Muslim Modernity in Postcolonial Nigeria Ousmane Kane, 2003-01-01 This book deals with Muslim modernity in a country with the largest single Muslim population in Sub Saharan Africa It provides much needed new grounds for comparative study Until now virtually all socio anthropological works about any specific African country are either authored by nationals of that country or by Western scholars This book is an exception because its author is an Islamicist and a social scientist from Senegal trained in the French social science tradition Therefore his work does offer an original perspective in the study of Nigeria In addition the study of Islam south of the Sahara has so far focused on Sufi orders which form the mainstream of Islam but which by no means covers the whole Islamic field so called Islamic fundamentalist movements are also part of the religious landscape This book is devoted to the study of the largest single Muslim fundamentalist organization in postcolonial Sub Saharan Africa the Society for the Removal of Innovation and Reinstatement of Tradition

Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue Marianne Moyaert, Joris Geldhof, 2015-04-23 Shared ritual practices multi faith celebrations and interreligious prayers are becoming increasingly common in the USA and Europe as more people experience religious diversity first hand While ritual participation can be seen as a powerful expression of interreligious solidarity it also carries with it challenges of a particularly sensitive nature Though celebrating and worshipping together can enhance interreligious relations cross riting may also lead some believers to question whether it is appropriate to engage in the rituals of another faith community Some believers may consider cross ritual participation as inappropriate transgressive behaviour Bringing together leading international contributors and voices from a number of religious traditions Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue delves into the complexities and intricacies of the phenomenon They ask what are the promises and perils of celebrating and praying together What are the limits of ritual participation How can we make sense of feelings of discomfort when entering the sacred space of another faith community The first book to focus on the lived dimensions of interreligious dialogue through ritual participation rather than textual or doctrinal issues this innovative volume opens an entirely new perspective
