Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care Emmanuel Y. Lartey, Hellena Moon, 2020-09-23 This anthology is about caring for all persons as a part of the revolutionary struggle against colonialism in its many forms In recognition of the varied ways in which different forms of oppression injustice and violence in the world today are traceable to the legacy and continuing effects of colonialism various authors have contributed to the volume from diverse backgrounds including differing ethnic identities religious and cultural traditions gender and sexual orientations as well as communal and personal realities As a postcolonial critique of spiritual care it highlights the plurality of voices and concerns that have been overlooked or obscured because of the politics of race religion sexuality nationalism and other structures of power that have shaped what discursive spiritual care entails today Postcolonial Images of Spiritual Care presents voices of practical and pastoral theologians academics spiritual care providers religious leaders students and activists working to provide greater intercultural spiritual care and awareness in the areas of healthcare community work and education The volume as such expands the discourse of spiritual care and participates in the ongoing paradigm shifts in the field of pastoral and practical theology

Questions for Christians John Morreall, 2014-06-17 Questions for Christians The Surprising Truths behind Basic Beliefs asks whether or not Christians today have gotten Jesus message right drawing on the Bible and the history of Christianity for answers From the gender of God to what happens when we die Questions for Christians digs into some of the thorniest points of the Christian faith questions that many people would rather ignore Most Christians today believe in just wars but how do we reconcile this belief with Jesus saying Do not resist an evildoer But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek turn the other also or the pacifism of most early Christians Protestants and Catholics today generally believe that Jesus died on the cross to atone for our sins but most Orthodox Christians don't believe this and neither did most Western churches before 1100 What is the truth Drawing on sources both ancient and modern John Morreall explores these issues while identifying points of controversy Some of the answers are surprising while others provide a more complete understanding of common beliefs

Early Childhood Education and Care Margaret M Clark, Tim Waller, 2007-05-14 A much needed book that uniquely brings together policy and practice in early childhood education and care across the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland It offers a wealth of information and useful websites and addresses so that importantly readers can keep abreast of the rapidly changing external environment in these countries An essential read for those wishing to understand the background to policy and practice in early childhood education and care Linda Miller The Open University This book is long overdue it provides effective cameos of developments in each country highlighting key legislation the underlying philosophy the formation of policies and their implementation in state voluntary and private provision The International Journal of Early Childhood This unique resource will be invaluable in helping students and others trying to understand the context of current early years provision The case studies bring the book to life and ground it in the stories of real children and their families They highlight how the similarities and differences in support for children and their families are more dependent on where they live than what they need Lesley Staggs Early childhood education and care policy has an impact on the daily lives of early years practitioners and the families and children they work with and practising and trainee early childhood professionals need to have an understanding of current policy as well as the contexts for policy making and implementation Currently the majority of textbooks for early years education and early childhood students in the UK focus on the situation in England As a result readers may have a skewed perspective on policy and practice and not be aware of the varying and different contexts in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales Also those working in settings not in England have to work hard to apply texts to their own contexts In contrast this book gives the reader easy access to information on the policies and practices in ECEC across each of the countries in the UK and the Republic of Ireland Each chapter covers o background information o policy and practice in early childhood education and care o transition o schooling and curriculum o quality assurance examination and inspection o professional development and training o future and imminent changes o case studies of children s lives In addition to describing the legislative political and practical situation in each country the book enables comparisons to be drawn and helps readers interpret the data critically It will be essential reading for modules on comparative education and international perspectives but will also form a foundation for all modules involving policy and provision on Early Years Education Early Childhood or Childhood Studies courses Practitioners undertaking CPD modules or foundation degrees and international students looking for comparative data will also find the book useful

Centurion: Before the Smuggler's Court Steven F. Warnock, It was just another day for award winning documentarian and army brat Kat Delbath Late hours in the dark editing her latest project were nothing new but little did she know that tonight she was on a collision course with terrorists that would flip her life upside down and prove to her that everything she knew was a lie In the midst of a series of terror attacks she s learning that the universe is a little more crowded than she realized Kat owes her life to her very own version of a knight in shining armor An Armada Centurion in Black Armor Meet Ranger Her world will never be the same From the book And how do you plan on making your escape Sir do you really think you could stop me if I wanted to leave When the time comes I will walk out that door under my own power and whether or not you leave with me as my friend or are left lying unconscious in the corner there will be your choice For my part in this I d like for us to be friends because we do have a mutual enemy
