Good Faith in Long-Term Relational Supply Contracts in the Context of Hardship from A Comparative Perspective Peng Guo,2021-11-09 This book provides fair and acceptable solutions to hardship issues in long term relational supply contracts This book uses an approach to strike a balance between the traditional approach underlying classical contract law which emphasises the almost absolute prevalence of the principle of pacta sunt servanda and a flexible approach that is based on the principle of clausula rebus sic stantibus This book argues for an emerging principle of pacta sunt servanda bona fide on the basis of the relational contract theory Additionally this book demonstrates how good faith can serve as a foundation for imposing a duty to renegotiate on the parties The aim of this book is rather to propose how relational contract theory can be applied to the analysis of specific legal rules in general Lastly this book highlights how the duty to renegotiate and the power to adapt a contract can be further developed upon the occurrence of hardship based on good faith and the relational nature and characteristics of a long term relational supply contract This book explores and enriches the existing research on relational contract theory concentrates primarily on its application in domestic contract laws particularly in the regulation of long term contracts in American contract law As an outcome this book provides a more
