Algeria Oran owed much of its commercial vitality to the success of these Jewish merchants Under French occupation the merchants of Oran maintained their commercial political and social clout Yet by the 1840s French policies began collapsing Oran's diverse Jewish inhabitants into a single social category legally separating Jews from their Muslim neighbors and creating a racial hierarchy Schreier argues that France's exclusionary policy of emancipation far more than older antipathies planted the seeds of twentieth century ruptures between Muslims and Jews Exploring Islam beyond Orientalism and Occidentalism Christel Gärtner, Heidemarie Winkel, 2021-06-29 Islamic religion has become an object of political discourse in ways that also affects academic reflection against this background this volume aims to provide a theoretically and empirically founded assessment of where social sciences currently stand with regard to Islam For this purpose the volume continues to develop the sociological knowledge of Islam that began in the 1980s Given the Orientalism inherent in sociology the volume focuses on Muslim knowledge systems and institutions as well as the practice of Muslim religiosity in various social contexts A Sephardi Sea Dario Miccoli, 2022-07-26 A Sephardi Sea tells the story of stretching from Algeria and Morocco to Turkey Jews from the southern shore of the Mediterranean who between the late 1940s and the mid 1960s migrated from their country of birth for Europe Israel and beyond It is a story that explores their contrasting memories of and feelings for a Sephardi Jewish world in North Africa and Egypt that is lost forever but whose echoes many still hear Surely some of these Jewish migrants were already familiar with their new countries of residence because of colonial ties or of Zionism and often spoke the language Why then was the act of leaving so painful and why more than fifty years afterward is its memory still so tangible Dario Miccoli examines how the memories of a bygone Sephardi Mediterranean world became preserved in three national contexts Israel France and Italy where the Jews of the Middle East and North Africa and their descendants migrated and nowadays live A Sephardi Sea exploreshow practices of memory and heritage making from the writing of novels and memoirs to the opening of museums and memorials the activities of heritage associations and state led celebrations has filled an identity vacuum in the three countries and helps the Jews from North Africa and Egypt to define their Jewishness in Europe and Israel today but also reinforce their connection to a vanished world now remembered with nostalgia affection and Electric News in Colonial Algeria ^BArthur^R ^BAsseraf^R,2019-08-08 How do the things which connect us sadness also serve to divide us Electric News in Colonial Algeria traces how news circulated in a particularly divided society Algeria under French rule in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It tells a different history of globalization one which puts the experience of everyday people at the centre The years between 1881 and 1940 were those of maximum colonial power in North Africa a period of intense technological revolution global high imperialism and the expansion of settler colonialism Algerians became connected to international networks of news and local people followed distant events with great interest But once news reached Algeria accounts of recent events often provoked conflict as they moved between different social groups In a society split between its native majority and a substantial settler minority distant wars led to riots

Circulation and polarisation were two sides of the same coin Examining a range of sources in multiple languages across colonial society Electric News in Colonial Algeria offers a new understanding of the spread of news News was a whole ecosystem in which new technologies such as the printing press telegraph cinema and radio interacted with older media like songs rumours letters and manuscripts The French government watched anxiously over these developments monitoring Algerians reactions to news through an extensive network of surveillance that often ended up spreading news rather than controlling its flow By tracking what different people thought of as news this history helps us reconsider the relationship between time media and historical change Sartre, Jews, and the Other Manuela Consonni, Vivian Liska, 2020-02-24 The starting point for this compilation is the wish to rethink the concept of antisemitism race and gender in light of Sartre s pioneering R flexions sur la Question Juive seventy years after its publication The book gathers texts by prestigious scholars from different disciplines in the Humanities and the Social Sciences with the objective or revisiting this work locating it within the setting of two other pioneering and we argue related publications namely Simone De Beauvoir s Le deuxi me sexe of 1949 and Franz Fanon's Peau noire et masques blancs of 1952 This particular and original standpoint sheds new light on the different meanings and political functions of the concept of antisemitism in a political and historical context marked by the post modern concepts of multi ethnicity and multiculturalism Insight Turkey 2016 - Winter 2016 (Vol. 18, No. 1) , Germany who challenged the British and its allies twice in the first half of the 20th century began to reemerge as a global political power and to play the big game in the wake of the Cold War As the strongest economy and the most crowded country in the European Union EU Germany has decided to lead the EU institutions and the old continent in global platforms Especially after the reunification of the country Germany started to dominate European politics With the collapse of the Soviet Union and the end of Cold War politics Germany prompted the European countries to pursue a more independent foreign policy Getting rid of the Soviet threat Germany no longer needs NATO and the U S protection As a result we see a Germany which has initiated a multidimensional and multilateral foreign policy orientation in order to improve its worldwide Routledge Handbook of Cultural Sociology Laura Grindstaff, Ming-Cheng M. The volume brings together leading scholars in the emerging field of antisemitism Islamophobia studies who work in a diverse range of disciplines anthropology history sociology critical theory and literature Together they help us to understand a Europe in which Jews and Arabs were once called Semites and today are widely thought to be on two different sides of the War on Terror Muslims and the Making of Modern Europe Emily Greble, 2021 Drawing upon Muslim Europe's own voices institutions and experiences this compelling work reframes the debates on European secularism the historic role of Shari a law in diverse European states Muslims and Nazis Muslims and Communists and the contributions of Muslims to Europe today
