and Future Research Directions Alice H. Eagly, Sabine Sczesny, 2019-11-01 The study of gender is deservedly a major focus of research in the discipline of psychology in general and social psychology in particular Interest in the topic increased sharply in the 1970s with the flowering of the feminist movement and research has continued to advance since that time In 1987 Alice Eagly formulated Social Role Theory to explain the behavior of women and men as well as the stereotypes attitudes and ideologies that are relevant to sex and gender Enhanced by several extensions over the intervening years this theory became one of the pre eminent if not the central theory of gender in social psychology Also over the last decades social psychologists have developed a variety of related approaches to understanding gender including for instance theories devoted to stereotyping leadership status backlash lack of fit to occupational roles social identity and categorization Reflecting these elements this e Book includes articles that encompasses a wide range of themes pertaining to sex and gender In these papers the concept of social roles appears often as central integrative concept that links individuals with their social environment These articles thereby complement social role theory as the authors reach out to build an extended theoretical foundation for gender research of the future

From Seed to Fruit (Revised and Enlarged Second Edition) J. Dudley Woodberry, 2008-06-01 The revised and enlarged second edition of J Dudley Woodberry s From Seed to Fruit expands on the next stage of the ongoing collaborative research and reflections of many people from many organizations desiring to bless Muslims Seven additional chapters survey major trends in global Islam today and explore themes that prove to have considerable influence on fruitfulness including a new chapter on building Christlike relationships with Muslims The Global Trends Research Group has continued to update the demographic materials on Muslim people groups their access to Christian witness and when and how Christian groups covenant to provide meaningful access From Seed to Fruit presents the most recent worldwide research on witness to Christ among Muslim peoples using biblical images from nature to show the interaction between God's activity and human responsibility in blessing these peoples The Names of God in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Máire Byrne, 2011-07-07 This book offers a welcome solution to the growing need for a common language in interfaith dialogue particularly between the three Abrahamic faiths in our modern pluralistic society The book suggests that the names given to God in the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an could be the very foundations and building blocks for a common language between the Jewish Christian and Islamic faiths On both a formal interfaith level as well as between everyday followers of each doctrine this book facilitates a more fruitful and universal understanding and respect of each sacred text exploring both the commonalities and differences between each theology and their individual receptions In a practical application of the methodologies of comparative theology Maire Byrne shows that the titles names and epithets given to God in the sacred texts of Judaism Christianity and Islam contribute towards similar images of God in each case and elucidates the importance of this for providing a viable starting point for interfaith dialogue How the Qur'an Interprets the Bible Kaltner, John, Frechette, Christopher G., 2020 The Bible and the Qur'an are arguably the most frequently cited and most misunderstood books in history This book treats an important element of their commonality by exploring how the Qur'an offers new interpretations of some of the characters and stories it shares with the Bible
