Design Control A. C. Hall, 1996 This book proposes a new way forward The need for negotiation requires that design goals and objectives be made explicit They should be distinguished clearly from the criteria for their fulfilment any advice on how they could be achieved and the legal and administrative procedures to be employed A new concept the design area is proposed in place of uniform land use notations Its use would enable design strategies including mix of uses to be shown the stated objectives to vary from place to place and variations in the degree of intervention to be made explicit In addition a start is made on developing a more structured language with which to express changes to urban form To make the plans more accessible to the negotiating parties and the general public new developments in technology can come to our aid The Building Contract Eyvind Finsen, 2005 Since 1991 the JBCC Principal Building Agreement has been used almost exclusively in the building industry for projects in the private sector Recently the State took the policy decision that it too would use these agreements subject to appropriate modification and these modifications were incorporated in the March 2005 edition of the JBCC Principal Building Agreement This edition of The Building Contract deals not only with the provisions of the Agreement as they are applied in State projects but also how the Agreement and its associated documents is employed in conventional projects in the private sector Innovations such as adjudication the advance payment guarantee and the Minor Works Agreement are also discussed The user is armed with knowledge of the nature of the contractual relationship and an understanding of the way in which the agreements are intended to regulate it page 4 of cover Juta's Statutes of South Africa South Africa, 2004 FIP Manual of Lightweight Aggregate Concrete Fédération internationale de la précontrainte, 1983 Business Transactions Law Robert Sharrock, 1999 Consolidated Accessions List Great Britain.
